COLLINS & HOPPER,

EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

MARK L. DAVIS, union republican, has been arrested charged with offering a bribe to Francis H. Lattomus, to secure his vote for Addicks in the recent Delaware Legislature. Davis says, not guilty.

THE BALTIMORE EVENING NEWS has at last discovered that "it is as true to-day as it ever was that the best citizenship of Baltimore is to be found in a preponderant measure in the democratic party."

MR. PARVIS, clerk to the Queen Anne board of county commissioners, is not only posted in keeping the county's finances straight, but is one of the most generally well-informed citizens of Queen Anne in regard to affairs political. He visited Chestertown on Thursday.

MR. JAMES T. IRELAND, of the third district, was in town on Tuesday, and formally announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for county treasurer. This places two candidates in the field for this place, Mr. Ireland and Commissioner George W. Hatcherson.

IT WAS POSITIVELY STATED on Tuesday, by a close personal friend of Mr. Frank P. Cochran, of the Galena precinct of the first district, that Mr. Cochran is a candidate for the nomination for the Legislature. It spite of the storm, politics had their inning on Tuesday, and several other rumored candidates were given out, but could not be verified.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER J. E. GEORGE, of Queen Anne, was in Chestertown on Thursday. Mr. George is a candidate for the Queen Anne clerkship, and is storming the political fortresses all along the line. The present clerk, Mr. W. H. Cecil, is one of the shrewdest politicians in the county, is popular and is strongly entrenched in the office which he has so efficiently filled.

IF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY and Secretary Alger really wanted to "rest up and recuperate," a few days spent picnicing along the fighting line in front of the Philippine insurgents, would not have been a bad idea. The soldiers at the front would doubtless gladly have shared with the distinguishad humanitarian's from Washington the pleasure of a few days spent in the "peaceful assimilation" of the Filipinos.

THOMAS G. HAYES enjoyed a sweeping victory in the democratic primaries in Baltimore on Tuesday. The fight was between Mr. Hayes and seven-time-mayor, Ferdinand C. Latrobe. The Hayes vote was 29,011; Latrobe vote, 2,971; total, $34,998. Mr. Hayes' nomination for the mayoralty under the new charter is assured, and no stronger choice could have been made. He is a winner and the moral effect of his election will be worth 10,000 votes to the democratic State ticket next fall.

THE IRRIDESCENT Reverend Samuel P. Jones has been telling Baltimore city Republicans some plain truths. During a visit last week, as with a voice of prophecy, he thus forecasts democratic success in the May elections: "The republicans are in now, and the democrats are outside pawing at the door, and I believe they are going to turn their kicking end to the door in a few weeks and kick it down and go in. You used to say that the democrats were running Maryland to the devil, and you wanted the republicans to redeem it. Look here, Brother Wharton, has it been redeemed? Is this salvation? If it is, get down on your knees and pray for damnation as hard as you can."

THE OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES of the Chestertown Ladies' Improvement Association will be in session to-day for the purpose of discussing a general plan for their spring campaign for town improvement. If not entirely out of order, the TRANSCRIPT would suggest that the subject of a street sprinkler be given a prominent place in the deliberations. In point of real importance this is a matter of first consideration. During the long, dusty months of summer a sprinkler would not only add to the comfort of every citizen of Chestertown, irrespective of age or other condition, but from a sanitary standpoint would be of inestimable benefit to the children of the town, saving doctors' bills and in some cases life itself. Will the town commissioners aid the ladies in securing a suitable place for the unsightly old engine house which continues to mar the rapidly developing beauty of one of the squares already greatly improved? If possible this old house should be removed to a less conspicuous place. It is hoped that the citizens of the town will make a prompt and substantial response to the sprikler fund should that good work be started, and it is expected that it will be.

WITH THE CONSTANT filling of the political field with candidates, the subject of a date for holding the democratic primaries has come in for consideration. It is reported that some aspirants demand very late primaries. The subject is of course of extreme importance, and it is safe to say will be so treated by the central committee. A happy mean between the very early and the very late demands would be the safest course and deal out equal justice to all parties. The present situation is one fraught with extreme danger to the democracy. A long, and it is feared, a bitter campaign, is on, and it behooves every democrat to guard against unnecessary complications so far as is possible. The success of the democracy should be placed superior to personal preferences or the claims of individuals. With equal justice shown to every aspirant for place on the ticket, with a clean and generous fight based upon the merit of the respective candidates, the primary campaign should close with such evident harmony existing as to insure success in November. It is an open secret that Kent county republicans are hopelessly divided into warring factions, and their effort to incite democratic wrangles is simply to conceal the weakness within their own lines.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

STORY OF A FOXHOUND.

How He Chased A Fox In Harford County For Thirty Hours—A Famous Hunter.

