at Blue Stone, Isaac Avon Allston at All Saints, Aquilla Burroughs & others in St. Joseph's Forest. The motto of the English Flag-Ship at the battle of Trafalgar was "England expects every man to do his duty". If the laity in Christ & Queen, would help the clergyman, a rich harvest in the moral vineyard would be the result. "The parish that soweth sparingly, shall reap sparingly". I think there is a great deal of talent in Lowndes County like the diamond, in the mine, unknown and not appreciated because not developed by cultivation. The prosperity of parishes, of states, of communities, is in proportion to well-advised labor for their improvement.