Personal.

E. H. Brown, Esq., of the firm of J. B. & E. H. Brown. Centreville, was in Chestertown on last Saturday.

The Hon. Michael Bannon of Anne Arundel was in Kent last week, and when the $500 check about which so much stir has been recently made was mentioned to him, he smiled out loud, and remarked that he thought the man who put that report out must have been drunk when he did it.

Mr. J. C. Viall, publisher of the Alpena weekly Argus, Alpena Michigan, is visiting his brother-in-law, Dr. F. L. Bardeen, of Washington College. Mr. Viall though coming from a Republican State, is a Democrat and the publisher of a Democratic newspaper. He says that Blaine's nomination has fallen flat in Michigan, and that prominent Republicans do not hesitate to declare their belief that he will not be elected. He also says that there is the brightest outlook the Democrats have ever had, of carrying Michigan this fall. He thinks Cleveland would be the strongest candidate in Michigan, though Bayard is highly esteemed.

NOTES BY THE WAY.

FROM STILL POND, JUNE 30TH, 1884.

The Transcript should receive the thanks of every peach grower in the county for its earnest protest against the Oriole celebration being held during peach season.

The tariff as it affects the raisin industry of California was recently discussed by a convention of grape growers in that State. Mr. McPherson (one of the members) spoke as following: "We are paying five times as much for labor as they do in Spain. The labor, papers, &c., in a box of raisins costs us $1.12 cts. The importers can land Spanish raisins in New York at a freight cost of 6 cents per box; from California it is 39 cts. per box. Our raisins cost us in New York $1.51 cts.; their box and freight and tariff costs 75 cts., the fruit not being considered in each case. This advantage on the side of Spain we cannot overcome without adequate protection. It would require 5½ cents per pound tariff to put California on an equality with Spain." Still the Morrison visionaries wanted a reduction of twenty per cent.

We have been informed that the Baltimore packers have put up very few berries this season. No doubt they are waiting for cheap peaches—but from present prospects the demand from the north and west will keep our home markets firm. Good fruit is going to command fair prices.

E. M. Bonwill expects a yield of 40 bushels of wheat per acre from 25 acres of fallow and 30 bushels per acre from 25 acres of corn ground. We think this a moderate estimate.

Robert Carter met with a painful accident last Tuesday. The needle of the Champion binder pierced his hand, liberating it after having bound a sheaf of wheat. He is doing very well at present.

The heavy wind last Thursday morning did considerable damage to some peach and pear orchards in this section.

Kent County Teachers' Association.

Chestertown, Md., June 30th, 1884.

The association met, and was called to order by the president; prayer was offered by Thomas M. Pinkind, after which a vocal selection was rendered, Mrs. Stephens presiding at the organ. The roll was called and 45 teachers answered to their names. Proceedings of last meeting were read, and on motion of Mr. T. B. Long, were amended and then approved. Solutions of the algebraic example, $x^2+y=7$, and $y^2+x=11$, were given by Messrs. Duffey, Forman and Tonkin. The report on Temperance was discussed by Mr. Pinkind, Rev. Mr. Aldred, Miss Comegys, Mr. Long, Mr. Crosby, Mr. Starkey and Mr. Meeks. The report was amended on motion of Mr Long, adopted and ordered to be published. The discussions was postponed until the election of officers for the next scholastic year. The following officers were elected by ballot for the next scholastic year: President, Eben F. Perkins; vice-president, J. V. Crosby; rec. sec., Wm. G. Fallowfield; cor. sec., Miss I. M. Comegys. The association then adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Business was resumed at 2 o'clock P. M. The roll was called and 39 teachers were present, but before the final adjournment the president announced that all of the teachers had been present except two. Mrs. Mary E. Gilpin read an essay on "Woman," and after the reading of essay the 1st question, "What shall be done with left-handed pupils?" was called up and discussed by Mr. Melvin, Miss Comegys, Mr. Wallis, Miss Wood, Mr. Forman, Miss Leaverton, Mr. Fallowfield, Miss Spencer, Mr. Meeks, Mrs. Clift, Mr. Long, Mr. Pinkind, Mr. Crosby and the Examiner. Under questions and answers the following was submitted:

1st. "They all work, cook, eat and study in the same room."

2d. "They all work at their trade, cook their meals, eat them, and study their lessons in the same room."

The first sentence is simple with a compound predicate. It was the opinion of those who expressed themselves that the 2d sentence is also a simple sentence with a compound predicate. Mr. Pinkind submitted an example on the black board and asked if the solution was correct, and it was decided to be incorrect. The Examiner called the attention of the teachers to an incorrect method of writing examples in combination of numbers for lower grades on the black-board, and explained the correct method of writing them. The 2d question, "How shall we teach history?" was called up, and discussed by Mr. Duffey, Miss Leaverton, Miss Downes and Mr. Forman.

