Butler's Address.

General Butler, having tired of waiting for Gov. Cleveland's letter, has issued his address. Butler's modesty has never been his most conspicuous virtue, and now, having been rejected by both great parties, he quibbles at their records with all the peculiar skill and audacity of which he is capable, and declares for an increase of legal-tender currency, woman's suffrage, opposition to monopolies, to the sale of large bodies of land and to civil-service reform, as tending to create a class of aristocratic officials, and finally points to himself as the proper and only one to lead to victory a "people's party," which will be free from the faults of all other parties, but embrace their virtues, with many more. If Gen Butler thinks to found a great political party, he has mistaken his mission; or if he imagines by his candidacy he can defeat Gov. Cleveland and thereby revenge himself upon the Democrats for rejecting him and his platform, he will doubtless realize before many months that he is not as wise as he might have been.

BLAINE A KNOW-NOTHING.

IRREFUTABLE FACTS FOR IRISHMEN TO PONDER OVER.

In 1854 when those valiant knights of the dark lantern, the Know-Nothings, were holding meetings, Mr. James G. Blaine was the editor of the Kennebec Journal. He took the active interest of a full-fledged member in the development and increase of the order. As an evidence of this the following is an extract from his paper. It appeared as the leading editorial and was written by Mr. Blaine himself:

"We need stringent laws to regulate the Irish immigration from Europe. * * * * If the present abuses are not corrected, and corrected speedily, we shall become worse than Botany Bay; in fact, we are worse now, for more Irish reach here in a single year than were ever transported to the penal colonies in ten years. And the convicts and felons have hardly got our dust upon their feet before they are allowed to vote and control our elections.

"And yet, with these facts, plain as the light, demagogues will tell us that our European emigration is nothing but a benefit to us. We hope, and we sincerely believe that the day is not far distant that this whole subject will be impartially reviewed by the law-making power, and then the just and honorable pride of being an American citizen will suffer no blush from having our paternal rights bestowed in full equality upon those who are not of our household."

Time to Teach a Lesson.

"Give us money and we will carry the State for Blaine," is the message that Senator Mahone sends to Chairman Jones. "Give us a bloody-shirt campaign with money," a leading campaigner since deceased wrote to R. B. Hayes in 1876 from Indiana.

"It is simply a question of finance," says Mr. Stephen B. Elkins, referring to Indiana this year, and at a later period he summed up the contest in West Virginia in the same sententious manner. "How are the departments going," was the cautious language Garfield used.

These things teach a lesson. It is that the ideas of Republican politicians are uniform. They think that the elective franchise, the evidence of manhood and the priceless weapon of liberty is to be bought and sold like hucksters' stores. This will be a good year to teach them a wholesome lesson on the subject.—Harrisburg Patriot.

Butler's Candidacy.

When Gen. Butler announced his intention to run as the National-Workingmen's-Greenback candidate for the Presidency, it thoroughly enthused the Blaine bosses; but, a few days have sufficed to alter their feelings, and now it cannot be said that they are a happy set of men. Before Butler announced his intention of running, many of the members of the labor unions in New York city declared their intention of working and voting for Blaine; but they changed instantly to enthusiastic Butler men, and the Republicans are beginning to see that, in New York State at least, Butler's candidacy is a better bargain for the Democrats than themselves.

The Outlook for Oysters.

The oyster season for tongmen commences in three weeks from to-day. Parties who are well posted, state there will be a hundred new scrape boats added to the Choptank fleet this year from Talbot and Dorchester, and it is stated by reliable men that several non-resident vessels are being fraudulently admitted into our waters through parties at Oxford. A large fleet of bay schooners is now lying in Baltimore unable to make expenses at freighting and are waiting the opening of the oyster season, when they will engage in the business with a rush, thus probably stocking the markets and causing low prices. On the other hand, our oysters are reported to have made an excellent growth during the closed seasons, and are now in good condition, and the supply will probably equal the demand. Northern oysters, however, have been nearly completely destroyed by the deadly star fish, which will extend the demand for ours to territory that they have not before reached. Prices will probably be lower this year, though our oysters will be better in quality.—Cambridge News.

THE brief speech of Gov. Cleveland in reply to the committee which formally notified him of his nomination as the Democratic candidate for President is highly characteristic of the man. It expressed his deep devotion to the interests of the people and his "anxious desire to perform well the part" which has been assigned to him. This is the keynote of his entire official career, and has given him the clearness of purpose and the firmness and courage in action which are his distinguishing characteristics as a servant of the public. He has never recognized the claims of individuals nor the advantages of party as something distinct from the public interest, and to be promoted at its expense, and he has always shown an anxious desire to perform well the part assigned him.

THE people of New York city are very much cramped for room; and not having a chance to grow horizontally, are reaching skyward. Buildings seven, eight, nine and even ten stories high have been very common but they are now entirely eclipsed by the "Osborne," a flat fifteen stories in height. There are several other apartment buildings that have been recently erected, which are thirteen stories high. All these buildings are supposed to be fire-proof and have been constructed in the most approved manner. The suites of rooms in these flats rent for from $1,000 to $6,000 a year.

