Die Lunæ: 8°

Coram Mollis

Came Coll: William Burgess of Ann Arrundell County & showed to ye Judge that James Judd late of Baltimore County doed intestate and that Martha his wife is since likewise doed whereas it appeares that ye said Judd did in his life time stand indebted unto One Robert Langley of ye Citty of London in ye Kingdome of England Merchant in ye summe of fourty seven thousand nine hundred twenty eight pounds of tobacco being due to ye said Langley by bond & whereas it appeares by Martha wife to ye: Judd that her husband did sell a parcell of land containing 300 acres: as by her estayle ye said Martha her oath taken to ye: Coll: William Burgess may appeare which ye Judge Ordered to be Recorded & ye said Burgess further showed that the said Langley made him ye said Burgess his Procurator by his Letter of Attorny which Letter ye Judge Ordered to be Recorded, and at ye same time further showed that ye said Langley was ye greatest Creditor to ye said Judd, & prayed therefore that action of ye personall estate might unto him ye said Burgess be committed to ye sole use & behoofe of ye said Langley, Ordered that ye said Burgess have action of ye personall estate of ye said deced Judd & that William Hollis & Peter Ellis do appraise ye goods & chattelles of ye said intestate they being sworne before ye Judge & ye said Burgess gave bond for 40000 pounds of tob: to ye Court & ye said Letters of Adm: immediately & ye said Letters of Adm: Warrant to be passed & ye seale of the Court

Jno Addison Cl: Cur:

Coram Lib

By this Publick instrument of procuration or Letter of Attorny be it Knowne & manifest unto all people that ony: 27 day of ye: month of March Anno dom 1679 And in ye: two & thirtieth yeare of ye Reigne of our Sovereign Lord Charles ye second King of England &c. before me George Notary & Tabellion Publick by Authority of our Sovereignt Lord ye King admitted & sworne dwelling in this Citty of London & in ye presence of ye Witnesses hereunto personally appeared Robert Langley of London aforesaid gentleman & hath made & ordained & in his stead & place doth put & constitute Coll: William Burgess living in Maryland his true & lawfull Attorny giving unto him full power & Authority and specially charge for & in ye: name & to ye use of ye said Constituant, to enter upon & take possession of any Plantacon, or plantacons, housing & fields Cattell, Chattelles slaves servants & things whatsoever, to ye said Constituant belonging & appertaining in Maryland aforesaid & ye same to manage, direct, let, set, sell, or otherwise dispose of, as shall be most conducing to ye Constituants advantage & to demand recover & receive all summe & summes of money debts tobaccos effects & things whatsoever as now are or hereafter shall be found due & owing to ye said Constituant by or from any person or persons whatsoever in ye said Province of Maryland for what cause or reason soever ye same may be nothing excepted nor reserved with all costs damages and interests to ye Recovery & receipt & acquittance or other sufficient discharge in ye name of ye said Constituant to make, subscribe, seale & deliver, & if