COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE BALTIMORE Herald pronounces Kent county the "Garden spot of the Eastern Shore."

"UNCLE" GEORGE COLTON says that he "feels it in his bones" that Governor Brown will be renominated.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY it is claimed has six hundred avowed populists, and in Washington county they claim three thousand. How many are there in Kent? A gentleman from Still Pond says that the membership of the faith is growing in that section.

IT IS now stated that Secretary of State Walter Q. Gresham, will be the Populist candidate from Illinois for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Cullom. If this be true the political versatility and adaptability of Mr. Gresham is scarcely approached by the resources of any other American statesman.

OUR front page this week contains matter of more than usual interest, principal among which is an interesting article by Thomas D. Bowers, of Chestertown, on the constitutional points involved in the issues which resulted in the Mexican war. Mr. Bowers is a student of Hopkins University, and the paper was prepared for that institution. There will also be found a sketch of the lives of Judges J. B. Eccleston and Ezekiel F. Chambers, Kent county jurists who gave lustre to the court of appeals. A history of early Methodism in Queen Anne's, a concise history of the Stars and Stripes and other equally interesting matter is given.

THE CONSENSUS of opinion seems to be that Mr. W. Laird Henry, editor of the Cambridge Chronicle, has the best chance of securing the nomination for the short term in Congress from the First district, and Mr. P. B. Hopper, of Queen Anne's county, at present State's Attorney, the long term.

Mr. Philemon B. Hopper, at present State's Attorney of Queen Anne's, it is conceded, will carry his county at the primary election. It is also said that he will have the backing of Ex-Governor Jackson for the Congressional nomination for the long term, as Mr. Henry will have it for the short term. In fact, it is asserted that the plan of Governor Jackson and Col. John Walter Smith will be to make Mr. Hopper the nominee in order to interfere with Senator Gibson's candidacy for re-election, and place the member of the House from the same section of the district with the Senator. Besides, Mr. Hopper is Senator Gibson's cousin, and it is believed that his nomination and election would weaken Mr. Gibson, whose friends desire to place the Congressman from the lower instead of the upper section of the district. The indications are that the contest for the nomination in the First district will be the first skirmish in the Senatorial battle, and that Ex-Governor Jackson and Col. John Walter Smith will combine to nominate Mr. Hopper in order to interfere with Senator Gibson.—Baltimore News.

SENATOR GORMAN'S DEFENDERS.

The Port Tobacco Times, the Laurel Democrat, the Rockville Advocate, the Ellicott City Times, the Towson Journal and other county journals have been throwing hot shot at the Baltimore Sun for it course on the tariff and its malice toward certain Democratic leaders, and for its general attempt to rule or ruin the Democratic party. The criticisms have been richly merited and very forcibly applied.—Westminster Advocate.

The editor of the Port Tobacco Times, we believe, is the clerk of the Committee on Printing of which Senator Gorman is chairman. The editor of the Laurel Democrat, we believe, has recently been appointed to a good office in Washington. The editor of the Ellicott City Times, we believe, is a candidate for the position of postmaster at Ellicott City. The editor of the Towson Journal, we believe, is Commissioner of Immigration at a salary of $1800 a year. Now, of course we know and so does everybody else who knows these gentlemen, that these little matters have no effect whatever in shaping their course nor in basing their judgments, and yet it is a singular coincidence that these papers and their editors should be bunched together in the above paragraph. —Centreville Observer.

Editor Busteed of the Centreville Observer errs slightly. He has not brought out the full relation of the editors named to Senator Gorman and the Ring. Francis M. Cox of the Port Tobacco Times is clerk to the Senate Printing Committee; Ernest P. Baldwin was editor of the Laurel Democrat when President Cleveland appointed him First Auditor of the Treasury, and the paper is now run by his brother, and is owned principally by Senator Gorman and Naval Officer Barnes Compton; J. Emory Hill of the Ellicott City Times holds a lucrative Howard county office by the grace of Mr. Gorman's following, and his associate, J. B. Morrow, was a candidate for the Ellicott City postoffice; Col. William H. Ruby of the Towson Journal holds the place named by Editor Busteed. The editor of the Rockville Advocate, Albert J. Almoney, is postmaster of that town, and Editor William H. Vanderford of the Westminster Advocate wants to hold the same office at Westminister.—Baltimore News.

