Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, OCT. 20, 1881.

Festival at Locust Grove, next week. See advertisement.

The Steamer L. G. Cannon is laid up for overhauling and painting. She will resume her trips on Monday, the 31st of October.

Public Sale of Personal Property.—Mr. Josias Ringgold, advertises elsewhere, valuable personal property, to be sold on Wednesday the 9th day of November, at his farm near Chestertown.

Two Handsome Houses.—The new house of Capt. H. W. Vickers approaches completion, and gives promise of being among the handsomest residences on the peninsula. The new house of Mr. T. R. Hubbard also, is being finished, and will be quite an ornament to that part of High street.

A New Feature in the M. E. Choir.—A new attraction was added to the music at the M. E. church last Sunday morning and evening. It was a cornet accompaniment by Prof. Perry C. Orem. The congregation was generally much pleased with the addition, and cornet music will probably be henceforth adopted.

Baltimore Grain Market.—TUESDAY'S QUOTATIONS.—Southern wheat is in very moderate supply, and the market is quiet and steady. Fultz is quoted at 1 35@1 45, and long-berry at 1 46@1 54, with few choice samples offering. Southern corn is quiet and steady, with small offerings: sales of white at 73 cents and yellow at 73½ cents.

An Interesting Sketch will be found on our first page, from the pen of the late venerable Dr. Peregrine Wroth. The doctor was over ninety years of age when he died, and his recollection went far back into the olden time of Kent county. The sketch which we publish, does not picture a time so far gone, but that there are those now living who can go back to when much of its spirit still existed.

Gone to Yorktown.—The schooner Jillard left Crumpton last Saturday afternoon for Yorktown, with about thirty passengers. There were a few from Chestertown who went in this manner.

The Kent Guards filed down to the steamboat wharf, with their knapsacks on their backs, Saturday morning. The boys looked very cheerful. We see by reports from Yorktown, that they arrived safely and are now in camp.

Miss Lulie Clay Bigbie is to give some elocutionary readings in Chestertown, to-morrow (Friday evening). Miss Bigbie comes highly recommended as an elocutionist. We have a private letter from the Editor of the Centreville Record, which commends her very highly. Miss Bigbie comes from the South. Her father, a Confederate officer, was killed in the late war. The Louisville Courier-Journal says of her:—"Miss Bigbie plays upon her audience, as upon an instrument of music." See programme advertised in this issue.

The Republican Ticket.—The Republican convention which met on the 27th of September last, and adjourned to meet again Tuesday, the 18th of October, for the purpose of deciding whether or not it is worth while to put a county ticket in the field this fall, met on Tuesday, and decided to make a ticket. Many of the most prominent members of the party were opposed to making a ticket. The ticket is given below:

For House of Delegates, Wm. W. Coleman, of 5th district, Samuel B. Richardson, of 1st dist.; for Sheriff, H. M. Thomas, 4th dist.; County Commissioners—1st district, James Moor, 2d, Robert Comley; 3d, Isaac Parsons; 4th, James Baker; 5th, James Kendall.

A Third Crop of Peaches.—A gentleman brought into the TRANSCRIPT office last Monday, a sample of fruit, which we first took to be a new variety of apricot. It was small, rosy cheeked, a little shriveled, yellow fleshed, and tasted almost exactly like an apricot. We were surprised to learn that it was a portion of a third peach crop, grown by Mr. William Watts, who resides near Still Pond. The variety was the Pullen's Seedling. Mr. Watts has 200 trees of this variety. The first crop grown this year, the trees were moderately full, the fruit was fine sized and brought a good price. In the second crop, the fruit was smaller, and in this third yield the fruit was quite small, but very delicately flavored. Mr. Watts gathered sixty baskets of peaches of this third crop from two hundred trees.

