THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1890.

COLLINS & HOPPER,
EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE Court of Appeals convened on Tuesday, July 1, to file additional opinions, ex-Treasurer Archer's case being among those to be decided.

THE MONUMENT to the memory of the late Thos. A. Hendricks, United States Senator and Vice-President, was unveiled at Indianapolis on Tuesday. The monument stands at the southwest corner of the capitol ground in that city, and is a large and handsome structure. A large crowd witnessed the unveiling.

THE MARLBORO' Gazette, one of our most esteemed contemporaries and an energetic and progressive journal, enjoyed and duly celebrated its fifty-fourth birthday and has reached its vigorous substantial manhood while in the unbroken possession of the same hand, father and son. May the Gazette continue to grow in material wealth and social influence until it becomes with increased age and even increased giant for good.

THE Court of Appeals on Tuesday handed down its opinion in the case of ex-State Treasurer Stevenson Archer, reversing the previous decision of Judge Stewart of the Criminal Court of Baltimore and remanded the case for trial. The opinion was unanimous and was delivered by Judge John M. Robinson of Queen Anne's county. Under this decision the case stands exactly as though no demurrer had interposed, and Mr. Archer will now be tried before a jury, or the court, as his counsel may select. The indictment charges him with embezzlement of the state's funds in the aggregate to an amonnt of over $130,000.

OUR NATIONAL HOLIDAY.

To-morrow will be the anniversary of the most sacred memorial in the calendar of American events. No day comes so freighted with memories so calculated to inspire feelings of patriotism and pride, as no day known in the calendar of any nation commemarates the birth of a more noble offspring than the sacred rights of Liberty and Independence vouchsafed to a mighty nation by their own declaration of right. Fullifieged a great Union of States was born, which, while empires have fallen and Republics have become disnumbered and extinct, has grown and become mighty at home and abroad. Her religious, social and political institutions stand the admiration of the world, while commercial influence is stamped and impressed upon the commercial destinies of the world. She stands as the representative of that which is greatest and best, a nation which, after the most bitter sectional conflict history records, has conquered her own bitterness, and with the assurances that only God knows who was right, she stands to-day a prosperous and united people, a common country unbroken by discord at home or contentions with foreign foe. The Fourth of July stands as the synonym of an absolute national freedom. The voice of the people unconstrained, the press untrammeled and individual liberty assured to the native born as well as to the adapted of all lords. No North, no South no East, no West should intrude its local jealousies or sectional animosities upon this, the birthday anniversary of a goodly heritage, which, irrespective of geographical lines or political divisions has insured its blessing to all alike. Whatever circumstances may surround us, upon whatever soil we may tread or whatever may be the brightness of the national sun which may shine upon us, let not the American forget his America or prove recreant to an observance of its great anniversay-day of Independence.

STATE AND PU[illegible]

The county commissioners for Cecil county at a special session on monday made the annual levy. It was fixed at 70 cents on [illegible]100 for county purposes on a basis of $4,560,406. The State tax rate is 17½ cents on the $100, the basis being $13,-[illegible]457. The levy for county purposes includes the following: Almshouse and insane asylum, $6,000; Circuit Court, $14,-000; County Commissioners' Court, $5,000; public schools, $2,700; roads and bridges, $4,200; bonds maturing, $4,500; county buildings, $2,500; Orphans' Court, $1,367; printing, $1,200; out pensions, $800; interest, $1,305. The county tax rate last year was 67½ cents on the $100.

SNOW HILL, MD., June 30.—Governor Jackson has issued a death warrant for John Shelby Hudson, alias John Hudson, alias Shelby, colored, fixing Friday, September 12, 1890, for the execution. The condemned man was convicted in the circuit court for Worcester county, at the May term of murder in the first degree for the killing of John Butts, and sentenced to be hanged.

BELAIR, MD., June 30.—The county commissioners to-day fixed the tax rate at 87 cents on the $100. The assessable basis for the county is $12,891,207. This basis, together with the tax on corporations will yield at 87 cents $112,647.98. Under the old system of collecting in use, in this county, the cost will be $4,775.72. The public schools get $23,997.61, and $40,880 is appropriated for the bridge and road account. The court expenses have not been as heavy as in the past two years.

