A DEMOCRATIC ADDRESS.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE SPEAKS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

The following address has been issued by the National Democratic Executive Committee through its its Chairman:

"To the People of the United States.

'The National Democratic party of the United States has pledged itself to purify the Administration of public affairs from corruption, to manage the Government with economy, to enforce the execution of the laws and to reduce taxation to the lowest limit consistent with just protection to American labor and capital, and with the preservation of the faith which the nation has, pledged to its creditors and pensioners.

'The open record of the man whom it has named as its candidate for the Presidency has been accepted by thousands of Independent Republicans in every State as an absolute guarantee that if he is elected all these pledges will be exactly fulfilled and that under his administration good government will be assured.

'To secure these results all good citizens must unite in defeating the Republican candidate for President. His history and political methods make it certain that his administration would be stained by gross abuses, by official misconduct and wanton expenditure of the public money, and would be marked by an increase of taxation which would blight the honest industry of our people.

'Against us and against those honorable Republicans who, for the sake of good government, have made common cause with us, notable combinations have been made.

'These are chiefly made up of four classes.

'First—An army of office-holders, who, by choice or compulsion, are now giving to Republican committees, as parts of the campaign fund of that party, moneys paid to such officers out of the public Treasury for services due to the people of the United States,

'Second—Organized bodies of men who, having secured by corrupt means the imposition of duties which are in excess of all sums needed for the wants of the Government and for the protection of American labor and capital, and having thus gained enormous wealth, are willing to pay largely to the Republican campaign fund for the promise of the continuance and increase of such duties which constitute a system of bounties to monopolies under the false pretense of protection to American industry.

Third—A host of unscrupulous contractors and jobbers, who have grown rich upon public plunder and are ready to pay tithes for what they have acquired in order to avoid all risk of being called to account for the evil methods by which their wealth has been gained.

Fourth—Corporations which, having spoiled the public lands by the aid of corrupt agencies in the Republican party, believe they will be compelled to give up their ill-gotten gains if that party is driven from power, and are, therefore, willing to keep it in place by giving a percentage of their unrighteous profits.

'This committee has no troops of office-holders at its command.

'It will not agree to sell the future legislation of Congress for money paid now into its party treasury.

'It will not promise immunity to thieves.

'It will not contract to uphold any corrupt bargain heretofore made by the Republican party with any corporation, for all the wealth which such corporation can offer.

'It appeals to the people against one and all of these opponents, thus corruptly banded together against the friends of good government.

'The number of all these opponents is small, but their wealth is great, and it will be unscrupulously used. An active and vigorous campaign must be made against them. Their paid advocates must be met and defeated in debate upon the platform and in discussion in the newspapers. The organization of all who are opposed to them must be perfected in every State, city and county in the land. Money is needed to do this honest work. Your committee, refusing to adopt the methods by which the Republican party fills its treasury, calls upon all good citizens for the aid which it requires.

'It invites and will welcome contributions from every honest man who is opposed to the election of James G. Blaine as President. No contribution will be accounted too small. Wherever a bank, banker or postal money order office can be found the means exist for placing at the disposal of the treasurer of this committee individual or collective contributions in aid of the great cause in which we are engaged, or money may be remitted by mail to Charles J. Canda, Treasurer, at No. 11 West Twenty-fourth street, New York.

'When victory is achieved over the unscrupulous combination which is now endeavoring to thrust James G. Blaine into the Presidential office, the recorded list of such contributors will be a roll of honor such as no other party in this country has ever possessed.

'Our opponents cannot be saved from disaster by forcing their unwilling candidate to speak to assemblages of the people.

'The man who wrote the Fisher Letters will never be the choice of the people for President of the United States.

'ARTHUR P. GORMAN,
'Chairman Nat. Dem. Ex. Com.

Some Interesting Contrasts.

"BURN THIS."

'Wherever concealment is desirable avoidance is advisable.'—Blaine, in House of Representatives.

'Burn this letter.'—Blaine to Fisher.

NO DEADHEAD.

'I do not feel that I shall prove a deadhead in the enterprise if I once embark in it.—Blaine to Fisher.

'Owing to your political position you were able to work off all your bonds at a very high price.'—Fisher to Blaine.

"OPEN AS THE DAY."

'My whole connection with the road has been as open as the day. If there had been anything to conceal about it I should not have touched it.'—Blaine in House of Representatives.

'No one will ever know from me that I disposed of a single dollar in Maine.'—Blaine to Fisher.

WHAT, NEVER?

'I never had any transaction of any kind with Thomas A. Scott concerning bonds of the Little Rock and Fort Smith road or the bonds of any other railroad or any business in any way connected with railroads, directly or indirectly, immediately or remote.'—Blaine in the House of Representatives, April 24, 1876.

'I can do something, I feel very sanguine, with Thomas A. Scott.—Blaine to Fisher, January 20, 1871.

'Taking into account the one hundred thousand dollar bonds you sold to Tom Scott * * * our relative positions financially in the Rittle Rock and Fort Smith Railroad bear a wide contrast.'—Fisher to Blaine, November 10, 1871.

HOW HE GOT THEM.

'In common with hundreds of other people in New England and other parts of the country, I bought some of these bonds—not a very large amount—paying for them at precisely the same rate others paid. I never heard and do not believe that the Little Rock company ever parted with a bond to any person except at the regular price fixed for their sale.'—Blaine, in House of Representatives.

"Of all the parties connected with the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad no one has been so fortunate as yourself in obtaining money out of it. You obtained subscriptions from your friends in Maine for the building of the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railroad. Out of their subscriptions you obtained a large amount both of bonds and money free of cost to you. I have your own figures, and know the amount." —Fisher to Blaine.

THE death of John W. Garrett last week takes away the last of that trio of great railroad builders, that stood preeminently at the head of railroad enterprises 10 years ago. The trio was composed of Commodore Vanderbuilt, Thomas A. Scott and John W. Garrett.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

KENT, QUEEN ANNE'S & CECIL

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the Ohio Chilled Plow is the best plow in the world for neatness of work, and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the Old Reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor and Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, and Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the Plow, I will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call, as I intend to sell them low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.
