SMITH & CLEMENTS,

May 3, 1894. CHESTERTOWN MARYLAND.

The CELEBRATED CLEVELAND BAY STALLION,

PRIDE OF ENGLAND,

Registered No. 161, Imported, Stands Alternate Weeks at Elkton and Chestertown, Maryland.

PRIDE OF ENGLAND, 161, is a beautiful Blood Bay Color, stands 17 hands high and weighs 1300 pounds.

Pride of England is registered in the Ontario Coach and Roadster Horse Breeders' Association of St. Thomas, Canada, as No. 161. He is a descendant of the best producing families on both sides for speed, beauty, endurance and general utility.

Tracing from Mark Twain, Moonstone and Old Clear Grit [859] as producers of speed, and through Rattler and Hornpipe to thoroughbred and imported coach horses, through Fox Hunter, Pride of England [161] sired by Mark Twain, he by Moonstone, by Old Clear Grit [859], he by Lapadist by Touchstone, the English race horse.

Mark Twain's dam Big Nell, by Foster's St. Lawrence, he by Old St. Lawrence. Mark Twain is sire of Nellie Baker with four-year-old record of 2.32 with six weeks handling. She gave a trial mile on Woodbine track, Toronto, in 2.21¼, and a half mile in 1.08.

Moonstone's dam by Bradly's thoroughbred, he by Olivers's thoroughbred. Moonstone is sire of Nettie C., record 2.23, and several others that show their ability to trot close to 2.30.

Old Clear Grit [859], was one of the greatest Canadian sires. Sire of Amber, record 2.23, made in Australia, and the fastest record for two, three and ten miles in Europe, Flora F., 2.24¼, Bay William, 2.27¼, Little Billy, 2.23½, Billy M., pacer, 2.19¼, Fuller, pacer, 2.15¾, St. Patrick, 2.29¾, and a large number that trot under 2.40.

Pride of England [161], dam Fanny [55] by McQueen's Rattler, he by Wilson's Rattler, he by Biggart's Rattler, by Sir Henry, he by the Garrett horse, by Leonidas imported Thoroughbred. Biggart's Rattler, sire of Joe Brown, 2.23, also sire of Warner's Rattler, sire of Mary Davis, 2.26.

Pride of England [161], grand dam by Hornpipe by imported Thoroughbred, great grand dam by Fox Hunter, he by imported coach horse.

It will be seen by the above that Pride of England is gilt-edged on both sides.

Breeders cannot possibly err in breeding their brood mares to this noble stallion, as the intensity of his breeding is in itself a certainty that his stock will partake largely of the characteristics of their sire.

TERMS OF BREEDING.—$25, one-half during the season and the other half when mare proves in foal. For more than one mare, special terms.

A PRETTY GERMAN STORY.

Of a Mother, a Young Wife and a Mysterious Golden Casket.

There is a valuable lesson in a certain little German story. The loved and petted daughter of a wealthy German noble received from her mother on her nuptial day a golden casket. In handing her the key, the mother said: "For one year, my daughter, carry this casket every day into each room of your house. Stand with it in your hands for three minutes, examine carefully the corners of the room. At the end of the year you may unlock the casket and I believe you will find I have bestowed on you the highest gift in my power." The year passed, and on the anniversary of her wedding day the daughter unlocked the treasured casket. Within, resting upon a velvet cushion, was a tiny roll of parchment. Taking it from its dainty resting place, she hastily unraveled it and beheld these words emblazoned in letters of gold: "The eye of the mistress is worth a thousand pairs of servants' hands."

The Modern Girl and the Man of the Moment.

From the modern girl's point of view, the man of the moment is not of much account. The instinct of natural selection which inclined her first of all to set him aside for his flabbiness, is strengthened now by her knowledge of his character. She knows him much better than her parents do, and in proportion as she knows him she finds less and less reason to respect him. The girls discuss him with each other and with the younger married women, and out of their discussions is arising a strong distaste for him. "I'm not going to marry a man I can't respect," "I shan't marry unless I find a man of honor with no horrid past," and "Don't offer me the mutilated remains of a man," coupled with the names of Tom Jones and Roderick Random, are the commonest expressions of it. And it is in vain for the man of the moment when he marries to hope to conceal the consequences of the past from his wife by assuming a highly refined objection to "allowing" her to read any book that would open her eyes. Manners of the new woman are perfect. She is never aggressive, never argumentative; but she understands the art of self-defence, and reads what she pleases.—From "THE MAN OF THE MOMENT," by SARAH GRAND, in North American Review for May.

Where the Bad Eggs Go.

Considerably over 1,000,000 dozen decayed and pungent eggs reach New York city every year. What becomes of them? If you ask an egg man, he will smile and say that he does not know, but that nothing is wasted. That is true. All the bad eggs are sold. Some go to the tanneries to help put an extra polish on leather. A larger number of them are sold to the great coffee roasting establishments. There the odoriferous contents are used to put an oily gloss on the roasted coffee bean. Thus eventually the egg that is cast out by the exchange jobber finds its way to the stomach of the consumer. Probably the unsuspecting consumer, judging by its looks, congratulates himself on getting a pound of coffee of extra strength and richness of aroma and flavor. Probably he has.

Birds Guided by Stars.

Did you ever venture any conjecture as to how migratory birds manage to keep up their flight in a due-north direction after night? It has been proven that on clear nights they often "wing their northern flights" in the rarified atmosphere three miles above the earth's surface. This being true, it is clear that guidance by the topography of the country is out of the question; how, then, are they able to keep their beaks pointing toward the North Pole? The scientific ornithologist comes to the rescue with the declaration that they are guided by the stars, and, in support of his opinion, cites as evidence the fact that when the stars are obscured by clouds the birds become bewildered and seek the ground.—St. Louis Republic.

Happiness.

The world is full of gladness and beauty to those who seek for it. The dreariest month of the year brings with it possibilities of enjoyment to those who have learned the secret of true happiness. To many, March, with its chilling winds and its unlovely landscapes, is the dreariest month of the year, but happiness is a thing of our own making in any month or in any clime. We may not only be happy ourselves, but enjoy that higher and better form of happiness, the giving of joy to others.

"God gives us all some small sweet way
To set the world rejoicing."

A Great Favorite.

John called on his minister one day, telling him that he was going to be married, and requesting his services on the occasion. The minister congratulated him and added—"I hope you are getting a nice thrifty housewife, who will make you comfortable." John was quite sure he was getting that. "But," said the minister, "that's not everything, John; I hope she is also a good woman."

"Oh, ay," replied John, "she's a great favorite with the Lord."

"That's well, but remember, John, the Lord puts up with a lot of people that you and I could not put up with."

The Dimple Cheeked Village Maid

may not retain her dimples and rosy cheeks "blooming with health," until she finds a good husband. A little neglect or accident may bring about some one of the many "female" diseases and "weaknesses," to which the sex is subject, and health may be forever impaired, and hopes and happiness be at an end. Thanks to Dr. Pierce, his Favorite Prescription, prepared by him for women, cures the worst cases of uterine diseases, nervousness, neuralgia, irregularities, and "weaknesses." It is a great invigorating tonic and nervine, and rapidly builds up the health and strength.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, for constipation, sick headache, biliousness, indigestion. Once taken, always in favor.

MARY had a little lamb,
But that was long ago;
She can't afford to keep it now,
Since wool has gone so low.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption, and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at M. A. Toulson's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Yet strong men fled in fright,

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE TRANSCRIPT $1.00 per year.

What is CASTORIA

It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