CENTREVILLE, MD., June 30.—The board of county commissioners met to-day and fixed the county levy for the year at 92 cents the $100, being one cent more than last year. The increase is caused by the purchase of the bridge at Chestertown and for repairs to it. The taxable basis of the county is $7,258,634, $18,000 less than last lear.

A MAN who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

MESSRS. F. J. Cheney, & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence and success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours truly,
L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure Taken internally.

PUBLIC SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

Last Monday, June 30th, the teachers turned out in force to attend the teachers' association which was held at the school-room in Chestertown. There are sixty-one teachers in Kent county, and but three of these were absent. It was explained by the examiner that one of the absentees, Mr. J. M. H. Rowland, of Still Pond, had resigned his position which accounted for his absence. The male members of the association are very much in the minority. Judging from the number of grey heads among the men, some of them must be veterans in "teaching the young idea how to shout." Rev. S. C. Roberts was present and opened the exercises with prayer. The literary committee, through its chairman, Mr. John F. Copper, reported two questions for discussion at the next meeting in September, which on motion by Mr. Long, were adopted by the association.

1st. How can a Teacher' Reading Circle be managed in connection with our Teachers' Associations in this county?

2d. What are the greatest needs of our schools and how can they be supplied?

This was the meeting for the election of officers for the next year, and all of the officers were re-elected. Mr. E. F. Perkins was re-elected president, having served in that position for the past fifteen years. Mr. Henry Tonkin was re-elected vice-president, Miss Nettie Gooding, corresponding secretary, and Mr. Wm. G. Fallowfield recording secretary. The president appointed Messrs. Thos. H. Topping, Isaac R. Starkey, J. Alfred Greenwood, Miss Laura Thomas and Miss Carrie Smyth, the literary committee for the next year, and at the suggestion of one of the members of the committee the president made a special request that each member of the association send the literary committee one question for the September meeting and one other question for other meetings of the year. Miss Nellie Walters was appointed essayist for the meeting in November.

The association discussed the question about teachers and pupils spending the ensuing vacation months. Both ladies and gentlemen had their ideas of pleasant and profitable ways of spending vacation as far as concerned teachers, and plans were suggested for making vacation time one of pleasure and profit to children. The upper-most idea was to get well rested, for it was agreed that the teachers and children generally were tired, jaded, almost worn-out with ten months' work and study, and a good resting spell was needed to recuperate the exhausted mental powers. If it could be afforded, traveling, visiting some points of interest, seeking mountain air for a change, and with children sports in the open air, out-door exercise, boating, fishing excursions and pleasure of that sort was recommended. It was thought best that both teachers and children should study a little, just a little, and, and read entertaining and useful books, and one teacher advised that the daily papers be read particularly by those who were not in the habit of doing so, and he declared that some teachers omitted the important matter of keeping up with the current news. Such a condition of affairs was astonishing. The examiner advised that both teachers and children should have systematic work, not to take up much time of each day, but something every day. He thought that an attendance at some summer Normal School would be too much work for teachers.

The second question, "What is the place of history in our school course?" was explained by Miss Smyth, who proposed it, to have reference to the relative importance of history. It was given the sixth place among the studies by one of the teachers, and yet it was considered quite an important study. Much that is read in papers is better comprehended by a knowledge of history. A person is likely to become a better citizen by being well-versed in the history of his country. After the discussion Mr. Long moved that the association adjourn until 2 P. M., which was carried.

When the association was called to order in the afternoon Hewett's Methods of Teaching, [illegible]ering especially to School Hygiene, Suggestions to Teachers on the [illegible] subject and Rules of Health for Pupils, was read and discussed. There were but few responses, when suggestions for the next school year, based on the experience of the year about to close, was called for.

The subject of oral teaching, and especially that of teaching oral grammar was next discussed, and in the course of the discussion Mr. Long most emphatically denounced Harvey's series of grammars. He offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this association that Anderson's History of the U. S. and Harvey's English Grammar have outlived their usefulness in our schools, and we respectfully ask the School Board to select other text-books on the subjects to take their place.