The following preambles and resolution were presented by Mr. Pinkind, and on his motion were adopted:

WHEREAS the salary of the public school teachers of this county depends for the most part upon the average daily attendance of pupils; and

WHEREAS the attendance of pupils is often seriously diminished by inclement days, and a financial loss is sometimes thereby entailed upon the teachers; therefore

Resolved, That this association does hereby respectfully petition the Hon. School Board of this county to authorize the teachers in making up the average attendance, to exclude inclement days, together with the attendance upon those days, in all cases in which the teacher's salary would be affected thereby.

THOMAS M. PINKIND.

On motion of Mr. Long, at 4 o'clock P. M., the association adjourned.

Chestertown Public School Commencement.

THE FULL COURSE COMPLETED BY SIX YOUNG LADIES.

The Chestertown public school closed on last Friday, and in the evening there was a literary entertainment by the scholars completing the high school course. These were all young ladies, six in number: Misses Lillian Constable, Mary L. Chapman, Lottie R. Russell, Fannie E. Stuart, Lela M. McFadden and Maggie P. Wroth. Long before the exercises began on last Friday evening, the school room was packed, and when the opening hour arrived it was almost impossible to get inside the doors. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Strayer. The Kent Band played a lively air. The first school exercise on the programme was the reading of the "Echo," the school paper, by members of the first-seventh grade class, composed of Lizzie Fowler, Laura Thomas, Elsie Stephens, Anna L. Leaverton, Mary Beck, Rubie Corson, Lillie Hynson, John Aldridge, Walter Perkins, William Russell and Thomas Bowers. The "Echo" articles consisted of "A History of the Paper," "A Brief History of the Chestertown Public School," "A Parody on the 'Inquiry,'" a prophetic paper of the futures of the graduating class entitled "Ten Years Hence." The closing article, "Why do We Need a New School House?" was a plea for better school accommodations. The first essay was read by Miss Lillian Constable, her subject "The Grandeur of Self-sacrifice;" Miss Mary L. Chapman followed in an essay upon "The Power of Habit;" Miss Lottie R. Russell had for her subject "Intemperance;" Miss Fannie Stuart discussed "Woman's Mission," and Miss Lela M. McFadden read an essay upon a subject of home interest, "Our Town Bells." The valedictory address was read by Miss Maggie P. Wroth. The essays, taken altogether, were very creditable. The school made a new departure this year, in presenting those who had completed the high school course with certificates of graduation. The certificates are handsomely gotten up, and are in form as follows,—

State of Maryland. County of Kent.

GRADATIM.

Faithfully, fully, step by step.

The presentation of certificates were made by the principal and James A. Pearce, Esq., delivered a short and fitting address. The exercises closed with music by the Kent Cornet band, which had also entertained the audience between parts during the entire programme.

Temperance to be Taught in the Schools.

At a meeting of the Kent County Teachers' Association held in last April, the subject of temperance in the public schools came up for discussion, and on motion the president of the association appointed Mr. J. V. Crossby as a committee of one to report on the subject to the next association. At the meeting held on last Monday the following report was submitted, and was adopted by the association as given below:

To the Teachers' Association of Kent county, Md., in session April 25th, 1884.—MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee, after due consideration of the subject brought before it by the executive branch of the yearly meeting of Friends, assembled in Philadelphia, October 24th, 1883, urging upon the trustees and teachers of this county, the necessity of instructing the youth of the country, in regard to the evil effects of alcoholic drinks on the human system,

Resolved, That as the Kent county school board has ordered for use in our schools Brown's Physiology—a work which treats fully of all the evils resulting from the use of alcoholic drinks, showing to the pupils, that by the use of alcohol digestion is impaired, vital force diminished, sensibility lessened, the mental machinery deranged, and that even the moderate use of alcohol is a dangerous delusion; and as no one can teach in our schools who has not first passed an examination on physiology and hygiene; therefore, it is the unanimous opinion of this committee that Kent county is performing her duty in the temperance cause; and if the teachers are faithful in the performance of their duty, no child should go from our schools without being fully informed in regard to the evils resulting from the use of alcohol or other stimulants on the human system.

Signed, J. V. CROSBY, Chairman.

To the above report, T. B. Long offered the following resolution as an amendment:

Resolved, That in order that the subject may be placed before all the children in a simple and readily understood manner, it is the opinion of this association, that at stated times, at least once a month, the teacher should give a lecture on the subject of the evils of intemperance and the use of tobacco.

The report was adopted with Mr. Long's resolution embodied.

Peninsula Items.

W. S. Heverin, of Little Creek, Del., has over a thousand diamond-back terrapins in one pen, fattening for market next winter.

Postmasters have been informed of the approval by the President of the act of Congress relating to postage on second-class matter sent by other than the publishers or news agents. The postage, which was formerly one cent for each two ounces, is now one cent for each four ounces. Second-class matter includes newspapers, magazines, etc.

Denton, the capital of Caroline county, has within the town limits 569 inhabitants, of which number 270 are males and 299 females; 346 whites and 223 colored people; 240 under 21 years and 329 over 21 years. The population of the suburbs, within a mile of town, is 177, making a total population of 746. This by a private census taken recently.

Ex-Governor Philip F. Thomas, of Talbot county, has been appointed special counsel by the Directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal, at a salary of $5,000 per year, to look after the interests of the canal in the matter of the application of the bondholders for an injunction and a receiver. The ex-Governor will file the answer of the canal company to the petition in a few days.

