No before she hath deposed

To ye sixt she cannot depose upon her owne knowledge being walking abroad to quiett her child. but she heard violent words of disgust passe between Sara & Andrew but what words she cannot depose

Joane Watts produced as a Witness by ye said Rovell & sworne as afores Sayeth

That she knewe Sara Jones in her life time that ye said Sara dyed in Wicomomaco River in Sommersett County some time in October last That she was in ye Roome with Dorothy Philips & Katherine Rovell & Sara Jones about a fortnight before ye said Sara dyed that ye said Sara then sayed that all that she ye said Sara had was at Katherine Rovells disposing & that she made her ye said Katherine her full & whole Ex. That Katherine Rovell then moved ye said Sara to give her estate to her Cousin Andrew Jones, & that Sara then Replyed that she had Rather ye deed should have it then ye said Andrew because he had been so unnaturall as to keepe her husband Will from her in ye time of her sickness, & sayd all that she had was to little for ye said Katherine only desired her to see her decently buried by her deed Husband & further desired her to keepe ye Keye saying ye said Andrew would Cousen her

To ye second she cannot depose

To ye third she deposeth as she hath allready deposed to ye first Interrogatory & further that she did heard ye said Sara bid Katherine Rovell give Leonard Jones his wife a Coate & that the said Sara was at ye time she made her Verball Will as well in her sences as ever she Knew her in ye three yeares she was acquainted with her

To ye ffourth she deposeth as she hath already deposed in ye first Article & further that she heard her Mistriss Sara Jones desire Thos. Daniell to write to Katherine Rovell to tell her Knowe that she ye said Sara was sicke but whether he did write or not she cannot depose