[...]SDAY.

[TH]URSDAY, APRIL 16, 1896.

R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

REPUBLICAN primaries will be held throughout Baltimore city to-morrow.

SENATOR WELLINGTON says: "With a solid front we can carry Maryland for the Republican candidate for President." Maybe you can, but we doubt it.

IT IS EASIER than rolling off an Eastern Shore log for the political Napoleon of Allegany to win honors, so on Friday the Duke presided over the National House of Representatives.

YESTERDAY was the last day upon which recommendations could be filed with the Governor by the political organizations, for assessors. The assessors will enter upon their duties on the first Tuesday in May.

THE Baltimore News thus refers to the fine address delivered by James A. Pearce, Esq., on Friday, at the Bankers' Banquet, Baltimore: "Mr. James Alfred Pearce, of Kent county, delivered a scholarly address at the banquet, telling what he thought the Eastern Shore owes to Baltimore, and what Baltimore owes to the Eastern Shore. Mr. Pearce advocated building a trunk line from Baltimore through Southern Maryland, with connections on the Eastern Shore."

THE REPUBLICAN-DEMOCRATIC BOARD of county commissioners, last week awarded to the local organ of the Republican party, and the Kent News, which is just at this time woefully undecided as to which party's organ it is, the printing of the public local laws, totally ignoring the TRANSCRIPT. It is not proposed, however, that the patrons of this journal shall be forced to either go uninformed or seek information in other papers, and to avoid such necessity all local laws will be duly published for the benefit of the TRANSCRIPT's readers.

MR. MICHAEL KEATING, the most prominent Republican leader of Queen Anne, and chairman of the county central committee, during the primary election held on Saturday, in which he was himself a candidate to the county convention from his district, fell on the streets of Centreville and expired in a few minutes. Mr. Keating had been appointed a justice of the peace for Centreville, and would have assumed the duties of his new office in a few weeks. He was fifty-one years of age, and was a brother of State Tax Commissioners Thomas J. Keating.

QUEEN ANNE now enjoys the novelty of a real factional fight in Republican politics. Primaries were held on Saturday and at Tuesday's convention the Mallalieu faction, it was claimed, had elected its delegates in the first and seventh districts by snap convention methods and were not entitled to seats. Mr. Mallalieu then withdrew with his supporters and organized in another room a convention which he asserts were entitled to eighteen and one-half votes, a majority of one. Both conventions chose delegates.

The factions are known as the regulars and Mallalieu faction. Dissatisfaction arose over the distribution of offices and has been increased by the anxiety of both factions to have control, as it is hoped by them that a Republican President will be elected and the more powerful wing would expect recognition in the appointments.

MESSRS. C. T. WESTCOTT, F. H. Harper and Louis Henry, constituting the Republican State Central Committee for Kent county, have issued a call for Republican primaries to be held throughout the county, on Saturday, April 18th, between four and seven o'clock P. M. The primaries will be to select five delegates from each district to meet in county convention at Chestertown, on the following Monday, at eleven o'clock, to select three delegates and three alternates to represent Kent county in the State Convention which will meet in Baltimore, April twenty-second, and to elect 4 delegates-at-large and four alternates to the Republican National Convention in St. Louis; also three delegates and three alternates to the First Congressional District Convention which will meet in Salisbury, on the sixth of May, to select district delegates to the National Convention; and further to select three delegates and three alternates to the Congressional Convention which meets in Easton on the twelfth day of August next, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

NEW ASSESSMENT BILL.

BY THE NEW ASSESSMENT LAW there is to be one assessor in each election district in the county, to be appointed by the county commissioners, and two assessors at large in each assessment district, to be appointed by the Governor.

The assessors are to be property-owners and tax-payers, and shall have resided in the county for at least two years before said appointment, and shall have adequate knowledge of the value of property in their districts. The salary of the assessors and assessors-at-large and of members of boards of control and review is to be $4 a day for each day of actual service. The county commissioners are to be the boards of control and review in the counties and each member of the boards of county commissioners is to receive $4 for each day's service.

