R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

IT IS NOW JUDGE RUSSUM, Governor Lowndes having conferred the distinguished honor of an appointment to be chief judge of the second judicial circuit in place of Judge Robinson, deceased, on Tuesday, on the Caroline lawyer.

JUDGE WICKES has overruled the petition of the Cecil county Democrats, praying that the petition of the Republicans asking a recount be dismissed. A recount will, therefore, be ordered, and the court has named Joshua P. McCay as special examiner.

A HEARING of arguments in the matter of the demurrers filed by John D. Urie, Esq., to the Democratic petitions asking a recount of the ballots cast at the November election, was postponed indefinitely by Judge Joseph A. Wickes yesterday.

MUCH LIVE LOCAL AND EDITORIAL MATTER and a number of interesting communications have been forced out of this issue, in order that a full account of the testimony in the Pearce-Westcott Senatorial contest might be given. An effort has been made to cull from the great mass of testimony produced, only facts brought out as evidence, without a desire to prejudice the cause of either party. Space has necessitated the reproduction of only the more important points, and in judging of which facts were most vital to the disproving or establishing of the point at issue, every care has been exercised to cite only facts, and to give these facts in a fair and impartial manner. Only because of the deep and general interest in the matter, is so much space given to the evidence to the exclusion of interesting general news.

WELLINGTON IS SENATOR.

Charles H. Gibson's Successor in United States Senate.

THE DECIDING BALLOT.

The great United States Senatorial fight virtually closed in caucus on Tuesday night when Mr. Wellington received the caucus election as United States senator of his party. Mr. Westcott and his friends after stubbornly contesting every issue, finally went into caucus and Mr. Westcott moved that Wellington's election be made unanimous, which was done. A dispatch to the TRANSCRIPT last night was as follows:

The eighth ballot for a Senator to succeed Gibson was taken at noon to-day, and resulted as follows: Wellington, Senate, 9; House, 54. Total, 63. Goldsborough, Senate, 1. Total, 1. Smith, Senate, 10; House, 13. Total, 23. Pattison, Senate, 3; House, 4. Total, 7. Ellegood, House, 1. Total vote, 95. This being a majority of the members of the joint assembly present for Mr. Geo. L. Wellington, Speaker Mudd thereupon declared Mr. Welling duly elected Senator. There were 101 members of the joint assembly present. A number of delegates kept out of the chamber until after the vote had been taken. These included the whole Carroll county delegation. Those who asked to be excused from voting were Cheston, of Anne Arundel; Barber, of Talbot; White, of Cecil; Wingate and Hopkins, of Dorchester. Senator Strobridge was absent, but was here last night working hard for Wellington. Other Republican absentees were Cole, of Anne Arundel; Dodson and Hall, of Talbot; Bradley, of Dorchester, Schilling, of Baltimore city, and Smith, Gauter, Cover and Birnie, of Carroll.

On Tuesday the sixth and seventh ballots were taken, which resulted as follows:

THE ROCK HALL TONGERS AROUSED.

United For Action Against Any Legislation Having a Tendency to Abridge or Impair Their Rights.

In response to call made by chairman Willson, of the Oystermen's Association, Downey's Hall was packed with oystermen and others directly interested in the oyster industry of Kent, on Saturday night last. Capt J. B. Willson, called the meeting to order, and stated that the object of the call was to elect officers for 1896, or to disband as an organization in favor of the new association recently instituted. Both of the organizations were present. Capt. C. R. Kerr, a member of the old body, moved that "the Association instituted Jan., 1894, do now disband, and that the membership transfer their names to the roster of the Oysterman's Protective Union, which motion prevailed unanimously. Capt. Henry Urie, chairman of the O. P. U. then assumed the chair, and ordered the minutes of the last meeting to be read. After the performance of that duty by Mr. M. M. Laslin, in the absence of the secretary, V. W. Kendall, Mr. George E. Leary was called upon to address the meeting, who responded in part, as follows: Mr. Chairman and gentlemen: For some weeks past we have been earnestly endeavoring to make the Union a success, but our interests have been very much jeopardized, owing to the fact that an organization of this kind was already in existance when this one was started, and many of our people would not come and go with us. Now happily, order has been brought out of chaos, by the consolidation of the two bodies, and there is hope of getting together, and so legislate, as to bring our interests properly before the law-makers now in session at Annapolis, ere it is too late for the preservation of our oyster tonging grounds, if, indeed, we are not already too late.

