...RSDAY, APRIL 23, 1896.

R. HARRISON COLLINS. C. COX HOPPER.

COLLINS & HOPPER,
EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

GOVERNOR MORTON, of New York, has signed a bill compelling railroads to accept bicycles as baggage.

MUDD, of Prince Georges, is Mudd in name only, and Congressman Coffin is coffined, indeed. Mudd swept everything before him in Saturday's primaries.

THE DEMOCRATIC State Central Committee will meet on May sixth, at the Carrollton Hotel, and select the date for the holding of the State Convention.

HOWEVER REMARKABLE it may seem, the Eastern Shore Senatorial law was repealed by the last Legislature without anyone knowing it. In other words a "snake" crept in.

MUTTERINGS OF WAR are now heard in the ranks of the Talbot county silver men. "Mayor Stewart and Register of Wills Roe want to dump Mr. Turner" and of course the ex-Comptroller will object to being so summarily disposed of.

NATIONAL DELEGATES. Yesterday's Republican convention elected the following delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention, to be held in St. Louis: George L. Wellington, Jas. A. Garey, W. T. Malster and R. P. Graham.

THE NUMBER OF PETTY APPEALS in which the amounts involved are absurdly small, called for a stinging rebuke from Judge Wickes on Tuesday. Petty, insignificant cases which should have been settled before the magistrates are dragged into court, and, said the court, though only a few dollars are involved, cost possibly one hundred and fifty dollars, which unnecessary burthen of expense must be borne by the tax-payers.

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS.

Splendid Work by Amateurs on the Stage.

To say the least of it, "A Celebrated Case," presented at Stam's Hall on Thursday evening, was the finest amateur performance ever witnessed in Chestertown. The entertainment was for the benefit of the Athletic Association of Washington College, and while of course much is due to the splendid work of the individual participants, Prof. E. J. Clarke, whose talent as an actor, and tireless energy in a thorough preparation and drill of the young ladies and gentlemen, entered largely as a factor of success.

The play was an exceptionally happy selection, as it is replete with strong dramatic positions and the plot is well sustained throughout.

Prof. Clarke as John Renaud, the hero, gave evidence of marked ability and never appeared in a stronger role more strongly presented. Mr. H. W. Catlin as Count D'Aubeterre, exhibited an ease of manner and freedom from any effort at artificial stage effect, which made him complete master of the situation, and his success was eminently conspicuous. Mr. Goldsborough as a villain did well. Mr. Harry Rickey, the Irish Army sergeant, filled a difficult role with marked ability, while Mr. Pardee as corporal, gave force to his impersonation. Upon the work of Miss Grace Whaland, the heroine, it would be difficult to bestow excessive praise. She was a magnificent success as an amateur and her splendid effort would have reflected credit upon many professionals of acknowledged ability. She was truly a star. Beauty of face, grace of person, a perfect familiarity with her part, richness of costume, all combined with conspicuous talent, conspired to make this young lady a brilliant success in her role. From the first five minutes after the raising of the curtain she ceased to be Miss Whaland and became Madeline Renaud, the heroine. Little Miss Elizabeth Brown, (aged five years) was a gem. She acquitted herself in a way which delighted and captivated the audience and gathered golden honors for the charming little actress. Miss Loud and Miss Peregoy both gave force to their respective roles, while Miss Pennington gave evidence of unusual talent and took a difficult part with exceptional ease and force. Mr. Perkins gave some evidences of embarrassment when called upon to make love and manufacture kisses in public. Of course continued practical experience is necessary to perfection in such matters, which doubtless Mr. Perkins will acquire. Mr. Coursey did well as a servant. Mrs. Hiram Brown, as the duchess, gave force, sprightliness and beauty to a difficult role, and her appearance upon the stage was the occasion for a most enthusiastic and flattering reception by the large audience. Miss Ellen Longfellow was charming as the French maid. Misses Rose Frazier, Olivia Wilkins and the Misses Stam, all talented musicians discoursed beautiful selections during the evening.

In stating that the play was an unqualified and delightful success is simply expressing general public sentiment, and Prof. Clarke and each individual participant are to be most sincerely congratulated.

FROM FAIRLEE.

EDS. TRANSCRIPT:—The farmers of this community are pressing their spring work in preparation for planting spring crops. Mr. Robert Hatcherson is planting corn ahead of every one else, as usual. Mr. John Morris will follow suit in a day or two.

The Republican primary meeting under the new law was held here on Saturday last, with Geo. E. Bramble in the chair, and Morris Bramble acting as secretary. The attendance was good for so short notice. The utmost harmony prevailed. The following delegates to meet in Chestertown on Monday were duly elected: Geo. E. Bramble, Morris Bramble, R. A. Smyth, John Chambers and Jerry Wilson.

The Salem choir on last Sunday gave us very fine music. The Presiding Elder, Rev. Alfred Smith, on Sunday afternoon was at his best. He expressed himself as much pleased at the size and character of the congregation.

Mr. A. S. Turner, of Worton, was elected trustee of the Union M. E. Church at the quarterly conference, in the place of Mr. Hyland Smith, deceased.