The county commissioners in each county, acting as a board of control and review, have the right to appoint one clerk in addition to the regular clerk, at a per diem of $3.

The assessors-at-large in the counties shall be taken from the two leading political parties, and each one selected from three names to be presented to the Governor by the State central committees of the two parties in the several counties.

A supplemental act was passed to empower the Governor to make appointments in case no such lists are presented to him by the party committees.

Kent will have five district assessors, two-assessors-at-large, one clerk, and shall constitute one district. In addition to these provision is made in the law for legal advisors.

Arbor Day at Piney Neck School.

The following delightful programme was carried out on Arbor Day at Piney Neck school at 2.30 P. M.:

Prayer, Rev. W. G. Chance; opening address, Minnie Merse; Arbor Day Proclamation, Principal; Arbor Day Hymn, all; reading, "Why We Celebrate Arbor Day," Gussie Crouch; "Wishes," 1 boy and 8 girls; recitation, "Spring Time," Mary Strong; recitation, "Forest Song," Ida Kelley; "Star Spangled Banner," all; Little Runaways, 2 boys and 6 girls; recitation, "Arbor Day," Mary Hodges; recitation, "Trees," Bertha Hynson; duet, "That's What He Did For His Country," Gussie Crouch and Emma Hill; recitation, "Whittier's Tribute," Nora Crouch; "United Workmen," 12 boys; reading, "A Few Curious Trees," Raymond Sadtler; recitation, "What Do We Plant?" Tena Beck; The Sunflower King, 17 boys and 14 girls; song, "The Class Tree," all. Five trees, two mock-orange shoots and some roses were planted.

[...] was quite an eventful [...] oystermen and fishermen. On [...] day Mr. George Moffett, while oystering on the "Gilt Edge," the lower end of Swan Point bar, was run down by a large bay schooner and had his masts carried away, and his boat otherwise damaged, which caused him considerable difficulty in getting home, owing to a strong wind and high waves. The captain of the schooner launched his yawl-boat and went to ascertain the extent of the damage, and expressed profound regret at the occurrence, and stated that, had he the means, he would make good the expense of repair. A poor consolation for the loss of a day's work and a wrecked canoe, all because of a piece of stupid management on the part of the navigator. Then the rain, snow and wind storms of the following days made it extremely difficult to get in a day's work, and on Saturday the climax was reached, when a southeast squall struck the watermen while at work in the bay from 3 to 5 miles from shore, scattering them in all directions. Fortunately the squall was of short duration and all were left in a dead calm and a tremendous sea to wallow it out as best they could. Captain B. F. Sewell and Captain F. T. Hogans had their mainsails blown to pieces as they were lying at anchor loading with oysters.

Capt. G. T. Sewell has been engaged during the past week loading the schooner Katie Allmond, of Richmond, Va., with oysters for York river, which, if they give satisfaction, will be the means of catching and selling 10,000 bushels for the same point from Swan Point bar.

Cranks, as a rule, have not annoyed this section to any considerable extent, but Mr. V. W. Kendall met one some weeks ago which gave him an upper cut on the lip, leaving a mark which, if not indelible, was very sore, and on Thursday last Mr. Chas. Judefind met one that swung a back tack over the right eye that made a visage for his better-half to look upon with horror when he returned from the day's labor. These cranks, however, are a part of the deep water oyster tongs and are under control when extreme watchfulnesss is at all times observed.

Rudolph Besowoski has purchased a large canoe of the lower bay build and is now in a position to go and come whenever the most daring of our oystermen may venture out to work. It will be no longer "Shonny steer her mit a stick," but with a genuine tiller and keep a wrapped full on the sail.

Our fishermen seem much exercised over the new fish law, a full text of which has not been furnished them, consequently they do not know what tack to take in their future operations.

Mr. D. K. Ayres is on the sick list. He has been very much missed of late and hopes are entertained that he will soon be around again fully recovered.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Wilkins has been extremely ill.

