The Transcript.

THURSDAY, AUG. 21, 1884.

—Don't forget the festival at Lynch's to-day.

—The next session of Washington College begins Wednesday, Sept. 27.

—Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr., advertises his brands of phosphate in this issue.

—The Chestertown base-ball nine defeated the Rock Hall nine on Saturday by a score of 29 to 14.

—George W. Parsons, who was committed for forgery last week is still in jail, he having been unable to secure bail.

—Mr. G. H. Leaverton advertises the sale of his stock, and farming implements on Sept. 10th, at the Chambers farm in Queen Anne's.

—The Kent County Agricultural Association advertises the programme of the trials of speed for the fair, the purses are liberal and the entries no doubt will be full.

—Col. Taylor has contracted to begin operations on the water-works within 30 days, but will probably commence sooner, as the work is to be completed by Nov. 15.

—A little daughter of Mr. Simpers Tarr, at Edesville, was kindling a fire with coal oil on the afternoon of the 8th inst., when the flames communicated with her clothing and she was so fearfully burned that death ended her sufferings the same night. There was no one in the house at the time.

—Wheat in the Baltimore market on Friday last, reached the lowest price since 1853, being down to 89 cents a bushel. The price the day before was a little over 90 cents, and one year ago it was $1.17 a bushel. The low price is attributed to the large supply at home and abroad, and grain men are moving very cautiously.

—The Kent county jail bonds were offered for sale at public auction on Tuesday, and only six out of the 17 were sold. No. 1—$1,000, 5 years—sold for $1,035; No. 2—$1,000, 5 years—sold for $1,030; No. 16—$1,000, 10 years—sold for $1,080; Nos. 3, 4 and 5, at private sale, sold for $1,030 each.

—An infant daughter of Mr. Thomas Redmiles, near Kennedyville, was fatally scalded on Tuesday last. The child was sitting on the floor near the stove when one of the legs slipped, pouring over it the contents of a large boiler of hot water. The little one was terribly scalded, and died two hours after.

—Notice is given by advertisement of the sitting of the officers of registration on the 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th of September. It is the duty of every new voter to have his name placed on the registration list, as without it, he will be deprived of the privilege of his franchise. Persons who have moved from one district to another must procure a transfer and hand it to the registrar so that there will be no difficulty when he goes to the polls in November. See to it that your names are on the registrar's book of the district in which you reside. The fourth election district having been divided into two precincts, it will be the duty of the registrar to prepare separate lists of voters for the judges of election in said precincts, and voters are expected to inform said registrar in which of said precincts they now reside. The law is published in this issue.

—The question of which is the better horse, "Young Smuggler," belonging to Mr. J. W. Hines of Chestertown, or "Cyclops," belonging to Mr. E. B. Emory of Queen Anne's, will probably be settled on the 23d day of next September, the first day of the Kent county fair. The Kent County Agricultural Association has decided to offer a sweepstake purse of $500 to be trotted for by these two. No more interesting race to the people of this or of the adjoining county of Queen Anne's, could be given. Young Smuggler has won numerous distinctions on various race tracks and his friends believe that he can lay Cyclops out in three straight heats, without any trouble. On the other hand Cyclops has also had his victories, and he has plenty of friends who believe that he is able to beat Smuggler. In a race between these two there can be no jockeying. It must be a square go, and the best horse will probably win. Mr. Hines, while he would not be willing for Smuggler to trot for a small purse on a private track, is willing to meet Cyclops when the purse is worthy Smugglers metal. Cyclops has a record of 2:27, Smuggler of 2:29.

—Last Saturday night, persons who passed Mr. J. K. Aldridge's store were attracted by the brilliant light inside, and were surprised to find that the store was lighted throughout by gas. The gas is made by one of the Lay Gas Machines, manufactured by the Lay Gas Company of Baltimore. The apparatus consists of a generator, which is set in the ground outside of the store and filled with gasoline, which is very volatile, and the gas is generated by a thorough mixture, under pressure, of the product of the evaporation of the gasoline and air supplied from the pump. The pump, run by weight, is the motive power of the machine. It is connected with the generator near the bottom, by a pipe through which the air in its natural condition is forced, not only into the generator, but through, in and along the different gas pipes to the burners. This pressure causes a thorough and complete mixture of the gasoline vapor and the air, which combine into a highly brilliant illuminating agent. The machine has a capacity of thirty burners of 18 candle power each. The store is fitted with 12 double burner chandeliers, and when lighted we venture to say there is not a handsomer store room on the peninsula.