I was in Baltimore a few days ago, and in conversation with some of the most prominent legislators, among them, Charley Nash, I pleaded with them, with all the earnestness and power at my command, for the retention of our tonging ground, whereupon, Mr. Nash showed me a chart, which was drawn up as a compromise measure for the establishment of the proposed new lines for the guidance of dredgers, and as well as I can remember, the lines for this section of the bay are as follows: beginning eastward of Love Point light house, thence to a point between the "Wood" and "Wickes" farms, on East Neck Island thence up the shore to a point about the D. A. Smith farm, thence to a point one-half mile inside of Swan Point buoy, thence to Bay Neck. Now, gentlemen, you know what those lines mean to us. It means the taking from us of many acres of valuable tonging grounds, * * * implore you to throw off all bickerings and discord, rally to the support of your interests and the wellfare of your homes and those dependent upon you * * * There should be 500 names on the roster of this Union at this time, and every one of them would be directly interested in the oyster industry too. Just see what a power those 500 men could be,—say $1.00 from each, would be $500; enough to secure the services of a Pinkney White, or any other man in the State equally as good, to champion our cause before the Legislature.

At the close of Mr. Leary's remarks, he was loudly applauded. The Union then proceeded to the business of the evening.

The committee on by-laws previously appointed, reported a code for the government of the organization, which, after being amended, were ordered approved. After a few other matters were disposed of an adjournment was had until next Saturday night.

Our people have been slow to realize the danger we are subject to, but there now seems to be a general awakening, and no abatement will be made until the last effort available shall be made to preserve our rights.

Your correspondent asked several gentlemen present at the oystermen's meeting what legislation, in their opinion, was most needed in the interests of the oyster beds. The following replies were made: Mr. F. T. Hogans, Sr., "I don't see that any legislation is at all necessary. The law as it stands is as good as can be made for the protection of the beds." Capt. Wm. T. George, "No further legislation is needed. Let the law as it now stands be rigidly enforced, and our oyster beds will be all right." J. R. Ryan, "Any further legislation in the interests of the oyster beds is entirely unnecessary, except, perhaps, I think it would be a good idea to prohibit oystering inside of Swan Creek bar for the period of two years. Almost the entire body of water mentioned is a perfect maze of oyster beds that are almost extinct, but if allowed two years rest would recuperate and become a mine of wealth, and in the meantime our deep water oystermen would gladly deposit several days catch at the close of season, of the inferior oysters of Swan Point, Wickes' Beach and other outside bars, into the prohibited waters as plants. Of course I would not place a bar to the privilege of a half dozen old men who are physically unable to oyster outside in the strong current, to use the inside bars. I also think that Chester river should be laid off into districts, and prohibit taking oysters from one of them alternately for two or more years each."

Several others replied that the doing away with patent tongs would be a great relief to the beds, as in their opinion the deep-water tongs destroyed the seed necessary for the sustenance of the shoal water bar.

BON JOUR.

Messrs. George E. Leary, Capt. C. B. Willson and John E. Beck were appointed a committee on legislation.

TRIBUTES OF RESPECT

To George W. Davis and Judge John M. Robinson.

