judge testamentary praying their discharge from the adm[on] because of their great over payment and danger of more suits having nothing of the estate lean into judgement to the Court

John Cobreath

Capt John Cobreath who has the custody in possession of Pagotts estate produce this acc[o] in his own & John Cow Gratz the other adm[r] with him Coym
admitted this 15 June 1678 exam[d]

Philip Hillist

Laus Deo in Maryland

The accompt of James Mills dec[d] of the last will & testament of Capt[n] Ann Boslon late of Baltimore County dec[d]
the adm[r] of the goods chattels & debts of Capt George Goldsmith & Mary Boslon
both of Baltimore County deceased will & for such and so much of the goods as came to his hands as of his hereu mentioned & delivered out of the same as followeth Viz

The said accomptant charseth him self with all & singular the goods & chattels of the said deceased bes
specified in an inventory thereof
Made

Made & exhibited before the honr[ble]
the judge or commissary for probate
of wills & granting of adm[ons]
as by the said inventory appeareth
to the summe of

And petitions for allowance as follow:
Imprim[is] the said accomptant demandeth
allowance of the funerall particulars as foll[ow]

for two negro children delivered for the use of the orphans into the hands & possession of Coll: George Coales M[r]
Henry Haslewood M[r] Edward Beddo
& M[r] John Leland four of the com: missioners of the County of Baltimore
as by the order of the said County appeareth

for one feather bedd & bolster 1 rugg
2 blankets & 2 pr of sheets for the use of the orphans aforesaid into the hands & possession of the four commissioners aforesaid as by the order of the said County appeareth

= 9100

for one iron pott of eight gallons
delivered for the use of the orphans aforesaid into the hands & possession of the said four commissioners for the County aforesaid as by the said order
of Court appeareth

& lot 92555	70
	180
	370
	24
	70
	28
	30
	25
	600
	18
	70
	30
	350
	322
	300
	00
	58
1500
1600	21
130	