Testators will. If that any part of ye Moyety of ye said estate at ye time of surrendring it up to ye said Orphanto, was wanting that he would make it good to ye said Orphanto, in kind & value, & that during ye said time he would not sell or dispose any part of ye moyety of ye said estate, wch by ye Condition of ye said bond more fully appeared for which ye said Huggins did leave a very considerable estate to his wife his adm^x: who intermarried with ye said John Granger who not only wasted ye estate of ye said Orphanto but also of ye said Huggins & so thereby forfeited ye said bond of 82 ster: or 13020 of tobacco not having estate sufficient to indompnifie this Accompt^ant, & satisfie ye said bond by 7000 of tob And this Accompt^ant utterly denyes that ever any Cattle was made over to him for his security or that he has any other Remedy for ye s: debt which he was in law obliged to take to satisfie ye bond aforesaid, as by ye said Thomas is fondly & falsely suggested. This this Accompt^ant is ready to aver, & desires that ye said accompt of his ye said Cornelius as Adm: aforesaid, may be confirmed as a good & legall Acc: & that he may with his Costs against ye said Thomas for his unjust molestation be honed dismissed ye Scope of ye said Libell Appeared to be that James Jones late of Somersett County Planter Having in Anno 1673 made his last will & testam^t in writing & of ye said testam^t having Constituted Sara his wife sole Ex: & in by it devising to her the moyety of his Lands goods & Chattells (after costs payd) & ye other moyety to his Cousin Andrew Jones after fell sickness & in October anno 1677 dyed leaving ye s^d Sara in full & peaceable possession of ye s: Lands goods & Chattells that shortly after & before ye s^d Sara could prove ye said will she also fell sick & dyed in possession of ye said Lands and personall estate, & while she was of sound minde & memory made a Nuncupative will viverse & sundry times declaring that all she had was too little for ye said Katherine that she had found a mother of her ye said Katherine in ye time of her sickness that ye said Katherine should have all & thereupon did by ye said Nuncupative will Give Bequeath & leave to ye disposing of ye said Katherine as she should think fit all her personall estate surviving one-