Rev. Mr. Carroll, of the M. E. Church, has been very busy making pastoral visitations. He says he must see and know every member of the church and also every family in the community if possible. His mission is to do good and "make hay while the sun shines." He is making friends wherever he goes and is destined to do great good througout his charge. BON JOUR.

FROM FAIRLEE.

EDS. TRANSCRIPT:—The Buck Neck wharf is one of the most convenient steam boat landings in this section of the county. One great draw back heretofore has been the want of convenience for passengers. Now, that Capt. Cundiff, proprietor of the Sassafras River Steam Boat Co., has purchased the property, no doubt at no distant day we will have suitable and commodious waiting rooms. This is indispensible, especially for ladies and children.

The oyster supper at the Hall on Monday night of last week was largely attended. All passed off well except, it is said, certain young men from the lower region, were a little noisy. The Fairlee roads were too narrow for them, and they fell into the ditch and were somewhat worsted by getting out of the right way.

Arbor day exercises at our school were exceptionally interesting. Quite a number of visitors were present. Refreshments were served abundantly. A School Improvement Society was organized with the following officers: president, Mrs. J. P. Nicholson; vice pres., Mrs. John S. Lewis; Sect., Miss Minnie M. Smyth; Treas., Mrs. George Bramble. Object, Improvement of the school premises. Executive committee: Mr. A. M. Kendall, Mr. A. L. Corey, Mr. Harry Jones, Mr. Vincint Lee and Mr. J. Miller. The greatest trouble seems to be the want of water. Our school is sadly in need of a well and pump. The teacher and pupils suffer great inconvenience on this account. The nearest water they can get for drinking purposes is at the creamery. This can only be had while the creamery is in operation, and that seldom ever lasts later than noon. Then what are the children to do from 12 m. until 4 P. M.? either do without or go clear down in the village for water. We think this a matter of great importance and hope the public will give it more than an idle thought. The school house also needs paint as well as a fence.

The Hanesville and Fairlee W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. J. C. Statts, on Thursday evening to unite the two together. We hope all our members and friends will ttend.

Presiding Elder Alfred Smyth will preach at the Union M. E. Church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. Denroche was very sick a part of last week, but was in his pulpit on Sunday as usual.

Miss Zadie Lee is convalescent.

A crack shot—Mr. J. C. Statts shot a rat one day last week with a revolver. We don't know, however, which was the more surprised, Mr. S. or the rat.

We wish to correct a mistake of our brother correspondent, West End. Instead of the creamery paying $200 per month to its patrons, we are glad to say it is $500 per month. Mr. S. paid $75c. for milk last month.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mrs. Sarah Jane Butler and Mr. Thomas Cooper.

A very nice sermon was listened to by a large congregation yesterday morning. The evening prayer meeting was also largely attended.

Mr. J. L. Lewis, our P. M., has torn down, turned around and rebuilt his barn and stable.

A number of straw hats were visible to-day, and some of our townsmen were busy chopping in their gardens, our pastor being one of the number who indulged in this exercise. EAST END.

From Locust Grove.

The Corey "Y" met at the home of Mrs. B. S. Sutton on Wednesday evening. After all business had been disposed of, the evening was spent in playing different games and enjoying vocal and instrumental music.

Mrs. Mitchell Beasten, of Cecilton, paid a flying visit to Mrs. George Beasten last week.

Dr. Harry Hurtt has returned to Johns Hopkins University, after a pleasant visit to his parents.

The Arbor Day exercises at Locust Grove school were of a delightful nature. The following was the programme:

Singing, "Sweet Spring is Returning," school; prayer, Rev. Mr. Edson; reading, Governor's Proclamation, by Miss Lizzie Graves; recitation, The Months, twelve pupils; recitation, "Dandelions," Mary Slaughter; recitation, "The Willow," Miss Etta Chrisfield; Solo, "Little Bride," Leslie Wolf; recitation, Miss Laura Price; singing, "Swinging 'Neath the Old Apple Tree," school; recitation, Edna Blackiston; Talking Trees, by ten pupils; recitation, "Some of His Names," Herbert Chrisfield; recitation, "Pine Needles," Lee Wolf; recitation, "Summer Is Nigh," Johnnie Hall; singing and marching, school; planting of trees.

