Die Martis Vlimo Maij 1634

Came Wm: York who in a Court Anne the Relict and Administratrix of John Collier late of Baltimore County deceased: according to the Order of this Court of the 28th: instant exhibited an account of the estate of Samuel Stringer who was the first husband of Anne the relict Administratrix of the s^d Jno: Collier and Administratrix of the s^d Stringer Out in regard that no Letters of Adm: from the late Vsurpers appeared The Judge here pronounced her Extrix her own wrongs of the estate of the s^d Stringer And forasmuch it appeared by the Copy of the account of Anne the Relict of Stringer & late husband John Collier taken from the pretended Records of the late Vsurpers that the account now Exhibited differed from that Exhibited to the s^d Vsurpers by the s^d Anne and Jno: Collier her husband this anno: labring no value of four thousand five hundred and Sixty pounds of Tobacco being the Estate left by the s^d Samuel Stringer and Acknowledged to be part of the estate of the s^d Stringer by the s^d account: Anne and John Collier upon the s^d pretended Records Therefore the Judge here refused the s^d account Exhibited by another Stranger to the deceased & a person not Admittable to Swear to the s^d ano: And therefore resolved that the former Ord: of the 28th instant made in this Court should stand unrevoked

Afterwards the s^d York Exhibited an ano: of the Adm^con of the estate of Jno: Collier by Anne York the Relict and Adm^rix of John Collier and late the wife of the s^d William York and prayed to be Admitted to make oath unto it whereupon the Judge considered that in Regard the s^d York was one of the appraisers of the goods & Chattells of the s^d John Collier and shortly after marrying Anne the Relict and Adm: of the s^d Collier had managed the whole Estate of the Adm^con of the goods and Chattells of the s^d
