Sir June 20. 1769

I have now considered whether or not to abide by the last Will and Testament of my Deceased Husband Thomas Holly and have determined not to abide by said Will but to receive such part of his Estate real and personal as the Law has provided for Widows dissenting from the Wills of their deceased Husbands and you will be pleased to take notice of same and Oblige.

To Mr. George Scott
Deputy Commissary
Prince Georges County

Sir Your very H. Serv.
Elizabeth her ⊤ mark Holly

Prince Georges County. 20th June 1769 Then Came James Brown & Robert Ferguson and made Oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that they saw Elizabeth Holly make the above mark where her name is wrote and at the same time heard her declare that she would not stand to her deceased Husbands Will but would take what the Law gave her.
