a few nights ago, and expect to go to a Concert tonight, but you need not infer that I have become "dissipated", I am not used to late hours, and don't know that my constitution would bear the irregularities of a usual city life. The Newnan people speak of this place as "Our little Town", and sometimes as "this little Village", but I think they wouldn't relish hearing other people call it a "Village". Joe came home the other day bringing a very nice rocking chair for me. I mention the fact of his bringing it himself, to let you see he don't put on airs.

I have just returned from the parlor. Mrs. Dr. Wiley having called.

Col. Wright wraps the peaches that he ships to any distant market, I believe he does not wrap them when he ships to Atlanta, unless they are prime. He cuts the paper according to the size of the peach, a square large enough to go over the peach & to twist the four corners of the paper. He paid for a bushel of peaches the Tissue paper cost about 15 cts. He has all colors & smeares them through the boxes. He ships a great deal in pick boxes. He has not a good crop of ~~peaches~~ this year. Joe received (as I have already
