Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1881.

The Schools in the county were mostly closed on Monday.

Interesting Sketches of the late president and of the new president will be found on our first page.

The Transcript office returns thanks to Mr. and Mrs. William Vannort for some golden wedding cake.

At the Churches in Chestertown, Sunday, sermons bearing upon the death of the president were preached.

Business Places in Chestertown were generally draped in mourning, when news came of the president's death.

The Dover Fair has drawn many Kent county people this week, and will draw many more to-day and to-morrow. To-morrow is the closing day.

Washington College opened for the fall term yesterday. A number of the old students are back, and some new students have also reported. More are yet expected.

Sale of Real Estate.—Mr. J. A. Perkins, of Chestertown, has purchased, at private sale, of Mr. W. H. Davis, the farm of the latter, located in Broad Neck, containing 61 acres, for $2300.

Resigned.—Professor Rowley has resigned his position in the faculty of Washington college, and Mr. Twyford, who graduated from the college in the class of 1880 has been appointed to succeed him.

Thanks.—The senior proprietor of the TRANSCRIPT received from Mr. John F. Copper, a few days ago, a basket of large and perfect potatoes of the Early Rose variety, for which he hereby returns his acknowledgments.

The Cecil County Fair comes in next week. Though only in its second year, the Cecil fair promises to be a first-class attraction. Some of the best racers will undoubtedly be brought out by the large purses offered.

Musical.—Some aspiring young musician within ear-shot of the Transcript office, is taking lessons on a horn. We have no doubt but that he himself enjoys the melody that he gets out of that horn. So a melancholy dog enjoys his own howl.

Profitable.—A gentleman residing near Chestertown, has sold this season, from about four hundred trees in bearing, over two thousand dollars worth of peaches. The trees were four years old last spring, and are very vigorous. Six of the trees yielded thirty-six boxes of fruit.

Going Away.—Rev. Sewell Hepbron, who for several years has been pastor of St. Paul's P. E. church, is soon to leave to take charge of a pastorate in Hanover county, Virginia. Mr. Hepbron's new field of labor is within about fifteen miles of Richmond. We have not learned who will probably be Mr. Hepbron's successor.

Respect to the Dead President.—A union meeting of the congregations of the churches was held in Chestertown last Monday afternoon, to show respect to the deceased president who was buried on that day. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. A. J. Cahall. Addresses were delivered by H. W. Vickers, W. B. Usilton and W. M. Slay. The church was filled by a sympathetic audience. The choir rendered music suited to the mournfulness of the occation. The church and the pulpit were tastefully draped. The pulpit was covered with a black cloth, on which was inscribed in large raised letters, "In Memoriam." On the folds of the drapery above the pulpit was written, "I am the resurrection and the life."

At the hour at which it was supposed the remains of the president were being placed in the ground, the bell tolled the funeral knell.

A Public Meeting was held by the citizens of Chestertown, Wednesday of last week, to express regret at the death of president Garfield and sympathy for the bereaved family. Mr. T. W. Eliason was called to the chair, and Messrs. Richard Hynson, Thomas DeC. Ruth, James A. Pearce, Dr. Samuel Beck and Wm J. Vannort, were elected vice-presidents, and Messrs. Joseph Peterson and James W. Chapman, secretaries. A committee to draft resolutions was appointed, and Mr. Charles T. Westcott as chairman reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We have learned with deep regret of the death of his Excellency James A. Garfield, President of the United States, after weeks of intense pain, which he bore with a heroism rarely equalled within the record of human endurance, we have assembled with a common desire to bear witness of our personal sympathy with his bereaved family, our profound sorrow that the Republic has lost its great chieftain and president, and our unfeigned abhorrence of the despicable act of the detestable assassin that has saddened the hearts of fifty million of freemen, and cast a mantle of sorrowful gloom over all civilized nations.

Resolved, That we hereby tender to the distressed mother, the sorrow-stricken widow and bereaved children our heartfelt condolence and sympathy in these hours of great sorrow, for the man whose heroic character has filled the highest ideal of son, husband, patriot and statesman, and whose noble patience, under long and intense suffering, was only equalled by his Christian humility and tender love.

In seconding the resolutions Mr. James A. Pearce made a brief address fitting the occasion.

A Visit to the Kent County Almshouse.—A representative of the TRANSCRIPT took a ride last Monday to the Kent county almshouse. The visit was not for the purpose of engaging quarters. It was simply a call by the way.

There are at present over fifty inmates at the house. This we understand to be about an average number. Of course this average is raised in the winter season. The present buildings are very inadequate to the proper accommodation of such a number. The sleeping apartments are small, and closely huddled together, and the sexes are brought into too intimate association. Everything appeared cleanly however, and there is no doubt but that the superintendent uses the best means in his power for the comfort of the inmates.