Just why our Kent county contemporary and neighbor, which has for so long been the recipient of the political crumbs which have fallen from the Gorman table, rendering in return the championship of a never-changing service, should have been left from the above list seems strange. But silence upon these points is doubtless pleasant to our local high priest of Gormanism, McKinleyism and any other ism which is most profitable.

An Alleged Rape.

On the 6th of June, Lizzie Golt, a young girl living with her parents in the upper portion of this county, made complaint before Justice J. C. Hackett against Charles Merchant, a young man living in the same neighborhood. She alleged that on the preceding day he invited her to ride with him to Coxes station. She accepted the invitation. On the road, as they were returning from the station, she alleges, he ravished her. A writ was issued for the arrest of the accused. He was found at work, cultivating corn, on the farm of his employer. When told he was wanted he asked permission to put his horse away, which was granted him. Watching his opportunity he suddenly sprang astride the horse and rode rapidly off, leaving the officer very much astonished by the swiftness of his movements. He has not been visible to the officers since his hasty flight. It was rumored here yesterday that the young girl had died of her injuries, but the report lacks confirmation.—Centreville Record.

PENINSULA ROADS.

Elkton and Southern and the Massey's Lines in Cecil County.

The engineers engaged in making surveys for the Elkton and Southern Railroad have located the line from Child's Station, on the Baltimore and Ohio Road, to Chesapeake City. The survey will be taken up at the latter place and run to Lambson's, on the Baltimore and Delaware Bay line. This week the organization of the company will be affected. As soon as this is completed rights of way will be secured and the work of constructing the road will be commenced.

A certificate of incorporation will be issued to the Peninsula Railroad Company, which company will operate the Elkton and Southern, the Baltimore and Delaware Bay, Easton and Chestertown, and such other lines that may compose the projected trunk line down the Maryland peninsula.

It has been presumed that the Baltimore and Onio is not only backing the Elkton and Southern, but will furnish capital to build it. This is a mistake, as that road will have no pecuniary interest in the Elkton and Southern, but will indorse the enterprise and enter into certain traffic contracts that will be advantageous to both corporations.

But a few days remain of the ninety days in which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, by provisions of the bill passed by the last session of the Maryland Legislature, were to commence the construction of the Elkton, Middletown and Massey's Railroad. For the past several weeks surveyors have been actively at work locating a permanent line and making a plot of Elkton. The new line will parallel the main tracks of the Pennsylvania from Elkton Station north for a short distance, then curving east and south, will pass through East Elkton, crossing Main street near the property of Reuben E. Jamar, making at that point a cut of about twenty feet. It will then run in the most direct line possible to a point on the Delaware and Chesapeake canal within a quarter of a mile of Chesapeake City, thence to a point near St. Augustine, where the line will divide, one branch going to Middletown and the other to Massey's. Agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company during the past few days have been in conference with property-owners along the route of the proposed line, asking for valuations on property.

Mr. W. H. Bosley, president of the Queen Anne's Railroad, has purchased for cash the Mitchell farm of 179 acres, at Queenstown, for $11,582. It is proposed to construct terminal facilities for the railroad on this property, the location of which makes it especially valuable, being situated directly on navigable water and only two hours by boat to Baltimore. This purchase indicates the determination of the directors to build the road and strengthens the expectations of the many residents of this section, who hope for a speedy consummation of the scheme.

THE LUSCIOUS PEACH.

Other Testimony on That Point—Bugs Are Getting in Their Fatal Work.

A Mail reporter tackled several big peach growers Tuesday, and found that they hope the teeth of some of our people will yet land on lots of luscious fruit.

