PS I neglected to mention that I had received your letter of the 3rd Inst. We were at tea when Harry came from the office with the letters; nearly all the girls expected one, but were all disappointed except me. I could scarcely keep from laughing at their long faces. I was very glad to hear that Pass wheat looked so well.

I would like very much to see aunt Eliza; give my love to her, and aunt Lelia, and aunt Virginia, but I have too many aunts to mention all their names, and had better say, give my love
