Dear Sir,

I have just received & read your speech in Convention on the question of representation, & take the earliest moment to thank you for it, & to express the high gratification which its perusal has afforded me.

Having read with some attention the proceedings of the Convention, which I have received from time to time, I have no hesitation in saying that, I consider yours the best speech I have yet seen on that question.

You have stated some home truths in a forcible manner & I apprehend that, some of our friends winced a little under the infliction.

You should by all means circulate it freely in the county, as it cannot fail to acquire for you
