Hon. John F. Dent

My dear Sir

Yours of the 28th ult. was hailed with great pleasure by the whole family - You & Yours are often the subjects of conversation in our family circle & always remembered with pleasure & affection - I must make one exception, when I say that the whole family was pleased with your letter - as, Ann Wood was considerably disappointed not to hear special mention of her friend Beauregard - how is the dear little fellow? & how is Fannie?

It seems winter is winding up very unpleasantly - the recent storm did a good deal of mischief to the woods hereabouts. Have you ever been in these parts? I presume you have not - I wish you would pay us a visit - I think you would be pleased with the life & enterprise of the people here - though now they are suffering in common with the