This resolution, on motion of Mr. Melvin, was postposed until September, in order to give teachers ample time to think about the proposed change.

The president called attention to the State Teachers' Association to be held at Bay Ridge in July, and also to a probable reduction in the salaries of the teachers of Kent county, of which due notice would be given each teacher by the School Board. The association was then declared adjourned.

WHICH MEANS TWO SUITS INSTEAD OF ONE,
but certain gentlemen of the crusty kind have been pleased to affirm that a woman's mind is but a fancy bazar filled with all manner of light and trivial affairs. But we venture to raise a voice in her defence. We are not brilliant expounders of our faith, we cannot climb to the mountain top and proclaim it to the wide world
IN THOUGHTS AS BRIGHT AS THE LIGHTNING FLASH NOR IN WORDS THAT BURN, but it would take more than a deserted beau's logic or a forsaken drunkard's theme to disbuise our minds of its trust in the shrewdness, truth and honesty of womankind. That grand old writer, Irving wrote both eloquently and firmly in defence of good women's devotion, and his words like a strain of sweet melody finds ready response in all manly hearts to-day, and so does the
NATIONAL Garment Cutter
For it helps that wife or mother or sister to free herself of that dread of spoiling that new dress in cutting, and it makes the work easy and pleasant and the garments fit well besides, and any of you that may think differently go and ask any of those scores that learned it all over this section of country—they all speak in the highest praise of it. Miss Susie Jones, of Still Pond, says: "I have cut many garments with the System, and all are first-rate, and the more I use it the better I like it." And so all I hear speak of it, and Mrs. Geo. Clark, of Still Pond, cut her first dress with the System a few days ago, and it is as nice a fit as an expert can make; and ask Mrs. Maylin, she has tested it well, and says she is delighted with it, and none of those using this System spoil dresses and have to buy new goods to replace them as some do that do not use our System, and the agents that have gone out from this Shore as well as others find the work not only pleasant but profitable, as one of my lady agents cleared $30 the last day I was there, and $70 the week before in Dorchester county, Md. Not a bad beginning for a young lady, and others seeing their good work are following suit. There is a few more [illegible], who will be the next? We have been several disappointed by not getting the territory they wanted. Remember, delays are dangerous. I find in these days of tight times the GARMENT CUTTER people get the lion's share of the cash of late, and now, all ye that want to do something and make something, either by cutting with or selling Garment Cutters, come and see us at the Voshell House, Chestertown, Kent county, Md.

THE GRAIN MARKET.
HAVING arranged to handle Grain at the very least expense, and being in a position to buy on a close margin, feel sure I can offer the grain growers of Kent and Queen Anne's counties an inducement to sell their wheat and corn. Will settle for all grain immediately upon delivery.

PRIDE OF ENGLAND,
IMPORTED
Cleveland Bay Stallion
REGISTERED NO. 161.
is of a beautiful Cleveland Bay color, stands 16 hands 1½ inches, and will weigh thirteen hundred pounds in condition. He is stylish, fine action and perfectly quiet. In the combined qualities of action, beauty and endurence, he is acknowledged to stand unequaled as a stock horse for farm and carriage purposes. Has only served a few mares, but has proved sure with them. He comes down a long line of the best producers.

The American Farmers' Stock Book, in speaking of the most desirable strains of horses which have been the result of careful and scientific breeding, in coming to the Cleveland Bays, says: "We come next to a class of horses always held in the highest esteem for their many valuable qualities. It is a horse that is now bred to a degree of perfection that leaves little to be desired in all that goes to constitute size, style and ability to perform any labor that may be required, except the heaviest drudgery. The Cleveland Bays are good carriage horses, good and stout wagon or plow horses, and they match together about as easily as Devon cattle, combining as they do, plenty of staunch thorough blood with excellent size and constitutional vigor. Unfortunately they are rare in the United States, but since their introduction into the West, they have been steadily growing into favor. They are remarkable for their pure bay color, dashed only at the fetlocks and in the forehead with white. We have good authority for our admiration of this splendid animal. Canada has of late years become celebrated for finely-bred and finely-matched carriage horses, which is due to the sagacity of some Canadian breeders, in selecting Cleveland Bay Stallions for sires."