The funeral, on Friday last, of Mr. George W. Davis, was one of the largest which has taken place in the county in a number of years. Representative citizens from every section of the county were present. In spite of the cold, disagreeable weather, fifty teams followed the remains to the cemetery, and it were safe to say that between one hundred and a hundred and twenty-five carriages were at the house. Every business place in Still Pond was closed during the interment in respect to the occasion, and from the flag-staff on Hopewell school house, Miss Sopha Miller, teacher, and other school buildings in the county, the flag was at half-mast during the day in honor of the deceased member of the county school board. The great outpouring of friends to pay the last tribute of respect, the general expressions of respect, and the action of the business community were all eloquent tributes to the memory of the Christian gentleman and respected citizen. The pall-bearers were: H. L. Davis and H. D. Roberts, of Middletown; George Davis, of Odessa; Eugene Davis, Smyrna; Harry Hendrickson and Walter H. Davis, of Still Pond, all nephews of the deceased.

Resolutions of respect to George W. Davis, passed by the Kent County School Board:

WHEREAS, since the last meeting of the Board death has laid his hand upon our colleague George W. Davis, and the commissioners desire to give expression to their sorrow, and to place on record their high esteem for their late associate. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Davis the schools have sustained the loss of a faithful, efficient and conscientious county school official; and the Board has lost a valued and highly cherished associate.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved wife, family and friends.

Resolved, That in testimony of his worth, and as an expression of our friendship we direct these resolutions to be entered upon the journal of proceedings, to be published in the TRANSCRIPT and Kent News, and a copy sent to the widow of the deceased.

R. W. JONES,
CORNELIUS J. SCOTT.

By order of the Board.
E. F. PERINS, SEC.

The death of no public man in the State, would have been received with such universal expressions of profound regret in this community as was that of Chief Judge John M. Robinson. All, without respect to creed or politics, consider the loss of the splendid personality of Judge Robinson from the bench as a public calamity. The members of the Kent county bar met on Tuesday and passed the following expressive resolutions of respect:

At a meeting of the members of the bar of the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, Eben F. Perkins, Esq., was called to the chair and Hope H. Barroll, Esq. was chosen Secretary. The following resolutions were unaninously adopted, and were ordered to be laid before the Court by Eben F. Perkins, Esq., chairman, when the January term of said Court shall convene:

WHEREAS, the members of the Bar of Kent County have assembled to give expression to their feelings upon the death of Honorable John M. Robinson, the late Chief Justice of Maryland; Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Justice Robinson the people of the State, the Judiciary of Maryland, the bar of Kent county and the bars of the several counties of the State have lost a faithful, learned and highly esteemed Judge and jurist;

Resolved, That as presiding Judge of our Judicial Circuit we have especial cause to lament his death.

Resolved, That from constant official intercourse it gives us great pleasure to testify to his official urbanity, his fitness, his readiness and his judicial dignity;

Resolved, That we will cherish his memory.

Resolved, That the Court be requested to have these resolutions entered upon the minutes, that a copy be sent to the family of the late justice, and that the County papers be requested to publish them. It was further ordered that a copy of the resolutions and of such action as the court shall see proper to take in reference to the death of the late Chief Justice John M. Robinson shall be communicated to his family by the secretary.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Secretary.

The resolutions were laid before the court yesterday, and James A. Pearce made eloquent remarks eulogistic of the dead Chief Justice.

The directors of the Queen Anne's National Bank, of Centreville, on Tuesday of last week, at almost the exact time of Judge Robinson's death, unconscious of his illness, re-elected him president of that institution. Judge Robinson was elected president of the bank several months ago, to succeed Hon. Thomas J. Keating. The bank was draped in mourning on Tuesday. The court room will be draped at the January non-jury term.

College Notes.

The semi-annual examinations begin Feb. 3d, being a week later than usual. The schedule of dates is now being considered by a committee of the faculty.

The resignation of Mr. E. G. Davis, of Wicomico county has been received and accepted. Ill health is stated as the cause. It is presumed that the court will appoint a successor before the beginning of the new term. Mr. Davis, while at college, took a high stand in his class, and his withdrawal is regretted by faculty and students.

The medal awarded Mr. E. R. McDorman at the recent inter-society debate, will be presented to him next Saturday night, when the two societies will hold a joint meeting.

It is hoped that the manager of the base-ball team will soon book dates with some of the leading teams of the State. Many colleges have already their full complement of games.