The ladies of the Union are making extensive preparation in the matter of refreshments for the birthday party at the Union next Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Allie Baker and family, formerly of this place, moved this (Monday) morning, by steamer Sassafras to Baltimore. Mr. Murray Smith has taken charge of the store and will conduct the same in the interests of Mr. Baker the balance of the year.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. J. C. Statts on next Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Members and friends are invited.

Mr. W. F. Sparks is repainting and beautifying his pretty mansion in West End. Mr. Sparks, Wm. T. J. Keyser and Walter Barnes are doing the work.

Mrs. W. F. Sparks has purchased a handsome new drop-foot carriage from Mr. Henry DeFord.

Miss Lura Lee is confined to the house through sickness.

Professor L. J. Smyth and daughter paid a visit to his sisters, the Misses Smyth, of this place.

Mr. Wm. J. Payne, and Master Oliver Payne, are visiting his daughter, Mrs. Willie Zenker, in Baltimore.

Miss Lillie Boyd and Miss Dora Todd are visiting Miss Minnie Hudson.

Mr. E. O. Duyer is quite ill at his home. Dr. J. H. Hessey is attending him.

Professor J. A. Greenwood, wife and Master Arthur spent several days with Mr. Harry Todd last week. EAST END.

...Selected to the S... Conventions—Senator Westc... Endorsed—Slight Friction Cropped Out.

Pursuant to call of County Central Committee, Republican primaries were held on Saturday, and fifteen delegates selected from each district to meet in county convention in Chestertown on Monday, to select delegates to the State convention at Baltimore, the Salisbury convention and the Congressional Convention at Easton. Matters generally passed off quietly and without friction. In the first district, however, a slight factional fight at one time threatened to disturb the harmony of the proceedings, but the opposition to the regulars soon petered out. In Chestertown, too, the harmony among the colored leaders was in no way appalling. The Dunn-Nichols factions were not indulging in an exaggerated amount of brotherly love, and some friction for a time manifested itself as to the selection of delegates to the convention.

MONDAY'S CONVENTION.

The county convention was called to order on Monday at 11.30 A. M., by Mr. Westcott. Of course the Senator eloquently referred to the magnificent net results of the work done by the great reform council at Annapolis last winter (as well he might, heaven knows). He might also have gone further and included the good work in Kent, notably among other notable things, the conversion of "our Senior," who has been on "a tour" and discovered that "Brother Usilton is one of the sturdy Democrats (?!?) of Maryland, who by his pen has helped the party in many an hour of peril (last fall for instance). And that "It is such men as he whose influence and good counsel will bring our party" (if he finds out which "our party" is in time) "to victory again in Maryland," but the Senator had not time to deal with these side issues.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason was made chairman of the convention. Messrs. Joseph W. Harper and D. W. Crosby were made secretaries. Messrs. Wm. H. Davis, Jos. W. Harper, Alex. Mair, Marshal Pitman, Wm. J. Frazier, R. A. Smith and John W. Dickinson were named a joint committee on credentials and organization.

The delegates were:

1st District—Samuel Mallalieu, Willard England, William Davis, James Gould, John D. Boyd, Hamilton Barnes, William Jester, Isaac Tilghman, Zion Potts, Henry Scott.

2nd district—Joseph W. Harper, Thos. E. Norris, Robert R. Hill, Wm. Garey, Wm. Anderson, F. H. Harper, John W. Hall, Chas. W. Jones, Emory Henry, Thos. R. Wilson.

3rd district—Geo. L. Bowers, F. R. Rouse, Alex. Mair, Geo. A. Spear, Geo. T. Williams, John Dempsey, Wm. Riley, Nat Tilghman, J. H. Cotton, Dan Gilbert, Jr.

4th district—Wilbur Eliason, Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., Wm. T. Matthews, Samuel Merritt, Wm. D. Burchinal, Thos. H. Cooper, James W. Chapman, John Bartley, Chas. T. Westcott, Chas. S. Smith, Fred Nicols, Jr., Z. T. Dunn, Marshall Pitman, Dan'l Miller, Harrison Jenkins.

5th district—John E. Beck, Thos. A. Hudson, D. W. Crosby, John W. Downey, Marion Downey, Wm. J. Frazier, A. L. Corey, Sam'l Kilbourn, Jr., Henry Smith, Lawrence Kennard, Samuel J. Vickers, John Watson, Bateman Berry, John Murray, Abe Pratt.

6th district—George W. Bramble, Morris Bramble, Richard A. Smyth, Jerry Wilson, John Chambers.

7th district—James H. Baker, John C. Davis, John W. Dickinson, C. G. Hadaway, Bartus Trew, Heny Brown, Geo. H. Thompson, S. E. T. Startt, Wm. Thos. Murray, Alfred Hynson.