Among the cases that attract special attention at the almshouse, is that of a German, a man aged about forty-five years. He has been in the house for five or six years. He lies in his bed nearly all the time, day and night, only getting down to his meals. There seems to be nothing more the matter with him than concentrated and intensified laziness. As we passed into his room on Monday he was lying on his bed, with his shirt nearly torn from off his body. On seeing us he made some efforts to cover himself. In reply to the question as to what was the matter with him, he replied that he was not well, and hadn't been for a long time. In the same room was another young man, apparently not more than twenty-five years of age. He too claims to be an invalid, though there is nothing in his appearance to indicate it, except that his face is very pale. This paleness is probably because he never exposes himself to the sun. He claims to have heart disease, but the attending physician can discover no symptoms of heart disease in his case. He is probably troubled with the same malady as his roommate—intensified laziness The spirit of the institution that attracts most attention however, is "Jim," an idiotic negro boy. He is now apparently about twenty years of age, and has spent the greater part of his life at the house. He is accoutred in female gear, to the extent of a blue cotton frock. The trouble Jim has with male habiliments is that when he once gets them off he don't know how to get them on again. As a first-class idiot, there is no doubt as to Jim's being a success. His only thought in life seems to be the filling of his rapacious stomach. He has got a digestion like a cook stove, and a constitution as unyielding as a log of wood. Anything a hog can eat, Jim can eat. He often robs the hogs by fishing the bread out of the slops and eating it. Indeed his most intimate friends are the hogs. The superintendent says that he often finds him seated in the pen among them, seemingly holding intercourse with them. The hogs have a great esteem for him. Jim is a standing conundrum to that class of moralists, who believe that all humans have immortal souls.

Republican County Convention.

In obedience to a call from the State Central Committee, the convention met at the court house in Chestertown, at 11 o'clock A.M., Tuesday, September 27. C. T. Westcott, chairman of the State Central Committee, in the chair.

The chair first stated the object of the call, and then asked that a secretary be appointed pro tem. On motion of Mr. Barnard, S. S. Baker was elected. The chair next called for the certificates of the members elected from the several districts, when the following answered to their names:

First District—Samuel B. Richardson, W. S. Green, John Turner, Jos. Jeffries, Isaac Wilmer.

Second District—F. H. Harper, Jas. A. Larey, E. G. Benjamin, George Rasin, T. Johnson.

Third District—Isaac Parsons, N. Barnard, J. W. Corey, J. Murphy, J. H. Wright.

Fourth District—Wm. J. Vannort, James H. Baker, S. S. Baker, C. F. Boyer, W. T. Demby.

Fifth District—Joseph Downey, W. W. Coleman, J. Young, R. Reed, Richard Ward.

The convention then proceeded to elect permanent officers. N. Barnard nominated F. H. Harper: S. B. Richardson nominated W. J. Vannort for chairman. F. H. Harper received 14 votes, W. J. Vannort 4. F. H. Harper was declared elected. A secretary being next in order S. S. Baker nominated W. J. Vannort. N. Barnard nominated S. S. Baker. S. S. Baker was elected.

The chairman stated the next business was to nominate three delegates to the State Convention to be held in Cambridge 5th of October. The following were elected: F. H. Harper, S. S. Baker, Wilbur Eliason.

On motion of N. Barnard the convention proceeded to elect three delegates to serve on the the State Central Committee. James A. Larey moved that they be elected by ballot. Carried. The following were elected: C. T. Westcott, S. S. Baker, William Perkins.

Wm. J. Vannort moved that all persons not members of the convention retire. Lost.

James H. Baker, delegate elect from the 4th district being absent, on motion of W. J. Vannort, W. H. Hamilton was substituted.

The following resolution was presented by F. H. Harper, and adopted:

Resolved, That when this convention adjourns it be to the 18th of October next, and that the question of nominating a county ticket this fall be postponed until that day.

On motion of S. S. Baker the meeting adjourned, to meet again on the 18th of October.

F. H. HARPER, Chairman.

S. S. BAKER, Secretary.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, Sept. 27, 1881.—present, Judges Nicholson and Willson.