A bill is being drafted for presentment to the Legislature, in behalf of a normal department for the college. It is desired that graduates of this department may have all the privileges accorded by the State Normal of Baltimore.

FROM FAIRLEE.

EDS. TRANSCRIPT:—The Fairlee creamery will pay next Wednesday to patrons for milk for month of January $1.10. The largest payment to any one person per month at any time has been $73.

Mr. Frank Gilpin had stolen from his carriage on last Saturday night, at one of the stores, five pounds of butter, and a new blanket worth $6. He does not care very much for the butter, but would be pleased to have the blanket returned. Petty thieving is something unusual for Fairlee.

Miss Zadie Lee, daughter of Mr. Vincent Lee, near the village, gives a birthday party this Monday evening. Many of her young friends are invited.

The sociable for the week will be held at Mrs. Ada Dwyer's, in the Lamb house near the church, on Friday evening. These gatherings are largely attended and the entertainment provided hugely enjoyed by all participants.

Quite a number of relatives and friends spent the day last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gears, at their home at "New Design." Pastor Merritt and wife were among the invited guests. Mr. H. Clay Usilton and family, Mr. Perry Gears and daughter, Mrs. Sheets, of Worton, Mr. James Middleton, Miss Belle Janney. Miss Priscilla Clarage and her sister, Mrs. Bolden, of Baltimore, were also there. The two latter named ladies are remarkable for their conversational powers. They are members of Dr. Wharton's church, and are enthusiastic in his praise. They think that to him more than to any other one man may be attributed the result of the municipal election in the city of Baltimore. After a sumptuous dinner given by our host and hostess, the order of the day was a baptismal service. Five children and one young lady, Miss Janney, were the recipients of the ordinance.

Mr. Dixie Smyth, who went on a trip a week ago to Baltimore, Washington and Annapolis, has not yet returned.

Miss Laura Greenwood and Miss Della Lee are visiting the Misses Carrie and Minnie Smyth, of this place.

About fifty persons were skating on Fairlee mill pond last Saturday.

EAST END.

Kennedyville News.

The M. P. Sunday school elected officers on last Sabbath morning, the result being as follows: Superintendent, Wm. T. Hague; assistant superintendent, Wm. S. Hurlock; treasurer, Mrs. M. E. Lane; secretary, Miss Nettie Whitely; assistant secretary, Miss Jennie Meredith; librarians, Norman Faulkner and Stephen Newcomb; organists, Miss Annie Shafer and Miss Maggie Seney. After the election of officers the pastor gave a very interesting talk regarding his experience in Sunday school work, and encouraging the school for a more active work in the future.

Miss Lida Price, of Millington, is visiting Mrs. Maggie Webb.

Mr. Lawrence Stevens and wife spent Sunday at the parsonage.

Mr. T. Shafer spent part of the past week in Philadelphia.

Messrs. Shafer & Davies paid $1.05 per 100 lbs. for milk for the month of December.

An epidemic of measles has prevailed in this community during the past three or four weeks. Both old and young have been attacked by the disease.

Skating was much enjoyed during the late freeze, and, indeed, became quite a fascination, but now the skates are beginning to get rusty.

The young people's class meets on Wednesday evening of each week, and has taken up the Sunday school lessons as a course of study, which proves very profitable to Sunday school workers.

Don't forget the supper and festival on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Two nights only.

JUNO.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Hallie R. Goodin, plaintiff, vs.
William Y. Baker, J. Houston Baker and other defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity

No. 1168.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate situated in Kent county, Maryland, for the payment of the debts of M. Louisa Houston, late of Kent county, deceased.

The bill states, First—That M. Louisa Houston departed this life in the month of January, 1895, leaving no personal estate whatever, but seized of a farm in Kent county aforesaid, containing 237 acres of land, more or less, and leaving a last will and testament duly executed to pass real estate which has been duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court for Kent county.

