Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, NOV. 17, 1881.

Thanksgiving Day next Thursday.

The L. G. Cannon wears a new suit of paint.

Capt. Joe Thompson has recovered his valuable grayhound.

Six butchering establishment supply Chestertown with fresh meats.

Gov. Hamilton has proclaimed next Thursday as a day of Thanksgiving.

The two shade trees that stand in front of the P. E church are to come down.

A White Swan was in Market Tuesday, shot by Mr. Bennett Wilson, on Eastern Neck Island.

The Tolchester Line has put on the Nellie White, and has made change in time schedule. See change elsewhere.

New Advertisements of John Wanamaker, L. K. Stam, C. F. Stam, T. L. Hines, N. Y. Sun, Mrs. E. R. Wickes.

The Town Commissioners are yet engaged in laying new pavements in place of wornout ones, and in putting in sewerage pipes where needed.

Good weather on corn. Cool frosty, airy and sunny. But the corn market shows a persistent tendency to keep low down in the seventies.

A number of new merchants will open trade in Chestertown next year. Some others now doing business expect to close out, and engage in a different occupation.

Work has been resumed on the P. E. Church. The delay in finishing has been occasioned by the tardiness of the firm that contracted to furnish the stained glass windows.

Many fine rock have been taken in Chester River this season, but Major Gray, one of the most scientific anglers who leans over the railing of the bridge, says he thinks the rock season is nearly over.

Vendue Next Wednesday.—At the late residence of Robert J. Lusby, dec'd., near Chesterville, on Wednesday next, the 23d inst., Mrs. C. A. Lusby will have a large sale of valuable personal property. See advertisement elsewhere.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.—At Kennedyville in this county, on last Friday, Jacob Highley died after a long illness. Mr. Highley came to this county from Pennsylvania some time early in 1850. He has been a successful business man and leaves behind him valuable property. He was aged about sixty-five years. His remains are to be taken to Pennsylvania for burial.

Baltimore Grain Market—Tuesday's Quotations.—The demand for Southern Wheat is good, and under a more generous offering the market is active and higher. Fultz sold at 1 38 a$1 45 and long-berry at 1 46a$1 52 for fair to choice samples. No. 1 Maryland red sold at $1 50. Southern Corn is in good demand, mostly from local dealers, and the market is very steady: sales of new white at 71a72cents, and new yellow at 68a70 cents, as to condition.

Fell Through an Elevator.—A young man, by name Mifflin Rolph, whose home is in Queen Anne's county, not far from Chestertown, fell through a warehouse elevator way, in Baltimore, on Thursday of last week, from a height of over 100 feet. He lived till next day. He was brought over to his home and buried on last Sunday. Young Rolph was employed as a clerk in a store in Baltimore, and was delivering goods at the time of the fatal accident.

St. John's College.—Dr. Leavitt, president of St. John's College, paid a visit to Kent last week, and called at the Transcript office. The doctor is making efforts to restore to the College its past vigor, and to make it an institution worthy the State of Maryland. His idea is to establish the college upon a plan that shall educate the hand as well as the head, and shall turn out young men prepared by their college training to make a living. The doctor desires to secure help for the college from the next legislature.

Teachers' Association.—The regular meeting of the Teachers' Association will be held at the school room in Chestertown, to-morrow, the 18th of November, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.

Unfinished business:—"What is the natural order of the development of the mental faculties?"

The regular questions are: First—"Object Teaching," to what extent is it valuable?

Second—Manner and time of conducting writing exercises.

Miss Kate Owen essayist.

Rev. Mr. Little will deliver the address.

A Claimant who probably represents other claimants to a large tract of land, located in Queen Anne's county, bordering on Chester river, a short distance from Chestertown, made his appearance last week. The principal part of the tract is the large peach farm known as Round Top, which contains about 1500 acres. There are other tracts adjoining, which are also claimed to be covered by the plot. The claimant or claimants come all the way from South Carolina, and are armed with documents by which they expect to establish their claim. We are not informed as to who the parties are, or upon what sort of title they base their claim. As sixty years are said to have passed since the possession of the property, the South Carolina seekers after a Maryland fortune, will probably go home again and leave the fortune behind them.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, November 15, 1881.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

J. Frank Wheatley, administrator of J. Wilmer VanLear, returned his account of sales of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Harrison W. Vickers, guardian to Frank E. Willis, returned his final guardian account for said ward, which was examined, passed, and ordered to be recorded.

H. W. Vickers, guardian to Frank E. Willis, filed his release from said ward, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

R. Hynson, administrator D. B. N. C. T. A. of Samuel Clark, returned the appraisement of the real estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Samuel C. Brannock, administrator of Wm. Russell (colored) returned his first and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated and ordered to be recorded.

Peninsula News.

Wild ducks are plentiful on the upper Choptank.

Georgetown, Del., has a select school for colored children.

Some Centreville sportsmen killed three tame geese last week, believing them to be wild ones.

A Centreville vender of calico and molasses constructs his advertisement on the meter of "The Raven."

A Salisbury debating society is trying to make up its mind whether or not it will suppress Bob Ingersoll.

The tract of land formerly used as a fair ground at Bridgeville, Sussex county, Del., has been sold at $50 per acre.

The Greensboro Free Press, says that Mr. Cranor, of Whitesboro farm, has sold to a Chestertown party a Jersey bull calf for $30.

