Whereupon the Judge aforesaid (in favour of the Orphans of the said Webb) Ordered that the said testament & testimony or Certificate thereon bee Recorded in the booke for Registring of Wills & testaments in this Court kept, but would by noe meanes approve of the said Will to bee the last will & testament of Richard Webb aforesaid deceased, but rather declared him the said Richard dead intestate & this said will Null & void, untill the orphans procure the same Will hereafter to bee proved in Common forme Legally, that the Gen Judge for probate of wills &c may pronounce in favour of the same & the said Orphans may thereby have the benefit of the Will of their said father Richard Webb deceased whose lands will else descend & fall to the vse of the first Borne of them onely, & the younger sonne must consequently suffer. —

Soe ends the Proceedings for the Yeare of our Lord god 1677