Or testament of the deceased Walter if you doe know of any other who hath it, what date doth it beare? who hath it in his keeping? what date doth it beare, declare the whole truth.

2 – Why hath this Will or testament beene thus long concealed & never exhibitted to be proved during the life of William Russell who was heire at Law to the said Walter? declare the truth.

3 – Was Walter Russell of a sound disposing minde when he signed & published this Will or testament, or rather was he not senseless & speechless, declare the whole truth.

4 – Who hath received the Proffits of this Land since the death of Walter Russell, & who hath discharged you the tenant? declare the truth & the whole truth.

5 – Who penned this will of Walter Russell's & who Coppied it out for Walter Russell to signe? declare the truth.

And being sworne upon the holy Evange: tists to answer the truth to the severall Interrogatories he said as followeth.

To the first he saith that there was another Will of the said Walter Russell, that he thinks – thinks Cap: James Neale hath it, but what date it beares he cannot Certainly tell.

To the second he saith that he believes that Margnett would not prove the will in William Russells life time, because the truth of the case was that when William Russell went to the South ward he made a Conveyance to Walter Russell of his lands purposely to defraud Cap: James Neale & other Cred: of his: that was owing to him or them by the said William, & that (as the said William told this deponent) the said Walter had given William a bond for a Considerable summe of his: obliging himselfe amongst other things to redeliver him the said William his Lands, when he the said William should returne from the South ward, & he the said William likewise told this deponent that Cap: Josiah Fendall had the said Bond in keeping.

To the third he saith that he had formerly writ another Will for Walter Russell but that Thomas Margnett told this deponent that he had shewed the said Will to Cap: Josiah Fendall, who said that Will was not as it should be, & that the said Fendall writ another will on the back side of it, which he the said
