THOMAS J. KEATING,
OF QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

COUNTY TICKET.

FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATES:

Samuel Cacy,
Thomas A. Hulme.

FOR SHERIFF:

Robert W. Calder.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS:

1st Dist—Charles P. Loper,
2d " —Tilghman Shafer,

5th " —T. Romie Strong.

THE CONDITION of the President seems growing more hopeful. Tuesday he sat in a reclining chair for the first time, and yesterday he ate fruit. His pulse now keeps at an average of about 100, and his tem perature at 98.

LAST WEEK as Guiteau stuck his nose between the bars of his cell, to see what was going on in the outside world, a soldier raised his rifle and sent a bullet within a few inches of the hero's head. No harm was done him, and now he is shut up where he has no outside view, and where nobody else can have a chance to shoot at his miserable noggin.

THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE, if all that is said concerning what it is to be is true will prove a roaring success. "Mystical," "splendid," "dazzling," are only a few of the terms used in describing what it is to be. It is to be the New Orleans Mardi Gras intensified, with additions that New Orleans never dreamed of. So say the advertising slips.

THE HAGERSTOWN NEWS is a late addition to our exchange list. The News has passed into new hands, and henceforth instead of being conducted after the evil ways of a Republican journal, will seek truth with a Democratic head-light. The News is not to be run in the interest of an individual or of individuals,—and all in all we take it, that the News will not look upon Gov. Hamilton as being the only honest man peculiar to this nineteenth century.

A SECOND TICKET is the talk in Queen Anne's county. It has been some time since the Queen Anne's Democracy last had a second ticket disease. But it is a disease that has afflicted the party periodically in that county. Four or five years generally passes between one second ticket craze and another. The reason of this is, that the Democratic voters over there, generally lay a second ticket so low, that it takes at least five years for the courage of the disappointed to revive sufficiency to try again. Like second ticket movements generally, there is probably more bluster and brag in the present Queen Anne's movement, than any thing else. We have heard the names of several respectable gentlemen of the county, used in connection with the movement as probable nominees. When it comes to the proof, however, we believe that these gentlemen will not only refuse to let their names be used, but we believe that they will give their support to the regular ticket. When the disappointed come to make out their ticket, it will be found to be composed for the most part, as usual, of political scalawags. And what's more, if there should be a second ticket it will be found when the polls are counted out next November, that there has been another dreadful funeral. And there will be another dreadful burial. All this will work beneficially in giving harmony and smoothness to the party for another five years. By that time, however, some of the buried may manage to crawl out of their graves, and heave up their caps for another second ticket.

A GRAND SOUTHERN HOTEL.—San Antonio, Texas, is to have one of the grandest hotels in the United States. Colonel Ed. Wickes has the matter in hand, and Jay Gould and C. P. Huntington are down for $50,000 each, to be increased to $100,000 each if necessary. It will be known (so it is now thought) as the Great Southern Hotel, and will be the half-way house between the City of Mexico and New York, as well as between San Francisco and New York. All the money necessary to build a mammoth structure can be had at once.

MR. JAY GOULD, not satisfied with his present contracted residence quarters in New York, has just purchased two sumptuously furnished houses on Fifth avenue, (not far from Mr. Vanderbilt's new houses,) for $350,000 cash. These houses are to be at once refurnished in superb style, and Mr. Gould and his family expect to take possession of them by or before Christmas. A large portion of one of them is to be devoted to a picture gallery, which it is intended shall be one of the finest in the United States.

Thousands of young shad and other fish were found dead on the shore of the Mispillion, above Milford, last week, and it is believed the fish were poisoned by the refuse from the canneries.

Peninsula News.

A negro youth by name of Johnson, has been lodged in Cecil county jail, charged with outrage on the person of Cora Sartin, a young white girl aged thirteen.

The bald-headed editor of the Middletown Transcript has been receiving baskets of fruit from kind young ladies: Consequence, sudden and painful loss of some more hair.

The list of entries for trials of speed at the Middletown fair which commences on the 20th inst., is very full, and embraces some noted goers both from off and on the Peninsula

Robert H. Gillett, a colored man, has been drawn to serve on the jury of the Circuit Court of Worcester county. He is a resident of Pocomoke City, and a man of more than average intelligence.

Mrs. Wm. W. Cheezum while bathing with several friends in Island creek, near St. Michaels, on Thursday of last week, was attacked by a young shark and slightly injured.

1200 acres of land was sold in Georgetown, Sussex county, Del., Tuesday of last week for $10,000. This was considered a good price. 1200 acres of land in Kent county, Maryland, would bring on an average, $60,000.