The first man caught was Mr. J. M. Stover, a veritable peach king, who was trying to get out of the fierce sun. He said that he would have a fair lot on the North Mountain and few on the South. A generous yield on the Winchester orchard, and that he would be able to place several thousands of bushels of the fine fruit in reach of the eager. He also stated that the circulio was causing a big drop in the Peach Belt. The big crop last year helped the ravages of that bug. He was asked about the little flat tomato peach shown by McCammon & Dillon, and said that it was the Pinto, a peach that would not grow here. The seed is as round as a marble.

Mr. J. P. Rahauser, the biggest grower in the valley, whose orchards are near Greencastle, said that he would have 2,000 bushels of Heath Clings and 2,000 bushels of Salways. He and his brother have 30,000 trees in that orchard. This year he expects to have some 6,000 bushels altogether. His Carroll's Late are ruined, and several other varieties have borne badly.

One of the smaller growers near this city, whose peaches were not injured, says that he will have some 1,500 bushels, but doesn't want his name mentioned for fear of a rush.

As may be seen there will be a few peaches on sale, but there will be no glut, as all the big orchards of the South Mountain will not be bearing this year.—Hagerstown Mail.

The Mail represents the great Western Maryland mountain peach Belt, and its information is of peculiar interest to Eastern Shore peach growers.

Reports from California that the heavy frost of April 16 killed a large part of the plum, prune, peach and pear crops near Kelseyville. At Newcastle the fruit crop will be a good average.

Messrs. George W. Davis, C. H. Price, John Leigh, Peter Taylor, W. G. Rasin and several others in the vicinity of Still Pond, are reported as being among the fortunate peach growers, and have a fair crop.

THE BASE-BALL FIELD.

A Walk-over for the W. C's—Other Games.

The Federalsburg base-ball team, flushed with victories galore, and thirsting for the scalp of the Washington College club, drove to Chestertown last Saturday to give the college boys a few points. The game was called about 3.45 P. M., with Federalsburg at the bat. The first man up, by some hook or crook, managed to hit the ball, but was easily retired at first. The next man struck out; the third man got first by accidentally hitting the ball and a low throw by Polk to first. This man got as far as second, but died there, the batter following striking out. After the first inning it was almost a procession of one, two, three order. Only four men succeeded in getting on the bases, and two of them reached second. Burris had them at his mercy, striking out 20 men. He did not exert himself, and had he done so there is no doubt but that he could have retired every man on strikes. The college boys rolled up 5 runs in the early part of the contest and feeling confident that these were enough to win the game, made no effort to add to the score. The game was devoid of all interest. Even the college rooters could not get up enthusiasm enough to give a yell. With a little care the W. C. boys could have snowed the Caroliners under with runs. Seven of the visitors wanted to try again on Monday, but two of the nine were compelled to return home. They were plucky enough to believe they could beat the collegians after a second facing of Burris. Poor deluded creatures! To do them justice they are above the average country team, but are far outclassed by W. C's aggregation. Had the home team been a little more enthusiastic and hit the ball oftener, who can say what "might have been." The visitors gave every evidence of being easily rattled. The score was 5 to 0. One hit was all the "Burgers" could get and the indifference of Burris gave them that.

OLD AND YOUNG MEN PLAY.

The "Old" men of Kennedyville played a game on Saturday against the young men and met a Waterloo to the tune of 5 to 33 in favor of the young men. The players took position as follows:

KINDERGARTEN COMMENCEMENT.

The Scholastic Year Closed With an Enjoyable Programme.