—The Balt. Sun of Friday says that peaches are considered to have reached the lowest price, and that hereafter the tendency of the market will be for an advance in prices. The Sun says: "Commission merchants are of opinion that this fruit is now about as low as it will touch this season, as it is apparent that the crop is short, and the demand North and West is likely to continue good during the summer. Few persons are aware of the value of the peach interest to Baltimore. In a good season the packers here will consume about 1,200,000 boxes of peaches, which will pack about 20 cans to the box. The expenses on a box of peaches to the packers is about 50 cents after it reaches the city, to say nothing of what they pay the growers. This fifty cents on each box, aggregating in a good year $600,000, goes directly into the hands of working people, such as runners, wagoners, peelers, processors, packers and general laborers. From them it finds its way into the tills of the retailers in the southern and eastern sections of the city and makes them plethoric with prosperity. Forty days was formerly the accepted peach-packing season, during which time 30,000 boxes could be disposed of daily in this city. The improved late varieties, however, has lengthened the packing season of recent years, and it is likely that the business will run into September. The best judges say that the largest peach receipts that can be hoped for here this season is 1,000,000 boxes, and possibly 100,000 less.

—Orphans' Court, Tuesday Aug. 19, 1884.—Present Judges, Walker, Hyland and Stevens.

W. N. E. Wickes filed his bond as executor of Margaret Leatherbury, deceased, in the penal sum of $100,000, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

W. N. E. Wickes filed his bond as trustee for the sale of the real estate of Margaret Leatherbury, deceased, in the penal sum of $100.00, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Miss Lillian Constable was appointed to fill the vacancy in Brooks' Balto. City Female College.

H. W. Vickers filed the last will and testament of E. B. Caulk, late of New Castle county, State of Delaware, deceased, which was received, admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

Armilla A Vannort was appointed guardian to Melissa B. W. Vannort, who filed her bond in the penal sum of $4,000, with approved security.

Personal.

H. H. Barroll, Esq., left town Wednesday for a trip to Cape May, Atlantic City and Long Branch.

Miss May Bowen, of Queen Anne's, and Miss Nettie Hamil, of Philadelphia, are visiting Miss Maggie P. Wroth, in Chestertown.

Miss Maggie P. Wroth, daughter of Mr. B. B. Wroth, has been appointed a teacher in the public school of Chestertown in place of Miss Delia Crossley, who has resigned to take the school at Kennedyville.

Mr. E. Glanville Comegys, of this county, has been appointed principal of the Catonsville High School, Baltimore county. Mr. C. has been for some weeks past quite ill with malarial fever at his father's—Mr. E. W. Comegys, near Swan creek.

Mrs. Mary Graves, of Wilmington, Del., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. E. Elliott, of Chestertown.

Mr. J. White, son-in-law of the late Senator Vickers, has been elected cashier of the new national bank at Salisbury, Md.

Mr. S. A. Merritt, of Locust Grove, has been enjoying the seashore at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Louis G. Curlett and children, and Mr. Wm. H. Curlett, of Edmondson avenue, Baltimore, are visiting at Mr. J. W. Crew's.

Peninsula Items.

The Queen Anne's National Bank has opened its doors for business.

Centreville, Denton, Salisbury and Middletown are all putting up new banking houses.

The Delaware State Teachers' Association will hold its sixth annual meeting at Rehoboth Beach, commencing on the 25th, and closing on the 29th instant.

The Cambridge Chronicle has for the second time within the past two weeks changed owners. This time Mr. J. F. Melvin, one of the editors of the Denton Journal, is the purchaser.—Era.

Easton is to have water-works. Over 17,000 feet of pipe is to be laid and the system is expected to throw water over the highest house in town without the aid of an engine.—Greensborough Free Press.

Willie A., sixteen years old, son of Tilghman Hackett, an aged and respected farmer of Fork district, Dorchester county, was drowned Sunday while in bathing. He, with other companions, left church to go bathing.

Cottman Cox, of Salisbury, is doubtless the oldest living person on the peninsula. He has entered his one hundred and second year, his mental faculties remain unimpaired, he remembers distinctly events of Washington's administrations as well as leading events from the earliest days of the Republic. His eye-sight is excellent being able to thread a cambric needle without the use of glasses.—Delawarean.