Miss Blanche Sutton attended the Easter dances at Rock Hall and Edesville.

Miss Blanche Redmile has returned home after a pleasant visit to friends in Middletown, Del.

Mr. Sereck Shallcross spent part of last week with his father, Mr. T. J. Shallcross.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kelley spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne.

Mrs. Shallcross, who has been so desperately ill is no better. X. Y.

[KENN]EDYVILLE NEWS.

[Dea]th of an Estimable Citizen.

The funeral of the late John Hurlock took place at his late residence, near Turner's Creek, on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Mr. Hurlock was a native of Kent County; was born and raised near Millington and was in his sixtieth year. He was a whole-hearted, earnest christian man, and was highly esteemed by a large number of friends. He was an energetic, thorough going farmer, having engaged in that occupation since his youth. He leaves four children to mourn his loss, two sons and two daughters: Mrs. John M. Archibald, Mrs. J. Leonard Price, Mr. J. Thomas Hurlock and John S. Hurlock.

Mr. Hurlock was an exceptionally well built man and one who had had but very little sickness. He was taken suddenly with pneumonia about eight days previous to his death and was considered extremely ill from the first visit of his physician, Dr. W. S. Maxwell. Pneumonia yielded to the treatment, but other serious complications arose that baffled the power of all remedies and only death came as a relief. His friends showed their appreciation of his loss by their attendance at the funeral services which were conducted by Rev. E. H. Nelson. Interment took place at Still Pond cemetery, and as the procession, which was one of the largest ever seen in that community, passed through the village, all places of business were closed.

The departed soul, we believe, judging from the conscientious life of the mortal, is now safe in the "Haven of Rest," and there is left behind an example of Christian manhood worthy to be imitated by all who enjoyed the privilege of acquaintanceship with him. He will be sadly missed by his church and the community at large. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. T. Hepbron, Jas. S. Harris, Geo. B. McWhorter, Tilghman Shafer, F. H. Harper, Wm. B. Price.

To the gratification of all, Rev. Jesse Shreeve returned and entered upon the second year of his ministry at this place on Sunday last. He preached an earnest sermon in the morning, in which he asked the co-operation of the members, and the prospect is very encouraging for a successful year's work. Rev. W. R. McKnett, who is visiting his parents, preached in the evening.

Misses Katie VanDyke, Nellie Barwick and Messrs. H. C. Meredith and John N. Bennett were home during Easter.

Next Sunday will be the fiftieth anniversary of Rev. Jesse Shreeve's work in the ministry. All persons are invited to come out and hear what he may have to say about his early work.

Miss Bessie Price, of Queen Anne Co., is the guest of Miss Nettie Whiteley.

The dwelling occupied by Mrs. S. E. Sutton is being remodeled. JUNO.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW

FOR KENT COUNTY.

PASSED AT JANUARY SESSION, 1896.

The Liquor Law.

A BILL.

CHAPTER 78. An Act to repeal and re-enact with Amendments, Sections 148, 149, 150, 151, 152 of Article Fifteen of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent county," sub-title "Liquor and intoxicating drinks," and to add an additional section thereto to be known and designated as Section 151 "A."

SECTION 1. Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections One Hundred and Forty-Eight, 149, 150, 151 and 152, of Article Fifteen of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub-title "Liquor and intoxicating drinks," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with Amendments so as to read as follows:

SECTION 148. It shall not be lawful for any person, company, association or body corporate, to sell directly or indirectly, within the limits of Kent county, or to give away, at any place of business in said county, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, nor shall any license be granted for the sale of the same.

SECTION 149. No person, company, association or body corporate, shall receive, keep or have in possession, or allow his, their or its place of business to be a depository for spirituous or fermented liquor or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks, to be used by others.

