Memorandum

Memorandum that on Munday the second of this instant Aprill, Thomas Marquest of Charles County Exhibitted the Testament of Walter Russell late of the same County deceased bearing date 25: day of Novemb: 1675 requesting to have the same proved by the oaths of John Cassock & Charles Russell witnessed to the same Whereupon the Judge Considered that the Will had beene a long time suppressed.
& therefore required the said Thomas Marquest the Executor in the said Will named to declare upon oath whether he knew of any other Will or testament of the said Walter Russell, & the said Thomas made oath that there was another Will of the said Walter, but what was become of it he knew not.
Whereupon the Judge Called for the witness John Cassacke but he appeared not, & after for Charles Russell the other witness, who appeared, to whome were tendered the following Interrogato: ries viz Interrogatories to be propounded to the Executor & Witnesses to Walter Russell his Will