The Presbyterian church at snow Hill had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Sunday, the 4th inst. Smoke was discovered coming from a closet where cotton cloths had been thrown after using them in cleaning the church lamps. It was a case of spontaneous combustion, but its early discovery prevented any serious damage.

Cool Spring, within the limits of Easton, has dried up, to the great discomfort of numerous families who depended on it for their drinking water. This spring never failed before, within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and the circumstance has caused much surprise, as other springs in the neighborhood are supplying the usual amount of water.

A Democratic nominating convention was held in Elkton, Cecil county, Tuesday of last week. The following ticket was nominated—for State Senate, Lewin R. Mearns; for House of Delegates, Duncan Veazey, James Lewis, William B. Rowland; for County Commissioners, John Conrey, Henry Hess, T. Bradun Gillespie; for Sheriff, Morris Dunbar; for County Surveyor, James J. McCauley.

Before the rain a large fire was raging in Cypress Swamp, in the lower part of Delaware. The swamp which covers many thousand acres, is filled with a dense underbush, impenetrable in many places. The long dry spell has converted it into a huge tinder box, and great destruction of valuable timber is feared. Some parts of the swamp are inhabited by people who were born there and have since not been outside its limits. Several years ago, on the occasion of a forest fire, many wild animals, unknown in other sections of the State, among them a number of bears, escaped to the surrounding country and for a few days excited great alarm.

MURDER IN CECIL COUNTY.

On Wednesday of last week it was discovered that a horrible murder had been committed in Cecil county, near Hart's meeting house, in the 5th district, and about fourteen miles from Elkton.

While John Footy, who keeps a store at Hart's Meeting House, was out in the Elk river endeavoring to catch a drifting boat he discovered a human foot protruding above the surface of the water, and, upon closer examination, discovered that the body was almost perpendicular, with the head firmly fastened to some object at the bottom of the river. Mr. Footy, after much difficulty, succeeded in drawing the corpse into the boat and at once recognized it as being the body of Nicholas Velocker, a resident of the vicinity. It was apparent that he had been murdered. His head was terribly crushed and the brains oozed from the broken skull. The face, too, was shockingly mutilated. The body was taken on shore and a search for circumstantial evidence begun. Velocker had occupied the same dwelling with his tenant, William Arrants and here were found traces of a crime. There was blood upon the ground, traces of which were found from the house to the river, a distance of more than a mile. It was evident that the crime had been committed at the house and the body drug thence to the river. Here, it is supposed, the murderer put the body of his victim into a boat, rowed out to deep water, and, after fastening a heavy anchor to the neck, threw it overboard.—Arrants, when informed of the discovery of the corpse, denied all knowledge of the crime. He is a young man who has borne quite a good reputation, and he and his landlord were apparently on the best of terms. The murdered man was about fifty years of age. He was at times dissipated, and when under the influence of liquor made a display of his money. The section in which the murder occurred bears rather an unenviable reputation. Arrants was arrested and committed to Elkton jail.

A jury of inquest after inquiring into all the known particulars bearing upon the case, rendered the following verdict:

"That the said Nicholas Velocker came to his death at or near his residence, in said county, by a blow in the front portion of the head, by a blunt instrument in the hands of some person to the jury unknown. It is further apparent to this jury that the said body of Nicholas Velocker was dragged from his residence to the Elk river where it was found concealed in the water, three hundred yards from the shore with an anchor, chain and rope attached to the neck."

When Sheriff Logan returned to Elkton last Wednesday from the investigation into the murder, he found Arrants sitting on the jail steps with the Deputy Sheriff, and Thomas Drennen, Esq., who was his security in an assault and battery case. He had been informed of the finding of Velocker upon his arrival in Elkton on the way from Wilmington and advised by Mr. Drennen to await the return of the Sheriff. He denied all knowledge of the murder; said he had not seen Velocker since Monday morning and first heard of his disappearance in Wilmington where he was told of it by a North Easter whom he happened to meet. Arrants has been attending Wilmington market for some time. This summer he has dealt in peaches and it is reported that Velocker charged him with making up the load from his orchard. Dressed lambs have also been taken to market by Arrants, and these he killed in the same yard where the murder occurred. Marks of animal blood are numerous on the fence where this killing was done. A dirty shirt taken from Arrants' wagon on Wednesday night shows blood stains on the sleeves; whether human or animal blood will have to be determined by chemical analysis.