SECTION 150. That any Justice of the Peace of Kent county shall have Jurisdiction and Authority to receive information under Oath of any violation of section 148 or 149 of this law, and to take recognizances and bail, in a sum not less than Two Hundred and fifty dollars, or to commit to the county jail in default of bail until the end of the session of the next succeeding Grand Jury of said Kent county.

SECTION 151. If any person, company, association or body corporate shall violate any of the provisions of sections 148 or 149 within the limits of Kent county, he, they or it shall on indictment and conviction in the Circuit Court for Kent county for each offence, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than One Hundred dollars nor more than Five Hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, and on failure to pay forthwith such fine and costs, shall be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than Six or more than Twelve months in the discretion of the Court, or until such fine and cost are paid. One-half of all such fines shall when collected be paid to the informer, and the other half to the Board of School Commissioners of Kent county, for the use of the Public Schools therein.

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, That the following additional section be added to Article Fifteen of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent county," subtitle "Liquors and intoxicating drinks," to be known and designated as section one hundred and fifty-one "A" to read as follows:

SECTION 151 A. The Certificate of the Collector of Internal Revenue of the United States for the district in which Kent county is situated, stating that the person, company, association or body corporate, charged with violating sections one hundred and forty eight or one hundred and forty-nine of this Law, has paid to the United States or its duly authorized agent, an Internal Revenue tax for the sale of liquor or alcoholic bitters in Kent county, or if it shall be shown by competent testimony that such violator had exhibited in his place of business, the United States Government receipt or stamps for special tax on the business of liquor dealer, issued for a period within which such violation occurred, such certificate or testimony shall be taken and received by the Justice of the Peace who issued the writ of arrest, and by the Court in which the party is tried, as prima facie evidence of intention to violate said section of this law.

SECTION 152. Nothing contained in said sections shall be construed to prevent the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks in Kent county for medicinal purposes, by a regular Pharmacist and Druggist having a license for such business under the laws of this State, provided, such sale be made only upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular Physician practicing in said county, containing the name of the person for whom the liquor, alcoholic bitters or other intoxicants are prescribed, the kind and quantity of the same, the date on which the prescription is made, and the full ordinary name of the Physician making it, all written in ink, the date of filling such prescription shall be endorsed on the back thereof, by the Pharmacist and Druggist filling the same, in ink, who shall file and keep all such prescriptions filed separate from all other prescriptions and exhibit the same to the State's Attorney, or any Grand Jury or Justice of the Peace of said county calling for the producing thereof, and no such prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; no Physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, or such liquor or alcoholic bitters or intoxicants is absolutely required as a medicine. In no case shall a Pharmacist and Druggist permit any liquor, alcoholic bitters or other intoxicating drinks obtained under such prescription, to be drunk anywhere on his premises except in cases of sudden illness. All Pharmacists and Druggists shall be liable for the acts of their clerks, agents and assistants, with reference to the matters and things herein embraced, nothing, however, herein contained shall be construed to prohibit a sale by such Pharmacist and Druggist in cases of extreme illness, when delay would be dangerous. Any Pharmacist and Druggist, or Physician, violating any provisions or requirement of this section, shall be guilty of Misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in the sum of not less than Fifty dollars nor more than Three Hundred dollars for every such offence, and shall stand committed until such fine and costs of prosecution are paid.

SECTION 3. And be it enacted that nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal said Article Fifteen of the Code of Public Local Laws, title, "Kent county," subtitle, "Liquors and intoxicating drinks," as to any offense or offenses committed before this Act shall take effect, but all such offenses may be prosecuted and punished under the law existing at the time such offense was committed.

SECTION 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved, March 23, 1896.

LLOYD LOWNDES, GOVERNOR.
WM. CABELL BRUCE, President of the Senate.
SYDNEY E. MUDD, Speaker of the House of Delegates.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE SENATE.

I hereby certify that the aforegoing is a true copy of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, 1896.