A Bold Robbery at Galena.—On last Tuesday night, thieves broke into the stable of Mr. Geo. W. Crisfield, residing a short distance out of Galena, and stole two of his best horses. On the same night, Mr. Thomas H. Horsey's store was broken into, and between three hundred and four hundred dollars worth of goods was taken. The thieves who stole the horses and who broke open the store are supposed to have been the same, the horses being used to get away with the stolen property. Mr. Horsey had a case in court on Tuesday, in which a negro boy was convicted of stealing $30 from his safe. On the very night of the day on which the boy was convicted, he sustained another loss of over $300. The burglars effected an entrance to his store by the front door. The clerk who slept in the room above, was not aroused, and nothing was known of the matter till Wednesday morning. It would seem, from the frequent robberies that occur in the vicinity of Galena, that there must be an organized band of thieves who have their headquarters somewhere near there.

As to the Local Option Law.—Judge Wickes in his charge to the grand jury Wednesday morning, defined explicitly what in the Court's opinion, constitutes a violation of the local option law. In the opinion of the Court as has been before expressed, it is no violation of the intent of the law for a regularly licensed, druggist, to sell on the bona fide prescription of a physician. But it is a violation of the law, when a druggist sells intoxicating liquor, even on the prescription of a physician, when the druggist has reason to believe that the prescription was given only to obtain liquor to drink as a beverage. The Court expessed regret that any physician should so far forget the dignity and honor of his profession as to give a prescription, that should aid in violating the law, and was of opinion further, that an amendment should be made to the law for this county, that should impose a penalty, as is already imposed by the law in force in Cecil county, upon any physician who should give a prescription to enable the procuring of liquor as a beverage.

Some Oriole Experiences.—Kent county turned out largely to the Baltimore Oriole. Opinions differ greatly among those who went and saw, as to whether they were humbugged or not. The majority seem rather inclined to believe that the Oriole was principally great, in being a great sell. The difficulty in procuring seats, and the high charges made for favorable places of observation, was a matter of complaint. One Chestertown young man, who had been in the city all day, and had tired himself down, looked around in the evening for a good place from which to view the parade. He found a man guarding a pile of bricks. On inquiry, he found that the pile of bricks was for rent, as an eminence from which to view the street show. He handed over a quarter to the proprietor, and ascended the pile. He seated himself, and serenely waited for the show to come along. For four hours he clung to that pile of bricks, and kept a sharp lookout for the "mystic oriole." But the "mystic" didn't heave in sight, and when B. got down off that high eminence and investigated, he found that the nearest point to his pile of bricks at which the procession had touched, was four squares away. He was mad, very mad!!

Death of John W. Carroll.—John W. Carroll, who has made a national reputation as an actor, died in New York city, on Friday of last week. Mr. Carroll was born and raised in Chestertown, and was well known to most of the residents of the town and county. He was for a time a merchant in Chestertown, but gave up the mercantile business to go on the stage, joining Ford's company, and making his first appearance in Baltimore. The New York Herald in a sketch of him says:

"He acted in a modest way in Balto. city and in Washington city. Then he traveled through Pennsylvania with the Sherry combination. This was about ten years ago. It was not until he joined the Conway company in the old Park Theatre, Brooklyn, that he began to show his real ability. While with the Conways he became a business manager, but he afterward resumed acting and played at Wallack's Theatre in this city. Recently he took the business management of Lotta's company, and was traveling in that capacity when illness compelled him to retire. He was confined to his bed for six months before he died. Mr. Carroll leaves a large circle of warm friends, who speak of him as one who was not a great artist, but a general actor and gentleman who took heavy parts and gave satisfaction. He was a member of the Free Masons, the Order of Elks and of the Lotus Club. He leaves a wife and some property. The Elks are to attend the funeral services in the "Little Church Around the Corner" at half-past ten o'clock on Tuesday morning."

The deceased has a large circle of relatives in Kent county.

Circuit Court.—Monday, October 17, 1881. Court met and was present Hon. Joseph A. Wickes on the bench.

July Term called and finally adjourned. The sheriff was sworn, and George W. Spencer was appointed foreman of the grand jury. The following juries were then drawn:

Hynson, Theodore Diehl, Samuel L. Blackiston, James R. Jones, James C. Roseberry, John R. Gray, J. Frank Wilson, George L. Maslin, Benjamin F. Beck, Henry A. Kraft, John Z. Clark, James A. Shaw, Joseph H. Hossinger, Robert S. Emory, Frisby H. Boulden.