The commencement exercises of the Kindergarten School of Miss Idel Baker and Miss Susie Roberts, were held in Stam's Hall, on Thursday evening last, and were of a most enjoyable character. The programme was opened with the dainty operetta, "Sing a Song of Six-pence," with Miss Annie Stam as king, Miss Lillian Stam as queen, quaint little Joie Easley as the maid whose nose was so mercilessly plucked by the offending blackbird, impersonated by Miss Jennie Hines, and Messrs. Thomas Eliason and Philip Easley, as the gallant heralds of the occasion, was splendidly rendered and fully enjoyed by the very large audience. Master George Compton's pretty recitation, "Piggie Wig" was finely rendered, while dainty little Louisa Urie as Jack Frost, was as pretty as the proverbial frost crystals of crisp cold winter. The duet "Lion du Bal" by Misses Irma Eliason and Anna Smith, was finely rendered. In the Kindergarten Calendar, a number of charming little workers represented the months as "Little leaves." "The Courtin'," by James Russell Lowell, was given as a beautiful tableau. Hulda was impersonated by Miss Louise Stam; Zekle by Master John Eliason and the elocutionist by Miss Irma Eliason. The Delsarte exercises were simply inimitable in their beauty and style. The graceful Greek costumes added greatly to the grace and ease of movement of the young ladies. The duet, "Sylvia" by Misses Anna and Louise Stam was finely rendered, and was followed by an essay on Alexander Pope by Miss Annie Stam. The essay was one of more than ordinary literary merit, and gave evidence of much research and care in its preparation, as well as of much natural ability possessed by the young writer. The operetta, "Queen Flora" was possibly the crowning feature of the evening. Miss Anna Smith, as Stella, did charmingly, and her grace was a subject of general comment and approval. Miss Mary Rogers also did splendidly. The other participants were accorded the enthusiastic approval of the audience upon the splendid rendition of their parts which were as follows: Lily Chorus, Annie and Louise Stam, Irma Eliason; Daisies, Joie Easley, Lillian Stam, Ethe Ringgold; Bees, Philip Easley, Thos. Eliason, George Compton; Woodland Fairies, Susie Dunbracco, Jennie Hines, Rebecca Eliason; Soloists, Mary Rogers, Rebecca Eliason, Philip Easley; Butterfly, Louisa Urie. Both Miss Baker and Miss Roberts are to be congratulated up on their brilliant success.

FROM ROCK HALL.

Business And Pleasure go Hand in Hand at the Bay Shore.

Peaches are scarce, times are hard and harvest is on, but business and pleasure go hand in hand with our people.

A delightful cycle party composed of Miss Maggie Hersch, Miss Fannie Sappington, Mr. and Mrs. William Larrimore, Mr. Harry Bogle and Mr. F. Stevens, spent one day last week at Tolchester, and similar social excursions are far from rare.

Miss Allie Sappington has joined the ranks of the Rock Hall lady cyclers, and it is expected will make one of our most expert bicyclists.

Why should not a Rock Hall fisherman laugh at hard times, when one man in three days can catch 90 dozen crabs, and sell them at from 25 to 60 cents per dozen? This was done last week in Grey's Inn Creek.

All are delighted to learn of the rapid convalescence of Mr. William Krusen, the popular and ever genial clerk in the store of Mr. R. S. Crew. It is expected that he will soon be as good as new again.

Messrs. Joshua and John Thomas have joined the ever-increasing ranks of the R. H. C. C., and have new wheels.

Capt. George T. Sewell had his foot painfully mashed last week, but the injury is much better at this writing.

The Rock Hall M. E. Sunday School celebrated Children's Day by giving a most delightful programme. The church was resplendent in its new suit of paint and other improvements, and banks of beautiful flowers and evergreens added much to its attractiveness. The music by the choir was more than unusually impressive and sweet. Mr. J. A. Greenwood led in prayer, and was followed by Miss Rhoda Downey in a splendid address. After other interesting speeches and choruses Miss Hope Greenwood gave a charming recitation, "Christ is Love." Very pretty recitations were also given by Misses Nannie Coleman, Nettie Hersch and Clara Middleton. The smaller children did beautifully in their speeches and dialogues. Rev. Edward Davis delivered a strong address, emphasizing the relation of great importance which the education of young men bears to the success of the future. The exercises were delightful throughout, and superintendent, teachers and children, all are alike to be congratulated upon their splendid work.

Mr. Ben. Krusen has been acceptably taking the place of his brother, Mr. William Krusen, in the store of Mr. Crew.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Haskell and children, and Mrs. Carson have been the guests of Mrs. C. C. Wood. X.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

An Interesting Budget from the First District.