Alwyn N. Stavely, Lucy R. Stavely, Plaintiffs,
vs.
Thomas Hepbron Stavely, Mary Hodges Stavely, his wife; Mary Rhyner Stavely, Harry Maslin Stavely, Florence Bowers Stavely, his wife; Lena Maxwell Turner, Geo. Turner, her husband; Bayard Cann Stavely, Margaret Elizabeth Stavely, Defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

No. 1174.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent County, Maryland, of which Margaret E. Stavely died seized and possessed, so that the proceeds of said sale may be divided among her heirs at law.

The bill states that the said Margaret E. Stavely departed this life sometime in the year 1890, leaving an undivided three-fifth interest in 150 acres of land and a fee simple, absolute interest in 45 acres adjoining said 150 acres, and also a house and lot situated in Edesville, Kent County, Maryland. That being so seized the said Margaret E. Stavely died intestate, and her husband, J. Rhyner Stavely who survived her, died in December 1895, and the following children and heirs at law of the said Margaret E. Stavely are entitled to the said real estate, namely: Thomas Hepbron Stavely, Alwyn N. Stavely, Mary Rhyner Stavely Harry Maslin Stavely, Lena Maxwell Turner (formerly Lena Maxwell Stavely), Bayard Cann Stavely and Margaret Elizabeth Stavely, all of whom are adults, and a partition of said property among the parties entitled thereto cannot be made by agreement or in kind and in order to effect partition it is necessary to obtain a decree for the sale of said property and for a proper division of the proceeds thereof. That the said Lena Maxwell Turner and George Turner, her husband, and Bayard Cann Stavely, are all non-residents of the state of Maryland and reside some place in the State of New Jersey.

It is thereupon this 27th day of March, 1896, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published and printed in Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of April, 1896, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill warning them to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 18th day of May next, to show cause, if any they may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Jas. K. H. Jacobs, Wm. G. Russell,
vs.
Margaret Davis and Ambrose Davis, Lucinda Gale and Henry Gale, Ellen Flamer and Robert Flamer, John Brown, Sarah M. Wilson, Jenny Wilson, Jeffry Wilson, Wm. Houston, Isaac Houston, Cedella Gale, Louisa Bright and John T. Bright, Florence Nichols and Charles Nichols, Hope H. Barroll, administrator C. T. A. of Isaac Caulk.

In the Orphans' Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of Isaac Caulk, deceased.

The bill states that the said Isaac Caulk, colored, was indebted unto Jas. K. H. Jacobs in the full and just sum of $15.10 upon a certain open account, which was duly allowed by the Orphans' Court for Kent county, Maryland, as will appear by a copy thereof filed herewith and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 1. And he was also indebted unto Wm. G. Russell in the full and just sum of $38.00 on a certain promissory note dated the 6th day of September, 1893, as will appear by said note, which is filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill of complaint and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit's No. 2, that the said Isaac Caulk, colored, being in his lifetime so indebted unto your orators and divers other persons, and being seized and possessed of real and personal estate in Kent county, Maryland, departed this life sometime in the year 1895, leaving a last will and testament, duly executed to pass real estate in this State, as will appear by a duly certified copy of said last will and testament, which is filed herewith and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 3, and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill of complaint.

And the bill further states, that by the said last will and testament a certain C. B. Norris was appointed executor, that the said Norris having declined to act as executor, letters of administration C. T. A. were committed unto Hope H. Barroll, as will appear by a duly certified copy of said letters of administration C. T. A., which is filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part of this bill of complaint and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 4; and the said Hope H. Barroll possessed himself of the personal estate of the said Isaac Caulk and has fully administered the same, but the said personal estate was not sufficient to discharge all of the just debts due and owing by the said Isaac Caulk at the time of his death, as will appear by a duly certified copy of the first and final administration account, which is filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part thereof, marked Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 5.

And the bill shows that your orators and the other creditors of the said Isaac Caulk are entitled to have their claims paid out of the real estate of the said Isaac Caulk in the hands of his devisees under the will.