The grand jury was charged by the Court, and furnished by the clerk with a list of licensed dealers, recognizances, &c. George C. Adkinson sworn as bailiff to grand jury, John W. Carroll and John H. Greenwood continued as bailiffs to the court. Criminal docket called and sheriff's returns taken; appearance docket called and sheriff's returns taken; trial docket called and several cases marked for trial; appearance docket called and several entries made thereon.

The first case taken up was State vs. William French, presented for kicking Daniel P. Cox, and injuring him so severely as to cause him to lose much valuable time from his work. Plea of non cul. Tried before the Court. Verdict not guilty. Vickers for State, Hynson for defense.

Tuesday, Oct. 18. Hons. Joseph A. Wickes and Frederick Stump on the bench. Court ordered attachment for contempt to issue against Tilly Stevens in not attending as a witness after being legally summoned.

State vs. James Powell. Indictment for stealing about $41 in cash from Thomas H. Horsey on or about the 11th day of August. Plea of non cul. Tried before the Court. Verdict guilty, and sentenced to the House of Correction for three years.

The grand jury brought in several indictments.

Wednesday, Oct. 19. Hons. John M. Robin-Joseph A. Wickes and Frederick Stump on the bench. The Court instructed the grand jury as to its understanding of what constituted an infringement of the Local Option Law.

Balance of Wednesday's proceedings too late for this issue.

Maryland Grain Yield by Counties.—Below will be found the acreage and yield of each county in Maryland, in the two staple crops of wheat and corn, as given in the last census report of the United States, taken in June 1880:

Of the Eastern Shore counties, it will be seen that the average yield per acre is largest in Cecil, with Kent a good second. In the corn yield per acre, Cecil averages 32⅝ bushels, Kent 26¾ bushels, Queen Anne's 24½ bushels. The other counties of the peninsula drop to half these figures, with Wicomico, the county that produces Col. Malone and the Salisbury Adeertiser, at the bottom, with an average yield per acre of 10¾ bushels. In wheat, Cecil also takes the lead per acre, producing an average yield per acre of 15¾ bushels; Kent comes next with an average of 14½ bushels; Talbot averages 14½ bushels; Queen Anne's 13½ bushels. For smallness of yield, the prize is hard up between Col. Malone's county and Worcester, each producing an average of a very small fraction over seven bushels per acre.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, Oct. 18, 1881.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Marion deK. Smith, administrator d. b. n of Robert Ruth, deceased, filed his release from Mary T. Ruth, Sallie R. Brown, John C. Ruth, Hannah D. C. Ruth, and John B. Brown, guardian to Thos. D. C. Ruth, which were received and ordered to be recorded.

Harry E. Cooper, administrator of John H. Cooper, returned his list of sales of the personal property of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

On application, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Nelson, were granted and committed unto John M. Pennington, (Catharine L. Pennington, daughter of said deceased, first renouncing) who filed his bond in the penal sum of $5,000, which was approved and ordered to be recorded; and Daniel U. Dewees and John Hurlock were appointed to appraise the personal estate of said deceased.

Peninsula News.

Middletown, Del., has a man sixty years old who never owned a dog.

A Denton man was robbed of $100 while attending the Baltimore celebration.

St. Michaels and Easton, are now connected by a telephone line, which works like a charm.

The Saulsbury cannery has made arrangements to can a thousand tons of pumpkins at the rate of $45 per ton.

Farmers in the vicinity of St. Michaels, Talbot county, are trying the experiment of importing Italian farm laborers.

At the recent term of the Caroline County Circuit Court, there was not a single prisoner in jail for trial, and not a single conviction for anything.

At Elkton, the other day, a witness in court said of another witness that he "would not believe him on his oath, even if he knew he was telling the truth."