Should there be 50,000 baskets of peaches less this year than last the railroad company will make more money, says the Middletown correspondent of the Delaware State Journal. In former years the railroad men have trusted to the honesty of their shippers, and only charged freight on 16,000 pounds of fruit to the car load. This year they began to weigh the cars and have already saved enough money to pay the weigher's salary for four years. One train alone, a few days ago, was found to be hauling $700 worth of freight more than the manifest called for. This is done by loading crates in the ends and filling the doorways with baskets, thus deceiving the agent when he comes to examine the car. This is regarded as very cute in the lower peninsula, but when they get to Middletown and are weighed, I. N. Mills gets the credit of being cute, too.—Easton Star.

Comegys; No. 9, Oak Grove, Miss Lillie Bramble; No. 10, Fairlee, Miss Caroline I. Smyth.

School number nine, in the second election district, is a new school district, and the school building will be located at the south end of Cherry Lane. Mr. John R. Woodall, of Crumpton, is now building the school house, at a cost of $485, exclusive of outbuildings. It will be a very neat and attractive structure and will supply a long-needed school accommodation to that portion of our county.

Of the colored schools, one will be opened in each election district on the first of September, as follows: in the first district, at Galena; in the second district, at "The Fountain;" in the third district, at Castletown; in the fourth district, at Chestertown; in the fifth district, in Broad Neck. The other colored schools of the county will be opened on the seventeenth of November.

The apportionment of the colored school fund under the last census so reduced the amount received by Kent county, as to necessitate the closing of some of the colored schools a part of the school year. The law requires one school to be kept open in a school district.

PENINSULA EDITORS AT REHOBOTH.

A TRIP THROUGH A FORLORN COUNTRY.

Hotel Henlopen, Rehoboth Del., Monday evening Aug. 18th, 1884.

Taking the 6.30 train at Chestertown on Monday morning, the editor of the TRANSCRIPT started for the Delaware's haven by the sea, Rehoboth, to attend the annual meeting of the Peninsula Press Association. The ten-five train down the Delaware road bore quite a number of newspaper men from the upper part of the peninsula who made a pleasant party in the rear car.

Up the Kent road there had been fine fields of corn, and every evidence of a rich agricultural country. Even the peach orchards, though generally thin in fruit had a vigorous greenness that told of a fertile soil. On the Delaware road for a time too, there was an appearance of agricultural prosperity; but the country soon began to present a spotted appearance, sickly looking corn fields would flash into sight, and after Dover was passed sickly looking corn fields became the rule and healthy looking corn crops the exception. But it is to be noted that all along the Delaware road the villages are numerous and pretty. Dover of course is recognized as the handsomest town on the peninsula, but Wyoming, Canterbury and Felton are also very pretty towns.

But for desolate country, the road from Harrington to Lewes will take the prize. Dreary, desolate, dilapidated houses stand out in fields that do not look as if they would grow all told enough of a crop of anything to feed a healthy cow for one week. Acres of corn that surely will not yield a bushel to the acre. Through this part of Sussex there is a large amount of forest country, and pretty nearly every stopping place along the railroad, has as its chief feature a saw mill. The peach orchards, too, down in this section, would really be smiled at in Kent. Around the principal villages along the line, there are orchards that look prosperous and number perhaps sometimes two or three thousand trees. But there are not along the railroad line, at least to be seen, any orchards of ten or fifteen thousand trees. The New York, Philadelphia and Boston papers when they discuss peaches, talk about the "Delaware peach," "the luscious Delaware peach," &c.,&c., but as a matter of fact, Maryland grows three peaches to Delaware's one. Most of the Maryland peaches probably go to Baltimore, but aside from this those that go to the northern markets, pass from the branch roads on the Delaware road, and Delaware gets the credit of growing Maryland peaches.

The press party arrived at Rehoboth about 1.30 P. M. There were a few already on hand. The Hotel Henlopen is head-quarters, and a very delightful and well-kept house it is. It was opened for the first time last season, and has all the approved seaside conveniences. It is a handsome house, built after the Queen Anne style, and has a capacity for accommodating 200 guests. Mr. James Antisdel, the manager, is quite a young man, but knows very thoroughly how to make a stay with him pleasant for his guests. Just now, with the press company in addition to other guests, the house has pretty nearly all it can do. As I write, the music for the press ball has begun, and the young ladies have left the broad porches and made their way to the ball room. There appear to be fully two ladies for every available male partner.

