4th The last will & testament of Lawrence Starkey Esq.

These presents witnesse that I Lawrence Starchy Esq being in perfect sence & memory yett extreame sicke & weake in body Doe by this my last will & testament give into the hands of my well beloved friend Leigh Crouch all the personall estate in whatsoever kind belonging onto me the said Lawrence Starchy.

And further it is my will that the said Leigh Crouch after payment of my debts shall dispose of the said estate to such pious vsesse as he shall thinke fitt as witnesse my hand this 29 of January 1656

Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of vs

Lawrence Starchy

Henry Darnell
George Thompson
William Boarman

Novem 20th Examined May 30th 1659

Cecilius absolute Lord & proprietary of the Province of Maryland & foraine &c: to Job Randler & James Lindsey Gentleman there are to require you or either of you to sue for & examine witnesses upon oath in a Cause depending betweene William Boarman & Capt William Stone concerneing land at Nangeny & returne the deposition sealed up into the Secretarys office by the 20th of Novembr next Witnesse

Josias Fendall

Robert Clarke Surveyr Generall of this Province maketh oath that he the said Clarke did Survey a tract of land containe ing one hundred three lyeing upon Nangeny Creeke by lawfull warrant from Thomas Hatton late secretary of this Province be for that other tract of land by him Surveyed for Capt William Stone late Governr of this Province upon the said Creeke adjoyneing to the said Boarmans land. May 31st 1659

Robert Clarke

Sworne in open Court

Philip Calvert

Novem 8 24 June the first 1659

Richard Willan aged 35 or thereabouts being deposed saith that in the yeare 1655 he & James Lindsey spake to Mr Thomas Copley for a parcell of land at Mattapany called by the name of Michells neeke where Mr Collett now lives his answer was that he could not for he had disposed of it to Thomas Mathews & it was best for vs to goe to him about it but the said Thomas did refuse to lett vs have it & further he deposeth not.

Richard Willan

Jurat: Coram me

Philip Calvert

Pot: June the first 1659.

James Lindsey aged 29 or thereabouts being deposed saith that in the yeare 1655 he & Richard Willan went to Mr Copley to gett peece of land [illegible] & he bid vs goe to Thomas Mathews for it was his. [illegible] while after I went to Thomas Mathews & tould him he might as well have lett vs have had it for there was one there getting a warrant [illegible] for it, his answer was that he did not doubt hereafter but to have his land againe: & further he saith not.

James Lindsey

Jurat coram me

Philip Calvert

Pot: This Indenture made in the yeare of our Lord God 1659 betweene William Ellonhead gent of the one part and John Anderton gt of the other party witnesseth that the said William Ellonhead for diverse good causes & considerations him thereunto moueing & for full satisfaction in hand received at and before the ensealing hereof & delivery of these presents hath granted demised & to farme letten onto the said John Anderton his heires Executors or assignes all that parcell of land wherein I now dwell & have builded & cleared my plantation with all fencing & the appurtenances thereto belonging as also the Island & the Rich Neck and a neck called Hogge Neck the little Island & the Marsh thereto belonging onto the said Land with a line run from John Hackfall's house south east onto the Bay To Have & to hold the said tenement of land demised or mentioned to be demised & every part or parcell thereof be it more or lesse onto the said John Anderton his wife other heires lawfully begotten of her body from the [illegible] day of the Nativity of our Saviour last past for the terme of [illegible] yeares then ensueing & yeerely thereupon yeerely during the said terme of Ninety nine yeares onto the said William Ellonhead his heires Executors Administrators or assignes three barrels of sound Indian Corne to be payed at the feast of the Nativity of our Saviour or within four [illegible] the said Corne being lawfully [illegible] when it shall be lawfull [illegible] the said William Ellonhead his heires executors Administrators & assignes [illegible] his onwards & their former estates for all & any thing to the contrary aforesaid. And the said John Anderton is to hould the same with all issues profits Hunting Fowling water Course Egresse & Regresse of Cattle & things or any other goods within the said Manor In witnesse whereof I have set my hand & seale the day & yeare above written

William Ellonhead

Signed & sealed in the presence of
John Anketill John Peira his Marke Francis Anketill