Appurtenances to him the said Francis Meek and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten forever and no otherwise and if my said Son Francis Meek shall Endeavour to cut of this my Entail then and in such Case I Give the said Lands to my Son John Booker Meek and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten forever to be possessed by the said John Booker Meek immediately after such Endeavour, Likewise give to my said Son Francis Meek the following six Negroes Viz.t Dublin, Flora Ben, Rat, Adam, Grace, and Bob, I give and Bequeath them to the said Francis Meek and his Heirs forever, I also give and Bequeath to my said Son F. Meek two Feather Beds and furniture that is to say one beside the one he already hath in possession likewise three Cows and Calves two Heifers my two Draft Oxen my largest Oval Table all my Cane Chairs my Bottle Case my ferry Boat my large Desk my Whipsaw the Hand Mill that is on my dwelling Plantation now. Also give to my Son Francis Meek my large Bible after the decease of my beloved Wife Theadotia Meek, I give to the said Francis Meek eight head of Sheep and Ten head of Hogs a pair of Iron Dogs and my Horse called Silver in lieu of Ranter which by promise I was to give him I also bequeath to my Son Francis my large Looking Glass the said Francis paying or satisfying my beloved Son John Booker Meek for one half of what the said Glass shall be valued or appraised at when he shall ~~arrive~~ receive it as his proper right, Item I give & bequeath to my loving Grandson Francis Beck all that part of Meeks Park lying to the Westward of a Line drawn North North West from the West Corner of Delahays Chance being near my Mill to the given Line of the Holly Spring containing by Estimation one Hundred Acres, I give the said Land to him the said Francis Beck and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten forever and in Default of such Heirs then I give the same to my Son John Booker Meek and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten forever, I also give and bequeath to my Grand Son Francis Beck two Negroes

(Man)

Mace and Dinah and her future Increase also one feather Bed and furniture to be Delivered him when he shall arrive at eighteen Years of Age also five head of Sheep and after my Wifes decease I give him my smallest Desk my Will & Desire is that Ten Acres of the above Quantity of Land given to my said Grandson Francis Beck be reserved and become the Property of my Son John ~~Booker~~ Booker Meek to be laid of five Acres on each Side of the Run at or near the place where my former Mill Stood and my Will is that whatever I have given as above mentioned to my said Grandson Francis Beck shall remain and be in the possession of my Son John Booker Meek until my ~~said~~ Grandson shall arrive to the Age of eighteen Years old Item I give and Bequeath to my loving Son John Booker Meek all the remains of that Tract of Land called Meeks Park not already mentioned to Francis Beck I give the same to my Son John Booker Meek and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten forever and in Case my Son John Booker Meek shall endeavour to cut of the Entail of ~~said~~ Land then and in such Case I give the same to my Son Francis Meek and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten forever to be immediately possessed by ~~said~~ Francis after such endeavour I also give and Bequeath to my said Son John Booker Meek my Water Mill together with all the Necessaries thereunto belonging as also five Acres of Land on each side the Mill it being the Ten Acres mentioned in Francis Meeks Legacy I give the same to my Son John Booker Meek and his Heirs forever I also give to my Son John Booker Meek all that Tract of Land called Chairmans Purchase to him and the Heirs of his Body forever I also give him the said John Booker Meek and his Heirs forever the eight following Negroes Viz.t Bettie, Davie, Ned, Hagar, Jem Judith Bey and Major I also give to my said Son John Booker Meek my old Writing Desk my Cross Cut Saw all my Smiths Tools and the

(Hand Mill)