Messrs. Samuel Mallalieu, R. R. Hill, F. R. Rouse, Wm. D. Burchinal, John E. Beck, Jerry Wilson and C. C. Hadaway were appointed a committee on resolutions, and made the following report:

"WHEREAS, It is known that the Hon. Charles T. Westcott has been prominently spoken of and is a candidate for delegate-at-large to the St. Louis convention from the Eastern Shore; and

"WHEREAS, His faithful and earnest efforts in the past in behalf of the Republican party, and, more recently, his untiring efforts and services as State Senator from Kent county, entitle him to the grateful recognition of the Republicans and citizens of his county and the whole State; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Republicans of Kent county, in convention assembled, do most heartily commend his candidacy, and do hereby instruct the delegates this day elected to the State convention to assemble in Baltimore city on April 22d, to use all honorable means to secure his election as delegate-at-large to the St. Louis convention, and as a further mark of our esteem and confidence, it is hereby resolved that Hon. Charles T. Westcott be authorized to name the delegates to the several conventions, and to name himself as delegate to such of the said conventions as he may find it agreeable to attend.

"Resolved, That we congratulate the Republican party upon the victory of last November, which voted out the Democratic and voted in the Republican administration, which has already fulfilled all the pledges of the Cambridge platform, and has set in motion those true reforms in government which the Republican party has been advocating for many years.

"Resolved, That we feel that the twenty thousand majority given the Republican State ticket at the last election justifies us in the belief that the old State of Maryland will at the next election cast her electoral vote for the victorious presidential candidate of the Republican party."

Mr. Westcott made a speech, thanking the convention for the honors conferred.

The following delegates were named to the Baltimore convention:

Wilbur Eliason, Jos. W. Harper, John E. Beck, Wm. D. Burchinal, Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., Chas. T. Westcott, C. G. Hadaway, Zack T. Dunn, Fred Nicols, Jr.

To District Convention at Salisbury, May 6th:

James H. Baker, Daniel Hill, Wm. T. Matthews, Willard H. Scotten, J. H. Hurtt, Wm. D. Burchinal, Chas. T. Westcott, Louis Henry, Isaac Tilghman.

To Congressional Convention at Easton, August 12th:

Samuel Mallalieu, Morris H. Bramble, James A. Casey, Wm. J. Vannort, Peter Brinsfield, William Riley.

Alwyn N. Stavely, Lucy R. Stavely, Plaintiffs, vs.
Thomas Hepbron Stavely, Mary Hodges Stavely, his wife; Mary Rhyner Stavely, Harry Maslin Stavely, Florence Bowers Stavely, his wife; Lena Maxwell Turner, Geo. Turner, her husband; Bayard Cann Stavely, Margaret Elizabeth Stavely, Defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

No. 1174.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent County, Maryland, of which Margaret E. Stavely died seized and possessed, so that the proceeds of said sale may be divided among her heirs at law.

The bill states that the said Margaret E. Stavely departed this life sometime in the year 1890, leaving an undivided three-fifth interest in 150 acres of land and a fee simple, absolute interest in 45 acres adjoining said 150 acres, and also a house and lot situated in Edesville, Kent County, Maryland. That being so seized the said Margaret E. Stavely died intestate, and her husband, J. Rhyner Stavely who survived her, died in December, 1895, and the following children and heirs at law of the said Margaret E. Stavely are entitled to the said real estate, namely: Thomas Hepbron Stavely, Alwyn N. Stavely, Mary Rhyner Stavely, Harry Maslin Stavely, Lena Maxwell Turner (formerly Lena Maxwell Stavely), Bayard Cann Stavely and Margaret Elizabeth Stavely, all of whom are adults, and a partition of said property among the parties entitled thereto cannot be made by agreement or in kind and in order to effect partition it is necessary to obtain a decree for the sale of said property and for a proper division of the proceeds thereof. That the said Lena Maxwell Turner and George Turner, her husband, and Bayard Cann Stavely, are all non-residents of the state of Maryland and reside some place in the State of New Jersey.

It is thereupon this 27th day of March, 1896, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published and printed in Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of April, 1896, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill warning them to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 18th day of May next, to show cause, if any they may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

FARMERS!

When you are about to purchase your supply of Fertilizers for

or anything that needs Fertilizer this Spring, remember that

T. R. HUBBARD & SON

Are Entitled to Your First Consideration.

BECAUSE
They are home manufacturers as well as the pioneer manufacturers of the Shore, and if home industries are not encouraged by home people, from whom may they expect help.

BECAUSE
They are in a position to give you more for the money, buying for the cash and as largely as they do, and accordingly low, and sell to you direct, they thereby save you a profit.

BECAUSE
They have the latest and best equipped fertilizer machinery, and are at less expense than the city man, and do not take advantage of this in selling you.

BECAUSE
They put their goods up in 167 lbs. bags, as well as always have them in first-class mechanical condition. They sell all goods delivered without freight and on time if desired.

BECAUSE
This is their (41) forty-first season in the Fertilizer business, and the sales for the year 1895 just past is by far the largest they have ever had.

And Now What Does This Prove?

IT IS THIS:
That they could not have continued in business all these years, and arrived at the successful position that they have attained, if they had not treated their patrons liberally, and thereby gained their confidence, making of them loyal friends and customers, many of whom have dealt with them every year since they have been in business.

Then, if this is Correct, which it is,

WHY NOT YOU.
Who have not used their goods try them also, and convince yourself by practical results that everything considered, their goods are the cheapest to use and pay the consumer the best profits.