And that the said Isaac Caulk devised his real estate as follows:

(A).—Unto his daughter, Margaret Davis, the house and lot where he resided in Morgan Creek Neck, in Kent county, Maryland, together with all the outbuildings thereunto belonging; to have and to hold the same during her natural life, and if at the death of his said daughter, Margaret Davis, her husband, Ambrose Davis, survives, he is to have one-third of the value of the house and lot, and the remaining two thirds should be equally apportioned to the testator's children who still survive.

(B).—The testator devised to his three daughters, Martha Wilson (who died before her father's death) Lucinda Gale and Ellen Flamer, each an equal share of the lot of land situated in Morgan Creek Neck, in Kent county, Maryland, formerly belonging to Fannie Caulk and her heirs, and known as a part of the Hurtt lot, now belonging to the testator and containing 20 acres more or less, to have and hold during their natural lives, and that at the death of the three daughters above named, all the life estates hereby devised to them as aforesaid, the testator gave and devised unto his following named children, their heirs and assigns forever:

To John Brown, son of his daughter, Martha Wilson, of her life estate three and one-third acres, and the remainder of said estate to be equally apportioned to Sarah M. Wilson, Jenny Wilson and Jeffry Wilson. To William Houston, son of the testator's daughter, Lucinda Gale, of his mother's life estate, five acres; and to Isaac Houston, if he should be living at the testator's death, the remainder of said estate, and if he is not living at the time mentioned the same shall belong to the testator's granddaughter, Cedella Gale.

The said will provided that the said daughter, Ellen Flamer, should have the right to dispose of her said portion of the estate in a manner that will be best suitable for her support while in life, but that she is not to sell or mortgage it to any one outside of the estate.

(C).—The testator further gave and devised to his two daughters, Louisa Bright and Florence Nichols, equal portions of that house and lot of land, containing ten acres, more or less, situated in the village commonly known as "Big Woods," in Kent county, Maryland, their heirs and assigns forever.

(D).—The will provides that the said testator's daughter, Ellen Flamer, have a home in the house where the testator resided so long as Ellen remains unmarried.

(E).—The will provides that Lucinda Gale's portion includes the house where she now lives on said estate.

To the end, therefore, that the real estate of the said Isaac Caulk, deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose, may be sold for the payment of the claims of your orators and those of the other unsatisfied creditors of said deceased.

It is thereupon this 17th day of March, 1896 adjudged and ordered by the Orphans' Court for Kent county in equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published and printed in Kent county, aforesaid once in each of four successive weeks before the 18th day of April, 1896, gives notice to the said Margaret Davis, Ambrose Davis, Ellen Flamer, Robert Flamer, John Brown, Isaac Houston, Florence Nichols and Charles Nichols who are the non-resident defendants in this case, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before 26th day of May, 1896, to show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

TRADE MARK

T. R. HUBBARD & SON

Are Entitled to Your First Consideration.

BECAUSE

They are home manufacturers as well as the pioneer manufacturers of the Shore, and if home industries are not encouraged by home people, from whom may they expect help.

BECAUSE

They are in a position to give you more for the money, buying for the cash and as largely as they do, and accordingly low, and sell to you direct, they thereby save you a profit.

BECAUSE

They have the latest and best equipped fertilizer machinery, and are at less expense than the city man, and do not take advantage of this in selling you.

BECAUSE

They put their goods up in 167 lbs. bags, as well as always have them in first-class mechanical condition. They sell all goods delivered without freight and on time if desired.

BECAUSE

This is their (41) forty-first season in the Fertilizer business, and the sales for the year 1895 just past is by far the largest they have ever had.

And Now What Does This Prove?

IT IS THIS:

That they could not have continued in business all these years, and arrived at the successful position that they have attained, if they had not treated their patrons liberally, and thereby gained their confidence, making of them loyal friends and customers, many of whom have dealt with them every year since they have been in business.

Then, if this is Correct, which it is,

WHY NOT YOU.

Who have not used their goods try them also, and convince yourself by practical results that everything considered, their goods are the cheapest to use and pay the consumer the best profits.