On application of her mother, Robert S. Emory was appointed guardian to Willie Wickes, who filed his bond in the sum of $400, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Lippincott's Magazine for October opens with a paper on Grand Traverse Bay, by Maurice Thompson, whose description, aided by fine illustrations, of this most attractive spot, with its beautiful lake scenery, fine trout fishing, and cheapness of living, will be likely to send a host of pleasure-seekers in that direction next summer, and not a few anglers during the present summer. A well-written account of Cordova, with its relics of Moorish grandeur, by S. P. Scott, and a most entertaining paper on the "Sacred Baboons" of India, forming the seventh chapter of Dr. Oswald's "Zoological Curiosities," are also carefully illustrated. "My Journey with a King," by Louise Coffin Jones, is a delightfully vivid and amusing account of a voyage among the Sandwich Islands with King Kalakaua and his suite, and is timely in connection with the more extended tour which that potentate is now making in Europe. "A Day in the North Woods," by Ward Batchelor, and "Young America in Old England," by J. Magruder, are lively and well constructed sketches. There are several short stories in the number—"Mr. Harkins's Niece," by Sydney Chase, "Dora's Trial," by the late Ella Williams Thompson, and "Chaperons, and an Afternoon Tea," by Edward Wanton, besides a long instalment of Sherwood Bonner's new serial, "The Valcours," which is as sprightly and vigorous in style as it is strong in character and incident. The poems and editorial departments are up to the usual high standard of the Magazine.

Eclectic Magazine.—Somewhat lighter in character than usual, as a tribute to the season perhaps, are the contents of the October number of the ECLECTIC. All tastes are consulted, and the editor seems to be accomplishing the aim avowed at the beginning of the volume—to provide something for each member of an intelligent family. The list of articles is as follows: The Fields of Conflict between Faith and Religion, by the Rev. Prof. Plumtre; Sketches and Reminiscenses, by Ivan Turgenieff; Mr. Gibbon,s Love-Passage; The Origin of Religion Considered in the Light of the Unity of Nature, by the Duke of Argyll; A Night in June, by Alfred Austin; "Parton's Life of Voltaire, by George Saintsbury; Florio: A Little Tragedy; Gossip of an Old Bookworm, by W. J. Thoms; A Family History, by Professor Grant Allen; Heat and Health; Songs of Birds, by Augusta Webster; Kith and Kin, a Novel, by Jessie Fothergill, author of The First Violin, chapters xxii. and xxiii.; Hector Berlioz: a Biography; President Garfield, by the Rev. Robert Shindler; Leigh Hunt as a Poet, by Armine T. Kent; Punch and Puncinello, by E. M. Clerke; Whitebait; Degeneration; Margery Daw; Literary Notices; Foreign Literary Notes; Science and Art; and Miscellany.

Published by E. R. PELTON, 25 Bond street, New York. Terms, $5 per year; single copy, 45 cts.; trial subscription for three months, $1.

Scribner's Magazine for October is a most interesting and instructive number, and contains a great variety of beautiful illustrations. The contents are: Old Yorktown, by Thomas Nelson Page, 13 illustrations; Poetry in America, second article, by Edmund Clarence Stedman; Ernesto Rossi, by Junius Henri Browne; Reconciliation, by Caroline A. Mason; Primeval California, 14 illustrations, by Charles Warren Stoddard; Queen Titania, conclusion, by Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen; Miss Asaia's Match, by Isabella T. Hopkins; Bear-Hunting in the South, 6 illustrations, by James Gordon; A New Moth, illustrated, by L. von Reizenstein; The New Phase of Napoleonic History, by Walter A. Burlingame; Peter the Great as Ruler and Reformer, concluded, 7 illustrations, by Eugene Schuyler; The First Editor, 9 illustrations, by Theodore L. DeVinne, A Plea for Railroads, by William A. Crafts; The Sonnet in English Poetry, by Richard Henry Stoddard; The Coniferous Forests of the Sierra Nevada, concluded, 9 illustrations, by John Muir; Summer Night, by Milicent W. Shinn; The Migration of Birds, by J. A. Allen; Poems; Topics of the Time; Home and Society; Culture and Progress; The World's Work; Bric-a-Brac.

The name of the magazine will be changed, with the November number, to THE CENTURY.

TO WHEAT GROWERS.

The undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of FERTILIZERS in this city, and ORIGINATOR in 1858 of the formulas and processes of manufacture of

"Excelsior" and Ammoniated Phosphate

So well and favorably known by the agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these FERTILIZERS, as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the Farmers and Planters of Maryland and Virginia, with the assurance that the High Standard Quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer, combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano and the ever durable fertilizing properties of Bones in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.

For growing wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after over twenty years' experience in the use of these Fertilizers manufactured by me, that an application of 100 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other Fertilizer or Guano, therefore fully 50 per cent. cheaper.

With my present advantages and superior facilities for manufacturing, I challenge competition with any Fertilizer sold in the United States, in quality, mechanical condition and price.

By strictly adhering to my original formuias, using only the most concentrated materials and superintending in person their manufacture, as for the past twenty-three years,

UNIFORM QUALITY IS GUARANTEED.

☞ Farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE prepared according to my original formulas established in 1858, should see that every bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.