The following newspaper men are registered thus far. Some of them have ladies with them:—Edw. N. Vallandigham, Phila. Times, formerly of Wilmington Every Evening; W. Scott Roberts, Centreville Record; H. C. Conrad, formerly of Wilmington News; Scott Way, Middletown Transcript; J. B. Bell, Wilmington Star; W. O. Gilmour, Cecil Democrat; J. B. Clark, Georgetown Democrat; C. P. Johnson, Del. Gazette; George T. Melvin, Denton Journal; T. J. Crute, Wilmington Every Evening; W. B. Usilton, Kent News; Herman Roe, Smyrna Times; W. S. Corsa, Milford Chronicle; F. W. Reese, Delaware Republican; A. A. Christian, Greensboro' Free Press; F. E. Boch, Wilmington News; H. L. Brewington, Salisbury Advertiser; H. G. Knowles, Breakwater Light; N. P. Dashiell, Princess Anne Marylander, C. G. Woodall, Chestertown Transcript. Other newspaper men will probably join the association on the New York trip at Lewes to-morrow.

Among the noted guests stopping at the Henlopen are Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania. On last Saturday evening he held an informal reception, and most of the guests of the hotel were introduced to him. Another guest that is even more pointed out than Gov. Pattison, is Dick Harrington, of safe burglary notoriety. Once seen Harrington will ever after be remembered by his immensely low cut shirt colar. He looks much broken, as though from dissipation.

The ball is in full progress. To-morrow we leave on ocean steamer "Breakwater" for New York.

Mr Bordley's Concert.

The musical and literary entertainment, under the management of Mr. J. W. Bordley came off last Tuesday evening at the armory hall, Chestertown. The hall was comfortably filled by quite an intelligent audience. The concert was opened with a piano solo by Mr. Thomas Callas, and was followed by the Emerson Quartette, who were loudly encored with all the appreciation of their former appearance in Chestertown. Mr. H. Waltjen was next introduced in a tenor solo and was encored. Mr. A. W. Hawks next made his appearance and recited the adventures of Thos. Johnson illustrated, as he informed the audience, with paintings by Whistler, he was loudly encored, and responded with "alone with a gorilla." He was followed by Mr. John Finch, who was a stranger to the audience, but at once succeeded in establishing himself in their favor, and was loudly encored. The Emerson Quartette next sang a number of selections. The second part of the programme was also opened by Mr. Callas, who was encored. He was followed by the Emerson Quartette. Mr. John Finch again appeared, bringing down the house in his one of the finest, which was, undoubtedly, one of the finest. He was twice encored. Mr. Hawks followed with a humorous recitation and responded to an encore with his "Meddley." Mr. H. Waltjen was again introduced in tenor solo and encored. The concert was closed with selections by the Emerson Quartette.

Don't fill the system with quinine in the effort to prevent or cure Fever and Ague. Ayer's Ague Cure is a far more potent preventive and remedy, with the advantage of leaving in the body no poisons to produce dizziness, deafness, headache, and other disorders. The proprietors warrant it.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

KENT, QUEEN ANNE'S & CECIL

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the Ohio Chilled Plow is the best plow in the world for neatness of work, and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the Old Reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11, Polished Minor and Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, and Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the Plow, I will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call, as I intend to sell them low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.

W. A. Hyland,

Galena and Chestertown.

Elliott & Gemmill's

Farmers' Agency

Will furnish at short notice and Bottom Prices, any Implement manufactured in the United States.

We make a specialty of the Iron Turbine Wind Mill, manufactured by Mast, Foos & Co.; also, the Buckeye Force Pump, especially adapted to deep wells and forcing water.

Any one needing a Wind Mill we say try a Turbine. They are strength and durability itself. We control this Mill for the county, and have no sub-agents. Will make prompt estimates for any one desiring a Mill.

We would also call the attention of Farmers to our

which we pronounce, after thorough testing it last season, to be the best combined Grain and Fertilizer Drill ever offered to the trade. Our reasons are—

First, It is a perfect Wheat Seeder

Second, You have no cog wheels to take off or put on to chance quantities.

Third, With the Glass Feed for Phosphate you can sow any quantity of Fertilizer without clogging, gumming or pasting, from 100 to 500 lbs., and can make the changes while walking along.

Fourth, Both wheat and phosphate are distributed within plain view of the operator.

Fifth, It has double force feed for wheat, which makes it sow regular in whatever position it may be placed, especially when seeding side hills. All other drills will seed more or less according to position.

Call and examine it before buying, it will pay you.

Farmers clubbing together can make it pay.

Remember we have no sub-agents Save money by giving us your orders direct.

We have in use in Queen Anne's county eighty-three of the Buckeye Drills. In 1882 we sold there 28; in 1883 we sold 55.