"Is patriotism dying out?" asks a Western exchange. We don't know how it is in the West, but in Maryland where there are no saloons, it may be found at the drug stores.—Cambridge Chronicle.

The ladies of the P. E. Church, of Dover, Del., have been engaged for two weeks stemming raisins at the packing house of Richardson & Robbins. The proceeds are to go to the church. So says the Delawarean.

Two Greensboro boys went gunning on election day. One, James Greenlee, accidentally discharged his gun, and the load went tearing into the back of the other, Fred. Murphy. Murphy's wound though serious, is not considered fatal.

A. G. Cox brought some third-crop raspberries to the Transcript office this week. They were large and of fine flavor and the branch which bore them also showed several blooms for a fourth crop.—Middletown Transcript.

The Middletown man started late at the crop reports, but he is calculated to catch up.

On Saturday a week ago Mr. James Laird, who resides near Monie Postoffice, in Dames Quarter district, Pocomoke, was accidentally shot by his son when out gunning for birds. Thirty-two shot entered his neck, face and shoulder, and some penetrated his windpipe, making a dangerous-looking wound, from which the blood flowed profusely.

The works of the Elkton Gaslight Company were sold at public auction last Saturday. R. L. Thomas, of North East, bought in the property for a syndicate of stockholders, but later in the day Dr. Charles M. Ellis and Joseph Hinchliffe became the owners. The amount bid by Mr. Thomas was $3,000.

The bald-headed editor of the Middletown Transcript and the exchange editor of the Morning News have been engaged in writing each other's biographies. Some facts as to the antecedents of each have been brought to light, that the public would otherwise never have dreamed of.

The Chestertown Transcript, commenting on the recent marriage of Brother Busteed, a Peninsula editor, says: "Henceforth he will have to provide enough turnips for two, spend all his patent medicine funds for spring bonnets, and be in every night before nine o'clock." Our worthy co-laborer in the Peninsula journalistic field has tried this thing, and knows what he is talking about.—Middletown Transcript.

Yes! Yes! And the bald-headed editor has been trying this thing for many, many years, and he probably knows how it is too.

People in Sussex county, Del., are warm hearted visitors. Blessed is the farmer who can stand the sort of visiting fashionable in Sussex, for one year, and yet escape the sheriff. The Sussex Journal says in speaking of the calls paid Mr. Wm. Spicer on a recent Sunday:

About one hundred called during the day, as many as thirty being there at one time. Refreshments in the shape of apples and cider were furnished in abundance. Mr. Spicer is a very hospitable gentleman and has many warm friends.

Oyster stories are now going the rounds The Centreville Record tells of an oyster found with a pipe in his mouth. The St. Michaels Comet which told a great many remarkable peach stories last season, is now exercising its conscience on oyster anecdotes. The last Comet says:

Master Henry Bloodsworth, last week, while oystering on the rock, caught a bottle literally full of oysters. There was a large hole in the side of the flask from which protruded an oyster of marketable size, while attached to the inside were a number of smaller ones, and one growing from the mouth, forming a complete stopple. On the outside of the flask was a shell-like encrustation and several barnacles.

The Greensboro Free Press and the Wilmington News, have been for some time discussing a real joke, which the staff of the News was supposed to be endeavoring to construct. The News promised to send the joke to the Press after the election. To understand the joke fully, it must be understood that the News is a Republican sheet, and that Christian, the Free Press man, expects shortly to get married. Taking in these facts, the following may be appreciated. We will do the News man the credit to say that he has scored one this time:

"The fifth exchange editor has in his possession a very modest looking little postal card. Upon the top portion of the near side thereof there sits the image of a venerable rooster done in water colors, judging from the moistened subdued look about his eyes, and from the peculiarly draggled appearance of the three queen feathers in his tail. The animal is standing on his head, and there is about him a not-to-be-mistaken air of profound melancholy, as if he had been struck by a brickbat while his head was turned another way. Immediately beneath is the following:

GREENSBORO, Md., Nov. 10.—The election has past by; we gently cave. You can ship that joke C. O. D. CHRISTIAN.

We should rise to smile and sit down to explain. The intangible something which the editorial staff has been trying to cipher out for several weeks, was nothing more nor less than the extent of the Republican majority in Caroline county. That is about as huge, and as soul-stirring, and as whole-souled a joke as we have ever been able to light upon. After the marriage, however, we will forward a cradle and a yard or two of muslin by mail.

THE BEST TIME.—Many of our most pruden customers and citizens are now buying their clothing for themselves and boys for the fall and winter. We have everything ready, and there is no reason for delay; and there is reason for buying now. You may as well have a house full of clothing to select from and plenty of time to pick it out, as to come in a crowd after a while—after the first cold snap has caught you unprepared. Largest Stock in Baltimore. Lowest prices than all the rest at C. N. OEHM & SON, One Price Clothiers, Hanover & Pratt Sts. We have not asked permission, but we will chance t, and refer you to the publishers of this paper.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special Inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere this issue.

Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, It never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London: I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes: I experienced immediate relief from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says: Have used PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes: It never fails to give relief in cases of rheumatism.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes: From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

The attention of Housekeepers, Farmers and others is called to the above Useful and Valuable Preparation for Whitewashing and Sanitary Purposes. It costs less in comparison than Common Whitewash, or the unslacked lime, and its durability and beauty are two-fold greater. It never loses its strength. It can be kept for years.
