Signed Sealed published pronounced & Declared by John Noble to be his Last Will & Testament in presence of us
Francis Hayward
James Griffen
Thomas Cross

On the back of the aforegoing Will was thus written Viz^t. On the 10th. day of April Anno Domini 1769 Esther Noble and William Noble the within appointed Executors made Oath on the Holy Evangelis of Almighty God that the within Instrument of Writing is the true and only Will and Testament of John Noble late of Dorchester County deceased that hath come to their Hands Possession or Knowledge and that they did not know or ever heard of any other Will made Since by the Said Testator.

Certified p Jno Goldsborough Dep. Dr.

On the 10th. Day of April Anno Domini 1769 Francis Hayward and James Griffen two of the Subscribing Witnesses to the within Will being duly and Solemnly Sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposed and Said that they Saw the Testator John Noble Sign the within Will and heard him publish and Declare the same to be his last Will and Testament that at the Time of his so doing he was to the best of their Apprehension of Sound and Disposing mind and Memory and that they together with Thomas Cross the other Subscribing Witness to the within Will Subscribed their respective names as Witnesses to the said Will in the presence of the Testator and at his Request.

Certified p Jno Goldsborough Dep^ty Com^ry Dor County

Examined 4/1 Sides

In the Name of God Amen,

I Priscillah Howe of Dorchester County being very Sick and weak in Body but of sound and Disposing mind Memory and understanding do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in Manner and form following, to wit. Imprimis I give and bequeath unto my Loving Son John Stevens One Negro Man called Step, one Negro Man called Jemm, and one Negro Man called Cesar and one (Carpet)

Carpet to him and the Heirs of his Body Lawfully begotten for ever. Also I give and bequeath unto my Grandson John Stevens Son of John, one Silver Cann, one Large Bible, and one Negro Boy called Harry, Also I give and bequeath unto my Loving Son Levin Stevens, one Negro Man called George, one Negro Man called Dick and one Negro Man Peter half a Dozen large Silver Spoons, one Dictionary, half a Dozen Leather bottom'd Chairs one Arm Chair, one Horse called Whisler, one of my best Beds and furniture, two Looking Glasses one that is fixed up in my Lodging Room and the other in the Porch Chamber and one Walnut Chest of Drawers. I give and bequeath unto my Grand Daughter Sarah Daughter of my Son Levin one Negro Boy called Step. Also I give unto my loving Daughter Sarah Minor the use of the following Negroes to wit. One Negro Woman called Priss and her Children George Peter and Charrow, during her Lifetime, upon Condition that her Husband William Minor give good and Sufficient Security not to Sell or Dispose of either of the aforesaid Negroes but return them after my Said Daughters Death, if Living unto my Executors hereafter named, or the Proprietors thereof under Written and after my Said Daughters Decease my Will is that that the Said Negro woman called Priss shall decend and belong to my Son Levin and the Heirs of his Body and that the Said Negro Boy George shall decend and belong unto my Grand Daughter Priscillah Stevens, and the Said Negro Boy Peter to my Grandson William Stevens, and the aforesaid Negro Boy Charrow to my Grandson John Stevens Children of my Son John Stevens. Also I give unto my two Sons John and Levin each one Dozen of China Plates. Also I give and bequeath unto my Loving Daughter Anne Taylor the use of one Negro Woman called Sue and her Child called Hanny during my said Daughters Life time and after her Decease my Will is that the said Negro Woman called Sue and her said Child shall decend and belong to my Grand Daughter Priscillah Taylor. Also I give unto my Loving Daughter Mary Keene the Use of my Chaise Horse called Blaze and my Riding Chaise and a Debt due from Benjamin Keene to Mr. Robert Howe's Estate, and my Will is that my Said Daughter shall hold and enjoy the aforesaid Legacy during Pleasure and that her Husband Benjamin Keene shall not have any (Right)