On the 21st. Day of September 1770 Came Shipwith Cole before me one of his Lordships Justices of the Peace for Baltre County and being one of the People called Quakers did Solemnly Affirm and Declare that the within Inventory of the Estate of John Wallace Deceased is a true Copy of an Original Inventory returned Some Time ago to Coll. William Young which is not at present to be found.

Affirmed before Jeremh. Sheredine

The Admr. did not return the Inventory to me as I remember.

Wm. DC.

We the Subscribers do hereby Certify that we had a Warrant from the Deputy Commissary of Baltimore County to Appraise the Estate of John Wallace Late of Baltimore County Deceased by Virtue of which Warrant after Qualifying before a Magestraigh of Said County as the Law in Such Cases Direct We did appraise all the Said Estate that came to our Sight and Knowledge and returned an Inventory of the Same to the Widow of Said John Wallis which we believe the Inclosed to be a True Copy of. Given under our Hands and Seals this 22 Day of November 1770.