Second—That at the time of her death the said M. Louisa Houston was indebted unto the plaintiff, Hallie R. Goodin, upon a certain promissory note for a sum of $200.00, dated, January 3d, 1889, and payable one year after date, on which note interest is due and unpaid from July 1st, 1894, and that the said M. Louisa Houston was also indebted unto sundry other persons in divers sums of money, and that the said Hallie R. Goodin sues as well for herself as for all other creditors who could come in and contribute to the expenses of said suit.

Third—That by said last will and testament said M. Louisa Houston devised said real estate to William Y. Baker for life, and after his death to her children or descendants, but in event of his death without leaving children or descendants, then the devised said real estate as follows, namely: One fifth part to S. Houston Baker, only child of S Houston Baker; one fifth part to Louise Baker, only child of Horatio H. Baker; one-fifth part to such of the daughters of the late James H. Houston Baker, of Lancaster, Pa., as shall be then unmarried; one-fifth part to such of the daughters of the late B. F. Houston, of Lancaster, Pa., as shall be then unmarried; and the remaining one-fifth part to such of the daughters of the late Dr. S. A. Houston, of Washington, D. C., as shall be then unmarried.

Fourth—That the daughters of the said James H Houston now living are Elizabeth Houston, Eliza Hopkins Houston and Rebecca S. Houston, all now unmarried, and all non-residents of the State of Maryland, residing at Atgler, Chester County, Pa.

Fifth—That the daughters of the said B. F. Houston now living are Sarah J. Houston, of Chestertown, Kent county, Md.; Hannah E Houston and Mary W. Worrell, both non-residents of the State of Maryland, and residing in the city of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania, the two first named never having been married, and the last being now a widow.

Sixth—That the daughters of the late Dr S. A. Houston, now living are: Agnes Crain Houston and Margaretta L. Houston, both non-residents of the State of Maryland, residing in Washington, D. C., and Sarah H. Whittlesey, a non-resident of the State of Maryland, residing in Cincinnati, Ohio, the two first named having been married and the last named being a widow.

Seventh—That the said S. Houston Baker is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, a non-resident of the State of Maryland, residing in Wilmington, Delaware.

Eighth—That the said Louise Houston is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, a non-resident of the State of Maryland, residing at Farmer, Tennessee.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, this 3d day of January, 1896, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published and printed in Kent county aforesaid, once in each of four successive weeks before the 9th day of February, 1896, gives notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 27th day of February next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

Order of Publication.

David A. Hynson,
vs.
Madeline M. Dawson, George T. Dawson, Wm. Hynson, Thomas M. Hynson, Rosa M. Hynson.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of Temperance Hynson, deceased.

Temperance Hynson was in her life time seized in fee simple of a certain house and lot of land lying in Kent county, on Swan Creek, in the fifth election district of said county, containing one hundred and forty-five perches of land, as will appear by a deed therefor from Christopher Wilkinson to the said Temperance Hynson.

And the bill further states that Temperance Hynson departed this life about the year 1890, leaving the following children and heirs at law, namely, David A. Hynson the plaintiff; Madeline M. Hynson, who is married to George T. Dawson, William Hynson, Thomas M. Hynson, all of Kent county, Maryland, and Rosa M. Hynson, who resides in the State of Pennsylvania, are infants.

And the bill further shows that the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein, and that in order to make division of the said interest it will be necessary that said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof be divided among the parties according to their several interests therein; the persons entitled being the only children and heirs at law of the said Temperance Hynson, who left no husband surviving her, and whose heirs at law are the plaintiff and the defendants above named.

And the bill further shows that it will be for the interest and advantage of all parties interested in said real estate, to have the same sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the persons entitled thereto.

To this end, therefore, that a decree may be passed for the sale of the said real estate, and that a trustee may be appointed to sell the said real estate and divide the proceeds thereof among the persons entitled thereto.

It is thereupon this 31st day of December, A. D. 1895, adjudged and ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, Maryland once in each of four successive weeks before the 31st day of January next give notice to the said Rosa M. Hynson, who is a non resident of the State of Maryland, but is at present living in the State of Pennsylvania (the non-resident defendant in this case) of the object and substance of this bill, and warning her to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of February next, to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.
