Eodem die — The Answer of Samuell Bowy Adm. of the goods & chattells of Vincent Atchinson to the exceptions putt in by John Baker before the judge for probate of wills &c to the accompt of the said Adm.

The said Samuell by Robert Carvile his procurator says that the said Baker is not greatest creditor of the said Vincent Atchison for he says the bond & judgment thereupon for 20000 lbs debte & 552 costs in the exceptions mentioned & claimed against the estate of the said Vincent in the Adm. hands was claimed ag: the Adm. by ye fault & was a bond with condicon that the said Vincent ~~mentioned~~ ~~should~~ in his life time should make a good sale of a certaine tract of land therein mentioned which the said Vincent was allwayes ready to doe but dyed before the same could be performed having an infant heire & the intestate noues broke the condicon of the said bond & therefore ought not to charge the Adm. with the same nor ought the same to be a debt in the eyes of the law or a higher nature if the other debts really contracted be prejudiced the Adm. & other creditors, But the said John Baker hath other remedy ag: the infant heyres by a Court of Equity to have a decree for his land & barr the heyres the having paid most of the consideracon & shall remaine unpaid ought to be paid the Adm. in trust for other creditors there not being sufficient by much to satisfie to pay the creditors & the said Samuell submitts himselfe to the judgment of this

Eodem die — Certifye the debt of the said Baker ought to be paid out of the said intestates personall estate before the satisfying of small creditors & whether the debte in the exceptions mentioned ought to be satisfied

Jeffries the same — R. Carvile