Children's Day was observed in the M. E. Church here, last Sunday. In the morning Rev. G. W. Burke preached a very interesting sermon to the young people, and in the evening the Sunday school celebrated its usual Children's Day exercises. The programme was fittingly gotten up and well rendered. Every one, from the oldest to the youngest in the infant school, rendered his and her parts perfectly. The chancel was beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers, and notwithstanding the intense heat and threatening appearance of the weather the church was densely packed with an interested congregation. The collection for the Children's Day offering amounted to twenty dollars.

The Millington base-ball team was somewhat disappointed last Saturday afternoon. The Locust Grove team sent them a challenge to play them here, which was accepted. They waited until after three o'clock and the visitors failing to put in an appearance a game was played between themselves and other citizens of the town, and some amusing plays were made.

Mr. C. H. Jones has been very ill, threatened with blood poisoning, but is reported somewhat better.

Messrs. W. E. Thomas and Harry Hendrickson are home from Washington College for the summer vacation.

Mrs. Mollie Marks and children, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. J. W. Duling.

Mr. W. H. Price, of the firm of Roberts & Andrews, commission merchants, Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his family in town. Y.

FROM STILL SPOND.

Items From One of Kent's Agricultural Edens.

The Still Pond creamery increased in receipts of milk from 22,000 pounds the previous month to 42,000 lbs. last month. This is an enterprise which should and must be supported to be kept up. Bring your milk to Still Pond.

A call was made to all farmers interested in threshing and freighting grain to meet in Still Pond last Saturday. The meeting was a failure, being very poorly attended, barely a half dozen men being present.

The festival held by the ladies of the Still Pond M. E. Church, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday was a success, about $45 being cleared.

The majority of the farmers in this vicinity began cutting wheat on Monday and Tuesday. The prospect for a large yield is generally considered good.

Mr. John Johnston, formerly of this place, but now with B. W. Andrews & Co., the large grocery house of Philadelphia, has sold his pretty village property to Mr. Charles Hague for $1000.

Mr. Samuel Busick and family moved to Baltimore this week. Mr. Busick has secured a very good position in the city, which is much more desirable than anything here. We wish him success, but regret to lose a useful man and a good citizen.

Mr. George W. Harper left for New York last Saturday to fill an important position with the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, of which Mr. E. B. Harper, a brother, is president. By the departure of Mr. Harper Still Pond has lost one of its most valuable and enterprising citizens; a man who was active and interested in all enterprises to help Still Pond; kind and liberal spirited. Mr. Harper was a director in the hall company, of the cemetery company, trustee of the public school, a member of the official board of the M E. Church, and filled other minor positions. Mr. Wm. Medders succeeds Mr. Harper in business, and his family will remain at his beautiful village residence during the summer. We wish Mr Harper all possible success.

Our enterprising postmaster, Mr. Parr, keeps us supplied with the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore daily newspapers, which is very handy for all those who are not regular subscribers.

Capt. J. C. Schofield has returned from a trip to Deal's Island, the summer place of Mr. A. W. Woodall, of Baltimore.

Miss Berdie Jump, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at her mother's country residence near Still Pond.

Miss Bessie Cannon, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Covington.

Mr. Harry Thomas, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mr. Howard Turner on Sunday.

Mr. Horace Michael, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mr. Samuel Roseberry, Jr., of Still Pond.

Miss Matilda Sykes, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, at Betterton.

Miss Mamie Rasin, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents at Betterton.

Miss Maude Jump, of Baltimore, has been visiting friends in Still Pond.

Miss Pennington, of Kennedyville, has been visiting friends in Still Pond.

Miss Gulie Parrott has been visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Margaret Harper has been visiting in the lower part of the county.

Mr. Hunter Davis has returned after having visited relatives in Virginia.

A LANDMARK.

