In the Name of God Amen the fourteenth day of September 1685

I John Lumbroso of Nanjemy of the Province of Maryland being in perfect sound health of memory & calling to mind the transitoriness of all sublunary things doe make & declare this to be my last Will & Testament in manner & forme following, revoking & nullifying by these presents all & every Testament & Testaments Will or Wills heretofore by me made & declared either by word or writing & this only to be & other to be taken for my absolute last Will & Testament.

Imprimis I bequeath my soule to Almighty God assuredly believeing that he will in mercy look upon it & restore it to eternall life & my body to the Earth to be buried in Christian & Churchlike manner that worldly estate wherewith it pleased God to bless me with my will & desire shall be managed as it is distributed as followeth

Firstly I will & desire that all my just debts be truly & honestly paid & satisfied to my sister Elizabeth Lumbroso my dearly beloved wife & my sole Executrix of all my estate both real & personall & of these other houses & tenements & or & fifteen shillings sterling all my estate both real & personall & twoe yards after my decease shall be sold to Mr Richard Cornish & all other Cabbins & plantations shall then pounds of good & well conditioned tobacco & cask to be delivered to my dearly beloved sister Rebecca Lumbroso & three years after yt shall be delivered quantity of fourteen pounds of good & well conditioned tobacco & cask to be delivered to my aforesaid loving sister Rebecca Lumbroso

3 Ly I will & bequeath my dearly beloved friend Edward Richardson fifty acres of land lying in Nanjemy River called Lumbroso's disposing & disposed to Richard Cornish on the one side & Roger Darke on the other side

4 Ly My wife shall not be knowledge for debts to be my Executrix & she will not probate take notice of this my Will & testament & all my plantation & all my land appertaining to it shall be sold free only reserving her Widowhood during her life & yt tobacco it is sold for to be spent & bestowed to my sister Rebecca Lumbroso

5 Ly I do desire & request Mr Henry Adams of Portobacco & Mr Luke Gardner of St Clements Bay both