The Somerset Herald says,—Mr. Joseph Brattan, of Wicomico county, father of Hon. Robert F. Brattan, is dangerously ill at his home at Barren Creek Springs. Young Mr. Brattan is a delegate to the Chicago Convention, which meets on the 8th instant, but owing to his father's illness it is exceedingly doubtful about his going. If his father has not very much improved by Friday he will not go.

The Conference Advocate published at Wilmington, Del., has changed its name to Peninsula Methodist. It has also changed its editorial management for the better. The Rev. T. Snowden Thomas who now has charge of the paper demonstrates in the first number that the editorial columns of the paper at least will show here-after a more vigorous literature than they have heretofore displayed.

The Caroline Democrat denies emphatically and somewhat bitterly the report put out by the Baltimore Herald, that Hon. P. H. Downes has withdrawn from the contest for the Democratic Congressional nomination in this district. The Democrat says that Mr. Downes has received many kind and flattering assurances of support in the district outside his own county.

Bug Cephas Confesses.

Gov. McLane has set Friday, August the first, as the date of execution of Cephas, the negro murderer of Dorchester county. Cephas has made confession of having murdered Miss Bush, relating the matter in all its revolting details. His confession is as follows,—

On the Monday morning on which the murder was committed, his wife having gone over to New Hope, the thought occurred to Cephas that he would go over and kill Mrs. Bush and get her money. He got up about nine o'clock, and went through the woods towards Mrs. Bush's house, as shown by the State in the trial. At the point where the stump was found he stopped and cut the pine club with which the blows were given, and which was afterwards found. On arriving at the clearing opposite Mrs. Bush's house he saw her gear the horse and come towards the woods. He concealed himself behind the undergrowth in the thicket and waited until she had gone into the woods, loaded the cart and had returned to the edge of the thicket, where he was lying in wait. Mrs. Bush was sitting on the front of the cart and shawl was thrown around her shoulders and a "chicken" bonnet on her head. He waited until she had partly passed him and then sprang from his hiding place, dealing her a blow on the head. Mrs. Bush was only partly stunned by the blow and screamed with terror, exclaiming: "Who would kill me? I have done no one any harm." Her bonnet and shawl both fell off into the cart. Cephas seized her by the feet and dragged her from the cart, to which she clung, screaming with desperation. After dragging her down he dealt her repeated blows over the head and face with the heavy pine club, and finished the work by cutting her throat. He states that when her throat was cut the blood spurted almost in his face and spattered his arm and breast. Satisfying himself that she was dead, he then dragged the body further into the thicket and proceeded to Mrs. Bush's house, which he ransacked in search of her money, but without success. He states that he remained at the house at least an hour. He saw provisions in the basket, which Mrs. Bush had brought from Williamsburg that morning, but did not have any desire to take them, but being impelled, as he says, by an irresistible impulse, he took the soap, which afterwards went so far towards his betrayal. He then went back to the scene of the murder on his way home and picked up the club and carried it along some distance into the woods, where he threw it away, and where it was afterwards found.

The coming Concert.

Ed. Transcript: The concert to be given at the town hall on the 15th of this month, promises to be of a very high order. Prof. Gambrill has secured the services of several first-class artists, both in musical and elocutionary attainments. Such musicians as Mr. John C. Cross (cornet soloist) and Prof. Perry C. Orem, Jr., need no special praise from us. Their records are well-known to the music loving public in Baltimore and elsewhere. Mr. Cross has for several years been engaged as leading and solo cornetist with Thatcher, Primrose & West's minstrels. Mr. Charles C. Saffell, of Baltimore, a well-known elocutionist and vocalist, will participate; also, Mr. A. Hawks, elocutionist and comic reader, who will favor the audience with select comic recitations. The array of talent certainly promises a good evening's pleasure. We hope Prof. Gambrill will meet with the success he deserves in offering the public this entertainment. Tickets at 50 and 25 cents can be had at Colin F. Stam's drug store. Seats reserved without extra charge.—Adv.

Our WAGONS,

Have a reputation throughout this Peninsula. We have sold them in New Castle county, Del., and in Cecil county, Md., and as far as Salisbury, Md. We have over ONE THOUSAND of these running to-day, and as far as our personal knowledge extends we do not know of twelve set of tyres cut in the whole of them. This is evidence enough of what kind of lumber we use in making them.

We could give you testimonials enough to fill one side of the Chestertown Transcript to establish this fact if it were necessary, but the public already knows of the standing of these goods.

We have justly earned the high reputation we hold as manufacturers by our manner of doing business—

We give our own personal supervision to every minutia in building;

We see that all lumber is well seasoned before it is used, and every other part is what it should be.

We do all kinds of

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

KENT, QUEEN ANNE'S & CECIL

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the Ohio Chilled Plow is the best plow in the world for neatness of work, and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the Old Reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11, Polished Minor and Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, and Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the Plow, I will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call, as I intend to sell them low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.

W. A. Hyland,

Galena and Chestertown.
