WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, April 11, 1884.

Daily the prospects of Democratic success in November grow brighter, the fight in the Republican party over men making it apparent, even from their own standpoint, that they have not men or leaders in their party possessed of sufficient intelligence, combined with personal and political morality and honesty out of which to make up a Presidential ticket. Republican estimate of Republican leaders as expressed by their leading papers and their representative men here, is sufficient to relegate the whole crowd to oblivion. In fact if what is being said of each other is true, hades is hardly hot enough to burn out the blackness and darkness of their characters. It is this beautiful picture of each other by Republicans that causes Democrats to take heart and once more unite to rescue the country from the present corrupt party in power.

Leading men in the Democratic ranks, while of course having personal preferences, are advising that no combinations or attempts to influence the action of the convention to meet at Chicago, July 8, be made until after the action of the Republican convention of June 3d shall have done its work One month will be then left in which to figure as to the wisest nomination to make and from what section to select candidates. There is a general, we may say a universal feeling among prominent and leading Democrats to ignore personal and local preferences in order to unite upon a ticket to win, and with either Arthur Blaine or Logan as the Republican nominee, there is more than an even chance for Democratic success.

Truth—but before we begin it may be proper to remind the people that Truth is a newspaper published in New York City, the newspaper that printed the forged "Morey letter" that was designed to defeat the election of the late lamented President Garfield, and ruin his reputation. Well, Truth still exists, it may also be necessary to remind your readers, and is an Administration organ this year. Truth is on the rampage It declares in its many-paragraphed editorials, that Arthur has been betrayed, sold out and sat upon by various fellows and classes. The officeholders, the non-officeholders, the Irish, the Negroes, the Catholics, the Baptists, the Methodists, the—well, everybody—has turned traitor to Arthur. Even John O'Brien and Jones of the Times has gone back on him and for this alleged treachery. Truth is for war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. These things are recited by your correspondent for the reason that they afford a good deal of amusement to Democrats in Washington who daily read the stuff doled out to the country by the correspondents of the radical journals relative to the entire harmony in the Republican camp and the strife existing in the Democratic ranks over the tariff and other bills. Two cats tied tail-to-tail and hung over a clothes line would not be more fierce and bitter in their scratchings and fightings than will be the two factions of Administration and anti-Administration Republicans after their nomination at Chicago, unless a very great change takes place in the party between now and then. After the election in November, Republicans will be looking around in amazement, coupled with bewilderment, wondering what struck 'em. Mark our words.

Colonel Morrison, of Illinois, says his horizontal tariff reduction bill will be called up next Tuesday and eventually passed, and passed too, with less debate and sooner than people generally believe. Congressman Payson, of the same State as Morrison, is of a contrary opinion, and says that he does not believe that the bill will even be considered by the House. "The Republicans will object to its consideration and I believe that Mr. Randall and the Democrats who think as he does will do the same thing. If there are fifty Democrats opposed I do not think the bill will be brought up. It looks as if Congress would have to sit until August anyway if it takes up any public business now waiting for it, except the appropriation bills, and the tariff bill would simply lengthen the session uselessly."

General Butler is in Washington. He comes, it is said, to attend to some court business, but will probably scan the political field with his open eye and note what chances he may have for the Presidential nomination by the Democratic National convention. If his friends are to be believed, he still has hope in that direction, though to your correspondent the probability of the Democrats selecting him as their standard bearer is the slimest of the slim.

Senator Vest made quite an elaborate and able speech on the naval appropriation bill on Tuesday and Wednesday. He opposed the constructing of steel cruisers, "commerce-destroyers," and urged the defense of our sea coast. When asked by a Senator what remedy he had to suggest in view of the situation, he replied: "The overwhelming necessity in this country now is the defense of our seaboard, for to-day we are practically at the mercy of the maritime powers of Europe. I do not deny the necessity for a navy, but I say that our first duty to the people of the United States is to defend the sea coast, and we cannot do it with commerce-destroyers, with gunboats and steel cruisers of 4,000 tons and 4,500 tons burden. The Senator asks me what to do. Take this money out of the Treasury that to-day is the fruitful source of all sorts of inventions for extravagances and even for fraud, and build five first-class iron clads that can face the navies of the world and that can defend our seaboard both on the Atlantic and on the Pacific. We are wasting this money day by day in the construction of naval pleasure-boats and commerce-destroyers. We have no commerce. Our cities to-day are in the hands of any maritime nation that chooses to attack them, and yet Senators say that we must build a navy when our seaboard itself is defenseless! The remedy is in the application of the vast resources of the people of the United States to the immediate necessity before them."

Senator Mahone, with his wife and daughter has gone home to Petersburg, Virginia He is in very feeble health, though we believe that with a little time and rest he will recuperate.

Prof Salmon is to be sent to Maine by the Agricultural Department to investigate the alleged foot and mouth disease among cattle there. This is a proper move and one for the accomplishment of which credit is due to Congressman Reed.

Oh, woe to the man who dreams and plans
To build him a boom beyond compare;
And thinks, as the work of his State he scans,
"I've fixed the ticket—now let her rare!"
For the boom that opens its bud too soon
May blight in the killing frosts of June;
And the boom that wakens a day too late
Is crowded clear off the Chicago slate;
And the boom that booms at the booming time
May wilt at the vesper election chime.
R. J. Burdette in the Burlington Hawkeye.

TO THE FARMERS
—OF—
KENT, QUEEN ANNE'S & CECIL

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the Ohio Chilled Plow is the best plow in the world for neatness of work, and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the Old Reliable Concave Nos 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor and Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, and Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the Plow, I will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call, as I intend to sell them low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.

Galena and Chestertown.
