To ye fifth Interrogatory she cannot deposse

To ye sixt she deposeth that Katherine Rovell of severall times moved ~~moved~~ ye said Sara to give all she had to Andrew Jones but ye said Sara allways Refused for to doe saying ye dogs should have it ffirst or words to that effect

Dorothy Phillips produced ad Al

Witness by ye s: Rovell sworne as afores:

To ye ffirst Interrogatory sayth that she knowe ye said Sara In her life time that she was with ye said Sara three or fouer dayes before she dyed, that she dyed some time in October or November last but ye time certaine she cannot depose. That she is altogether Ignorant whether ye said Sara made any Verball Will or not but in ye Absence of Lewell Rovell her wife Katherine she heard the said Sara say that ye said Katherine had done more for her ye said Sara then her owne Mother That all she ye said sara had she thought to little to make her ye said Katherine satisfaction for what she had done for her the said Sara or words to that purpose ad noere ad ye deponent can Remember

To ye second she cannot depose

To the third she sayth that she heard Sara Jones say in ye Absence of Katherine Rovell that she would give Leonard Jones his wife a Kettycoate; but whether ~~ever~~ he said such words in the presence of ye said Katherine, or ever bid ye said Katherine give ye said Leonards wife a Kettycoate she cannot depose

To ye fourth she sayth that she cannot sweare Sara Jones sent for Katherine Rovell to attend her in her sicknes but she deposeth that she heard ye say Sara say that all she had was to little to make ye said Katherine satisfaction for ye paines she had taken about her ye said Sara or words to that effect

To ye ffifth she cannot depose further then that she heard Katherine perswade Sara to give all to Andrew Jones That then she the said sara Replyed she had Rather the dogs should have it then he That all she had was to little to make ye said Katherine satisfaccon