diploma of the Lynchburg High School, studied English, Science and Arithmetic from the teacher's standpoint with us and has been a student ever since she left us.

She is a lady in every respect and a devoted Christian. She will be a valuable addition to any school in which she would be willing to undertake work.

C. S. Parrish.

(Copied.)

I was a student in the Woman's College for a year and a half; but have credit, on the books, for two years' work, hence the difference, in years, in this testimonial and Dr. Martin's.

Iva Scott Ayres.