A GREAT REDUCTION SALE

organized by

John Wanamaker, personally,

at his principal establishment, Thirteenth street,

COMMENCING WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1884.

Particulars.

Always careful to avoid all sensations in this business, and not having such a sale in six years as now projected, we put plainly before the people all the points of the sale, taking the people fully and fairly into our confidence, desiring that every lady in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland should fully understand all about it, and make the most of the golden opportunity.

1 Object of the sale.

To make certain important changes in our business, with a view of further extending and improving it.

2 Character of goods.

The full regular stock of forty six distinct departments, gathered with utmost care by skilled buyers for the purpose of building up and maintaining permanent trade.
NOT out of date, damaged or imperfect goods, but the very best of all classes of goods—indeed, we keep no other at any season. This is a sale, not of broken stock, but of the kinds and qualities of goods always wanted.

3 Extent.

To the value of $1,850,000, if the people are willing. This amount is now here and ready in our warehouses and salesrooms.

4 Explanation.

When the severest cut of prices occurs, it is not from any fault in the goods, but because of somebody's oversight in hiding away the stock, so that it nas escaped notice, and remains unsold.

5 Details.

It is impossible, and too expensive, to give more than a few examples of prices. No store is so easy to visit and get prices as ours. We give only the A. B. C's.

It seems quite certain that no such opportunity as this will be offered soon again.