Jim Sanders, a mulatto, who worked for Arrants, and who it was thought might have been concerned in the crime, has also been placed under arrest. Sanders lives in a fish house along the river, two miles from Velocker's. He told the officers freely all he knew about Arrants and Velocker, but denied all knowledge of the murder. He left Arrants on last Saturday. On the previous Friday he said he helped him to kill lambs which Arrants sold through the Neck on Saturday. The axe was used in the killing, Sanders says. He professed to know the kind of lines used by Arrants, and the description he gave of them tallied with that of the rope around Velocker's neck.

THREE HUNDRED LIVES DESTROYED.

RAVAGES OF THE FLAMES IN MICHIGAN—PEOPLE WHO WERE DRIVEN FROM HOME AND ROASTED TO DEATH.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.

Details continue to come in relative to the destruction by forest fires. Huron and Sanilac counties have been the principal theatre of the greatest destruction and suffering. An eye-witness states that darkness and a copper-colored sky preceded the approach of the fire. Later the sky changed to a deep red, and Monday afternoon it became so dark that lanterns were necessary for people to find their way. This condition of affairs continued until about eight o'clock Wednesday morning, when the wind shifted from west to north, cooling the air and bringing a slight relief. In the woods were many scorched and charred bodies, which presented a revolting appearance. The high winds that prevailed cut off nearly every avenue of escape and large burning masses would be lifted up bodily and borne along for a great distance. In many instances these burning masses started fires in fresh places. The skill and courage of man seemed impotent to combat with such flames and the flying people were caught in the fire-traps and roasted. One farmer who was plowing with his oxen a few miles from Sand Beach perceived the approaching darkness and started for his house. On reaching home he found that his wife had gone to a neighbor's. He then took two of his children, his oldest daughter taking three others. Before going many rods they found themselves cut off by the flames. The farmer then turned in another direction and escaped with the two children. His daughter and the other three children were found next day, all in a heap, charred beyond recognition. Up to Wednesday night forty-five bodies had been found within a mile. In Paris township many are missing, most of them Poles. The whole settlement—buildings, fences, crops, etc., was swept clean. In Delaware township all the county south of Forrestville from the lake, seven miles back, there is hardly anything left—not one house to the square mile. They were new settlers and had small earnings, and the fire swept them like a hurricane. They lose all they had and owe for their places. Many of them fled to the lake.

The shore line has been crowded with human beings, cattle and everything that could get to the water. Eye-witnesses from Forrestville say that the utmost confusion prevails. Many could not see. One man, who had lost his all, was both blind and crazy and had to be led to the lake.

MADE BLIND BY THE FLAMES.

North of Sanilac the fire on Monday night was terrible, sweeping away almost everything, but it seemed to leave the houses. The people did not know any fire was near them until it was on them and had to run for the lake, and it being but a short distance away all reached it safely. John Kerr and family were asleep when their building caught fire and a neighbor seeing it ran and awoke them, and they succeeded in saving the house, but lost everything else. Mrs. N. Burgess got separated from her husband and laid all night in a ditch. Another person laid down in a mud puddle and rolled over and over all night. A large party of men have gone to bury the dead beasts in Forrester township. Dr. Hoyt, who returned for more medicine, reported several badly burnt. Many are so blind they had to be led and many are without food. A number of parties have already gone with food, clothing, shoes and medicine. More help must come quickly, as much suffering will ensue. They have no flour or provisions. George Ferguson, of White Rock, who has been on the road since Monday, reports that he has seen one hundred and sixteen burned bodies. At one place he saw four wagons bearing eight coffins, with one man walking behind all alone. It was his family. Another man was following three coffins. Every farmer lost some crops and fences.

THE DELUGE OF FIRE SUBSIDING.

On Wednesday night the burning district between Deckersville and Sand Beach was visited by a rain storm, which put out a considerable portion of the fires and cleared the atmosphere.

The latest reports are that the fires appear to be abating. A dispatch from Port Austin, at the top of the burned peninsula, sums up the general destruction as follows: The loss of lives by the forest fires on Monday and Tuesday is estimated at from two to three hundred.—The following villages were burned: Bad Axe, Verona, Forest Bay, Richmondville, Charleston, Anderson, Deckersville, Harrisonville and Sandusky. The following were partly burned; Port Hope, Minden Elbly. The great loss in villages is nothing to that in the country, where the losses are too numerous to be named.

