NOTICE OF OPENING BOOKS

—FOR—

Subscription to Stock!

THE Commissioners of THE CHESTERTOWN LIGHT, POWER AND RAILWAY COMPANY hereby give notice that BOOKS FOR SUBSCRIPTION TO THE CAPITAL STOCK OF SAID COMPANY, will be open from 10 o'clock A. M. to 2 o'clock P. M., on the 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th of May, 1894, at STAM'S....CHESTERTOWN.

HARPER'S....STILL POND.
POSTOFFICE....GALENA.
HOTEL....ROCK HALL.
HOTEL....TOLCHESTER.
AND IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE.

The capital stock of the company is $50,000 (with privilege to increase to $500,000), par value $50 per share; first payment at time of subscription $1.00 per share.

The franchise of this company is available for STEAM or ELECTRIC RAILWAY, ELECTRIC LIGHT, POWER and MANUFACTURING.

The building of a link of railway from Chestertown to the Chesapeake Bay would complete a new line from all Peninsula points to Baltimore and Washington, and effect a saving in distance to those cities of from 50 to 75 miles, and from one to two hours in time.

It would open up country seats to city residents, and afford a new and valuable outlet for farm products by rapid transfer and cheap rates.

Peninsula farmers must quit endeavoring to compete with the great West in raising wheat and corn, and turn their attention to raising food supplies in greater variety for the great cities along the Atlantic coast.

To effect this, additional, cheaper and more rapid lines of transportation are essential.

Capitalists and others interested in the development of this field, are especially invited to examine the splendid opportunity which the promotion of this corporation presents.

Thoughts on Marriage.

Married in haste, we repent at leisure.—Congreve.

Humble wedlock is far better than proud virginity.—Augustine.

A husband is a plaster that cures all the ills of girlhood.—Moliere.

Men marry to make an end, women to make a beginning.—A. Dupuy.

A man finds himself seven years older the day after his marriage.—Bacon.

No man can either live piously or die righteously without a wife.—Richter.

Take not too short a time to make a world-wide bargain in.—Shakespeare.

Never marry but for love, but see that thou lovest what is lovely.—Penn.

For any man to match above his rank is but to sell his liberty.—Massinger.

A person's character is but half formed till after wedlock.—C. Simmons.

Wedlock's like wine, not properly judged of till the second glass.—Jerrold.

It is in vain that a man is born fortunate if he be unfortunate in his marriage.—Dacier.

Men should keep their eyes wide open before marriage and half shut afterward.—Mme. Scuderi.

Fathers their children and themselves abuse, that wealth a husband for their daughters choose.—Shirley.

Marriage with a good woman is a harbor in the tempest of life; with a bad woman it is a tempest in a harbor.—J. P. Senn.

As the husband is, the wife is, if mated with a clown, the grossness of his nature will have weight to drag thee down.—Tennyson.

The kindest and the happiest pair will find occasion to forbear, and something every day they live to pity and perhaps forgive.—Cowper.

If You Wish to Help the Town—

Don't fail to sound its praises wherever you are.

Don't make your money out of its citizens and spend it somewhere else.

Don't frown on every public improvement simply because it will cost you a dollar or two.

Don't sneer at the efforts of your fellow citizens to build up the town, but lend a hand yourself.

Don't talk a great deal about what should be done and remain on the back seat waiting for some one else to do it.

Don't say a board of trade is "no good on earth" until you can prove it by statistics.

Don't say the public schools are a failure because your boy has been upsetting the school's discipline and has been punished for it.

Don't stay at home on election day, but get out and "hustle" for good government.

Don't let a good local paper that is the town's untiring champion abandon the champion business because of lack of deserved patronage.

Don't forget to drop your dollars in the slot when the committee that is after a new enterprise comes around with the subscription list.

Don't forget that in building up the town hearty co-operation, united endeavor and a spirit of get there are what win the day. There is no pull like a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together.

Pointed Points.

Seedy individuals—Gardeners.

Peddler—"Is your mother in?"

Boy—"Yes; but she's got three callers, and they've got to talking about servant girls. Guess you'd better come round next week."

He was a countryman, and he walked along a busy thoroughfare and read a sign over the door of a manufacturing establishment, "Cast Iron Sinks." It made him mad. He said that any fool ought to know that.

The German army has eight women colonels among its officers. They draw their swords only on rare occasions, but their salaries with unfailing regularity. They include an empress, a dowager empress, two queens, a princess and several duchesses.

The navigation of the Dead Sea is the latest step in Oriental progress. The Sultan has sent two sailing boats there, one for freight and one for passengers. Abdul Hamid is going to try to make money out of the salt, bitumen and sulphur of the lake.

An eminent medical authority asserts that getting up early tends to exhaust the physical power and to shorten life, while the so-called invigorating early hours are apt to produce lassitude and are positively dangerous to some constitutions.

Evidently a Foreigner.

"How will you have your hair cut, sah?" said the talkative barber to the man in the chair.

"Minus conversational prolixity," replied the patient.

"How's dat, sah?"

"With abbreviated or totally eliminated narrations."

"Guess, I don't catch on yit, boss."

"With quiescent mandibulars."

"Which?"

"Without effervescent verbosity."

"Sah?"

"Let diminutive colloquy be conspicuous by its absence."

The barber scratched his head thoughtfully a second and then went to the proprietor of the shop with the whispered remark,

"I dunno whether dat man in my chair is crazy or a foreigner, but I kyant find out what he wants, so I kyant."

The proprietor went to the waiting customer and said, politely:

"My man doesn't seem to understand you, sir. How would you like your hair cut?"

"In silence."

The proprietor gave a withering look to his journeyman, while the latter began work and felt so utterly crushed that he never asked his patient if he'd buy a bottle of hair restorer.

Literary Notes.

The course pursued by Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, during the recent liquor riots in that State, has been the subject of much criticism. Governor Tillman explains and defends his action in an article entitled "Our Whiskey Rebellion" which appeared in the May number of the North American Review.

Representative Bland's views on the President's veto of the Seigniorage Bill are set forth in an able article on "The Hopes of Free Silver" which appeared in the North American Review for May.

The necessity for a National Bureau of Public Health is very generally conceded. The discussion over the bill now before Congress creating such a bureau is certain to attract attention to the article on "A National Health Bureau" that appeared in the May number of the North American Review by the Surgeon General of the Army, George M. Sternberg, whose official position gives additional weight to his opinions on this question.