THE Democratic convention for the second Congressional district reconvened at Baltimore last Thursday. After several ineffectual ballots, the convention adjourned sine die. This will necessitate the calling of a new convention. How the contest will terminate, it is impossible to tell.

THE American railroad system, which now extends over about 100,000 miles, has cost something like $500,000,000, and nearly four-fifths of that amount has been expended on the locomotives. There are estimated to be 38,000 railroad engines now in use and they cost not less than $10,000 apiece.

A Boon Companion.

Mr. John Rolfe, Champion Bicyclist of Australia and England, writes to the Argus Melbourne, Australia, that in the six days contest for the championship, after riding 8 consecutive hours each day, his limbs became stiff and sore, and he is positive he won the great race, and was enabled to ride another 100 miles against time immediately afterward, from the wonderful effects produced by the use of St. Jacobs Oil, in training and racing. He calls it his boon companion, and recommends it to all athletes.

EDWARD HANLAN, who has been regarded by oarsmen for so many years as invincible, and has held the championship of the world against all scullers, was defeated by William Beach, an Australian oarsman on Saturday last.

YOUNG, old and middle-aged all experience the wonderful beneficial effect of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Young children suffering from sore eyes, sore ears, scald-head or with any scrofulous or syphilitic taint, may be made healthy and strong by its use.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

MARY S. HYNSON, VIRGINIA W. MOODY,
WILLIAM T. HYNSON, ANDREW J. HYNSON, FRANKLIN P. HYNSON, GEORGE W. HYNSON, ROMEY W. HYNSON, MACY B. HYNSON, COREY C. HYNSON.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to obtain judicial construction of the last will and testament of Elizabeth Walker, late of Kent county, deceased, dated the Eighth day of June, in the Year Eighteen Hundred and Forty-eight, and duly probated on the 21st day of February, in the year Eighteen Hundred and Forty-nine; and also to obtain a decree for the sale of certain land devised under said last will and testament.

The bill of complaint states that the said Elizabeth in her aforesaid last will and testament, among other things devised the farm she bought from William Apsley and others, subject to the life estate therein of Mrs. Wroth, the widow of Wm. Wroth, to her daughter—the said complainant—Mary S. Hynson for life, and after her death to her grandson, Christopher C. Hynson, (the son of said complainant) in fee simple, upon the condition when he became entitled to have and possess the said farm, he should pay to his sister, Virginia W. Hynson (the said complainant, Virginia W. Moody), and his sister, each the sum of one hundred dollars; but, provided, if he should die before he got possession of said farm, that it should be divided between his sisters, as appears by a certified copy of said will filed as a part of the bill.

That at the time of the making and execution of said will, the said Christopher C. Hynson had only two sisters, Virginia W. Moody, the said complainant, and Emma A. Hynson. That the said Emma A. Hynson departed this life an infant and without issue, the said testatrix and also her mother, the said complainant, Mary S. Hynson, living, and leaving her brothers, William T. Hynson, Franklin P. Hynson, Christopher C. Hynson, George W. Hynson, and her sister Virginia, her only heirs-at-law. That the widow of the aforesaid William Wroth died many years ago.

That since the death of the aforesaid Mrs. Wroth, the said complainant, Mary S. Hynson, has had and now has the possession of said farm as devisee for life under the will.

That the said Christopher C. Hynson before he became entitled to have and possess the aforesaid farm, died, to wit: in the year Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-two, leaving his children, Romey W. Hynson, Macy B. Hynson and Corey C. Hynson, his only heirs-at-law, and Mary F. Hynson, his widow, and the said complainant, Virginia W. Moody, his only sister.

That the buildings and other improvements on the aforesaid farm are in a dilapidated and ruinous condition and that the land has depreciated in value.

That these complainants are advised under a proper construction of the aforesaid devise of said farm, since the said Emma A. Hynson died in the life time of said testatrix, and the said Christopher C. Hynson having survived the said Emma, and died before the termination of the life estate of his mother, the said complainant, Mary S. Hynson, that upon his death the remainder in said farm vested in the said complainant, Virginia W. Moody, and that they can sell, and by a joint deed convey a valid fee simple title in and to said farm.

The bill further says that the said complainants are prevented from making an advantageous sale of the aforesaid farm, because of the claim and apprehension on the part of the said William T. Hynson, Franklin P. Hynson, George W. Hynson and the aforesaid heirs of Christopher C. Hynson, as the heirs-at-law of the said Emma A. Hynson, with the complainant, Virginia W. Moody, have the remainder in an undivided moiety of the aforesaid farm.

And the bill further says that it would be greatly to the interest and advantage of all the parties entitled, to have the said farm sold, and the net proceeds arising from such sale so invested that the said complainant, Mary S. Hynson, may receive the interest thereon during her life, and after her death, the person or persons entitled to the principal may receive the same.

And that said Franklin P. Hynson and George W. Hynson are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

It is therefore ordered this 11th day of August, A. D. 1884, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of September, 1884, give notice to Franklin P. Hynson and Geo. W. Hynson, the non-resident defendants, of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by attorney, on or before the 12th day of December, 1884, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