In traveling through the country, one becomes accustomed to certain landmarks that recall to him familiar scenes in the locality he may be in. This term is often applied to mountains, streams or various other objects. It is also often applied to business houses that have been of long standing. Such is the house of J. K. B. Emory, which was established in 1850, at Baltimore, Md. Mr. Emory being a Marylander by birth, was raised on what is known as the Eastern Shore, locating at Baltimore forty-three years ago, and founded the business which he still continues to push with the vigor of a beginner. While the business was modest in the beginning, it has by steady growth become one of large dimensions, representing the steamboat lines plying between the Eastern Shore and the city, and the sale of grain and other products carried by them, his facilities for this purpose being ample, having a large warehouse with water front for steamers to land their freight. Mr. Emory is also doing a large wholesale business in hay arriving by rail from the West. The trade is not only extensive in the city, but extends to adjacent points, calling for increased receipts, which they solicit the shippers of the country to forward, guaranteeing them the full market price for whatever may be received, especially the higher grades.

The above is taken from the "Hay Trade Journal of New York, showing that this firm is becoming well-known abroad as well as at home. Mr. H. M. Brown, whose office is on Court street, Chestertown, has represented Messrs. Emory & Co., in the grain business for a number of years and by care, promptness and cash settlements, has increased their business from year to year and expects to do a larger trade this season in consignments and purchases of grain than ever before. Their shipments have been largely by vessels in the past, but in future they will ship by railroad, where more convenient for delivery. Mr. Brown was associated several years with the largest exporting grain firm of Baltimore which gave him valuable experience in the grain business and the necessary education in judging and grading wheat and corn according to its market value. He has gradually established a large trade in consignments of grain from this neighborhood, and now handles the grain of many of the largest land-owners and grain-growers of Kent county.

OFFICE OF THE

Local Board of Health.

CHESTERTOWN, May 26, 1894.

The frequent occurrence of cases of Small Pox in Baltimore city within the past few weeks, as well as at various points throughout the country, especially in the counties of Pennsylvania contiguous to Maryland, is just cause for anxiety.

The secretary of the State Board of Health has sent to this board a circular making an appeal to the executive officer of this board to see that every effort shall be made to bring before the people the necessity of, and the safety to be secured by vaccination and re-vaccination.

The frequent insertion of virus is the only way by which we may positively learn whether the party is still immune.

Parents and guardians, and all others, who have children under their charge, should see to it that they are protected.

Adults who have not been vaccinated within the last few years should not neglect this precaution.

The wandering, homeless, irresponsible tramp has brought the contagion to Baltimore recently. The same may occur here.

The State Board of Health urges the school commissioners to call the attention of teachers and parents to the vaccination clause of the school law.

Order of Publication.

Maryland State Grange, order of Patrons of Husbandry,

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland. In Equity.

THE OBJECT of this bill is to obtain a decree of court setting aside a deed of trust from Charles W. Stephens to Edward N. Matthews, so that the real estate may be sold under the direction of the court to pay a judgment due the complainant in this cause, and the other creditors of the said Charles W. Stephens.

The bill states that heretofore this complainant sued out of this court on the law side thereof a writ of attachment against Charles W. Stephens, a non-resident, to secure a certain debt due complainant, and that on the 16th day of October, 1893, a judgment of condemnation against certain lands in Kent county, was entered in the said court for the sum of $107.20.

The bill further states that the complainant has endeavored to collect its judgment, but was prevented from doing so by the fact that on the 15th day of November, 1892, the said Charles W. Stephens did make a deed of trust to one Edward N. Matthews, conveying all the land levied upon under the said attachment against which said judgment is held, and that the said deed is in fraud of the rights of the complainant and of the other creditors of said Charles W. Stephens, who were such at the time of its execution.

The bill further states that the names of the children of the said Charles W. Stephens are Cora E. Stephens, Harry E. Stephens and Mary Helen Stephens, all of whom are infants, and that each of them and the said Charles W. Stephens are non-residents of the State of Maryland, and that the said Edward N. Matthews resides in the city of Baltimore.

It is thereupon ordered this 5th day of June A. D., 1894, that the Maryland State Grange Order of Patrons of Husbandry, the complainant in this cause, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 10th day of July next, give notice to Charles W. Stephens, Cora E. Stephens, Harry E. Stephens and Mary Helen Stephens, the non-resident defendants in this cause, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of August next, to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
