Miss Mary – Aunt Lizzie asks to see me yesterday.
I leave a few lines for you.
With love from us all.
Your devoted child
Fannie.

Dear Pa

This is our first wintry day cold wind till 11 a.m. and then rain. The home had no killing frosts yet. Fannie gathered violets day before yesterday from the woods and flowers are blooming beautifully yet, while grass is still green.
Cotton nearly all out, crop fair staple good, and prices quite maintained 9 3/8 cts today. Why hands have made fair crops, but their expenses have been so great they have not made much clear