Reports from Saginaw, Tuscola and Lapeer counties, one tier back from the lake, while showing much destruction of property do not approach the losses in the shore counties. The loss by fire was much less sweeping and general and the loss of life was small. But in each of these more favored counties hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property has been destroyed. The latest reports from all these counties encourage the belief that rain has visited many sections and that the deluge of flame is largely subsiding. The work of immediate relief must now be systematically entered upon. Lumber to build houses, provisions of all kinds, clothing and seed for future crops must be furnished in large quantities to prevent still greater destitution. The benevolent everywhere can safely send money to Mr. E. C. Carleton, Mayor of Port Huron, or to Senator O. D. Conger, in the same place, with the assurance that the means will be judiciously used. Prompt action is urgently demanded.

Rains have fallen in probably sufficient quantity to quench the fires, but not enough to soak the ground and revive the drooping vegetation. The lowest estimates indicate that 215 families have been burned out in the towns of Marlette, Flynn, Argyle, Evergreen, Moore, Lamotte and Elmer, in Sanilac county, and 32 persons are known to be dead. Men who traveled through the burned district yesterday reported that the fires are mostly out and the inhabitants sitting about the ashes of their burned houses.

FEVER AND AGUE.

Are you troubled with Ague, Chills and Fevers, Bilious Fever, Remittent or Intermitting Fever, Night Sweats or any disease that comes from Malaria or disordered Liver and Hot Suns? If so, procure a bottle of Green's Ague Conqueror, which is an acetic extract of strong tonic roots, combined with Sulphate of Magnesia, etc., and positively contains no Quinine, Arsenic or other poisons. It purifies the blood, cleanses the liver, spleen and other secretive organs so effectually that the chills will not return. We have never found any case of Fever and Ague it will not cure. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. One large bottle has cured as many as five in one family. Sold by all druggists and dealers every where.

LIME PAINT.
It is good for Frame Houses, outside being Water Proof
The attention of Housekepers, Farmers and others is called to the above Useful and Valuable Preparation for Whitewashing and Sanitary Purposes. It costs less in comparison than Common Whitewash, or the unslacked lime, and its durability and beauty are two-fold greater. It never loses its strength. It can be kept for years. When applied, it forms a surface as smooth as calsomine, without glue or plaster. It can be used conveniently and economically in making Mortar, Finishing Insides, and for all purposes in which sand and lime are employed. We solicit a trial. TO WHEAT GROWERS.
The undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of FERTILIZERS in this city, and ORIGINATOR in 1858 of the formulas and processes of manufacture of "Excelsior" and Ammoniated Phosphate
So well and favorably known by the agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these FERTILIZERS, as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the Farmers and Planters of Maryland and Virginia, with the assurance that the High Standard Quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer, combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano and the ever durable fertilizing properties of Bones in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.
For growing wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after over twenty years' experience in the use of these Fertilizers manufactured by me, that an application of 160 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other Fertilizer or Guano, therefore fully 50 per cent. cheaper.
With my present advantages and superior facilities for manufacturing, I challenge competition with any Fertilizer sold in the United States, in quality, mechanical condition and price.
By strictly adhering to my original formulas, using only the most concentrated materials and superintending in person their manufacture, as for the past twenty-three years,
UNIFORM QUALITY IS GUARANTEED.
☞ Farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE prepared according to my original formulas established in 1858, should see that every bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.

AGENT FOR
Maryland Co's. Phosphate

THE MARYLAND
Fertilizing and Manufacturing Co.
ARE PREPARED TO FURNISH THE FOLLOWING WELL-KNOWN BRANDS OF FERTILIZERS:
ALKALINE SUPER PHOSPHATE,
AND LINDEN PHOSPHATE.
The ALKALINE and LINDEN PHOSPHATES have special reference to the growth and development of the Grain, and are intended for lands that produce a sufficient growth of Straw, but small crops of Grain. They have been used for several years by some of the best farmers of Maryland and Virginia, alongside the highest grades Ammoniated Phosphates, and in some sections have almost superceded them.
The Fine Mechanical condition of our FERTILIZERS is such, that they Drill readily, and we recommend the use of the Drill as being the most profitable way of applying Fertilizers.
The steadily increasing demand for above goods in the neighborhoods where it has been used, attests its success as an unexcelled Wheat Fertilizer.
One evidence of the value of our Fertilizers is that all the parties named below who used our goods last year, have increased their orders for this year. These namesare genuine, and we refer farmers to the parties themselves:

Capt. E. B. Woodall,	E. F. C. Perkins,	Richard Smyth,
Charles England,	S. J. Roseberry,	T. J. Vickers,
T. F. Hurlock,	W. O. Shallcross,	J. W. Howard,