Some of the down Peninsula people have been viewing the heavens, and have discovered Venus or the evening star. They have set it down as the star of Bethlehem.

"Now that paste has gone up the country editor will starve to death."

This side-splitting joke originated with the Wilmington Morning News.

Some of the grand jurymen at Chrisfield attempted to step off to the Oriole, but the sheriff captured them on the steamer just as she was leaving port.

Mr. W. R. Cochran of Middletown, Del., was attacked one day last week, while in his cattle yard, by an angry Durham bull. He was knocked down and trampled upon, and considerably bruised.

A man was put off the Baltimore & Ohio south bound express, because he had no ticket, near New Ark, Del., on Sunday of last week. He was drunk, and laid down on the railroad track, and was struck and killed by a north bound train.

The Denton Union, Republican, accuses the commissioners of Caroline county of being stupid and inefficient. The Denton Journal proposes to show in its next issue, that the commissioners have managed the affairs of the county as well as could have been done.

A. P. Griffith, real estate agent, has sold the farm of John H. Bewley, in the "Neck," containing 325 acres, for $16,000, to Wm. Bradley of Canada. He also sold the farm of T. B. Hazard, near town, containing 140 acres, for $7,000, to Wm. Woods, of Canada.—Smyrna Times.

Two Sussex county, Del., citizens recently went to a political meeting together. One furnished the horse, the other the carriage. On the way home, they got into a discussion of the political situation. They differed in opinion, and the discussion finally waxed so warm, that the owner of the horse, to prove that he was in the right, took his horse from the carriage and left his neighbor alone in the forest.

When the St. Michaels Comet tells a yarn, which his contemporaries find some difficulty in swallowing, instead of taking off a snake in order to make his tale more plausible, he goes right ahead and puts an extra strain upon his narration.

The peach tree, which the Comet recently stated had grown five crops this season, he now asserts has grown another crop, making six.

Some of the leading colored politicians of Caroline county have put forth the following call in posters: "The colored voters of Caroline county who are interested in the progress and advancement of our race are requested to send from each election district three delegates to a convention to be held at Denton on Saturday 22d of October, 1881, at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of nominating some suitable persons and put them on our tickets and run them for what they'll fetch. Citizens of America, stand up for the right and put down the wrong! Don't be timid! Turn out like men and fight for right."

AND LINDEN PHOSPHATE.
The ALKALINE and LINDEN PHOSPHATES have special reference to the growth and development of the Grain, and are intended for lands that produce a sufficient growth of Straw, but small crops of Grain. They have been used for several years by some of the best farmers of Maryland and Virginia, alongside the highest grades Ammoniated Phosphates, and in some sections have almost superceded them.
The Fine Mechanical condition of our FERTILIZERS is such, that they Drill readily, and we recommend the use of the Drill as being the most profitable way of applying Fertilizers.
The steadily increasing demand for above goods in the neighborhoods where it has been used, attests its success as an unexcelled Wheat Fertilizer.
One evidence of the value of our Fertilizers is that all the parties named below who used our goods last year, have increased their orders for this year. These names are genuine, and we refer farmers to the parties themselves:

Capt. E. B. Woodall,	E. F. C. Perkins,	Richard Smyth,
Charles England,	S. J. Roseberry,	T. J. Vickers,
T. F. Hurlock,	W. O. Shallcross,	J. W. Howard,
E. S. Clothier,	Robert Kimble,	J. T. Kelly,
J. T. Dixon,	F. Rash,	F. D. Lamb,
Wm. H. Whitely,	G. W. Jones,	Amos Lynch.

Many others too numerous to mention.

The attention of Housekeepers, Farmers and others is called to the above Useful and Valuable Preparation for Whitewashing and Sanitary Purpoes. It costs less in comparison than Common Whitewash, or the unslacked lime, and its durability and beauty are two-fold greater. It never loses its strength. It can be kept for years. When applied, it forms a surface as smooth as calsomine, without glue or plaster. It can be used conveniently and economically in making Mortar, Finishing Insides, and for all purposes in which sand and lime are employed. We solicit a trial.