Messrs. Editors:—"The story of a fox hunt in Kentucky published in your Friday's edition calls my memory to a similar performance that was accomplished years ago in this State, and I think the more remarkable as it occurred in the summer time. On the morning of the 3rd of July, 1859, as the hands of my father's property, at the head of Bush River, in Harford County, were about to commence for the day cutting wheat, a single hound was seen and heard crossing the farm in full cry after a fox. He was seen and heard repeatedly during the day as he crossed and recrossed the place. At supper time and at bedtime, and when we arose in the morning of the 4th he was heard coming again. By this time his movements and cry had begun to excite surprise and our interest but the peculiar yelp, which is such sweet music to all hunters, was perceptably lessened and his run across the field very slow. He no longer attempted to climb fences but found holes to crawl through. He was heard feebly during that morning still evidently after a fox, and at noon as the men were on their way to dinner he was met crossing their path from a strip of wood with a slow staggering gait and pitiful whine which so appealed to one of our colored servants that he gathered him up in his arms, carried him to the barn and cared for him until he was fully recovered. He was constantly on the run from shortly after 6 o'clock on the morning of the 3d until after 12 o'clock noon of the 4th of July, a period of thirty hours, to our certain knowledge. You will undestand he was a strange dog to all that part of the county and had no doubt been running some hours before coming to our section. His owner and breeding place were never known, which would not have been the case had he been a lower Harford dog, for, he became notorious in all the tide water section. His repeated performances were marvelous. He could always pick up a lost scent, by which means he invariably became the leader of the pack. I have known him to run the top rail of a wormfence across a 30-acre field, showing that the fox had gone that way. Taking into consideration the season and the fact that he was totally unknown in the county, having no assistance nor encouragement whatever in the way of a pacemaker or company makes his run as long and endurance as wonderful as the Kentucky dog. A pair of his descendants took second prize at the first Bench Show held in the city, of which Major T. A. Symington was one of the judges of the fox hound class."—THOMAS H. MCGAW, in the Baltimore Sun.

In next week's TRANSCRIPT will be given an account of an even more wonderful performance. If any Kent county dog can compete with the Harford countian, let us hear from him.

KENNEDYVILLE NEWS.

An interesting meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church on Saturday last, for the purpose of reorganizing the Loyal Temperance Legion. The meeting was opened by singing, "Cold Water for Me," followed by concert exercise and the Lord's prayer. Next was singing, "America." Mrs. Helen G. Rice was then introduced and gave an interesting talk to the children. It was decided to hold the meetings on Friday, immediately after school. The choir then sang "Ring the Joybells," and the meeting was dismissed.

On Sunday, March 26th, we had the pleasure of listening to Mrs. Helen G. Rice, at the Methodist Protestant Church. The meeting was opened by singing, "Sound the Battle Cry," followed by prayer by the pastor. The choir sang "Dare to Say No," which was followed by scripture reading by Rev. J. H. Daugherty. The audience was then favored with a trio, "Lend a Hand," by Misses E. L. VanDyke, S. B. McKnett and Mr. W. T. Hague. The speaker of the evening was then introduced, and entertained the audience with an interesting talk on "The Temperance Question," from the standpoint of the children. She gave vivid pictures of the influence of the home, the church, the Sunday school, and of father and mother. She also requested the people to be very careful to see that the children attend the Loyal Temperance Legion. "Toil Away" was then sung by the choir. Four new members were received. The Temperance Doxology was sung by the congregation, and the meeting dismissed with the benediction.

Little Miss Helen Bull has been suffering considerably from a very sore throat, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Thomas Redmile has returned from a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. Chas. A. Herzog.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sanders and daughter, Mildred, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. H. S. Redmile.

An enjoyable birthday social was given Miss Lizzre B. Powell, on Thursday evening, March 23rd. Quite a number were present from Kennedyville, Morgnec and other points.

Miss E. L. VanDyke is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, near Tolchester.

Miss Lillian Busick, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mrs. E. B. Pennington.

SICESERNO.

FROM ROCK HALL.

Lent is nearly over, and on Sunday morning the bells will chime and glad voices will be raised in song in honor of a risen Lord. Little children will be taught that Good Friday and Easter Monday mean something more than a holiday from school; taught to look down into the grave, and then up, up above and beyond the grave to the great white throne where the crucified and risen Savior ever liveth to make intercession for us.

We hope to have Rev. Outten preach for us next Sunday, though we now know he has been transferred to a new charge for the coming year, and we must accustom ourselves to a new face in the pulpit, a new voice proclaiming the word of God.

The Sabbath school children will give some special recitations and songs in the evening. At Wesley Chapel the principal Easter services will be in the morning.

The Y will hold a parlor social at Miss Oneida Maslin's on Thursday evening. A very nice programme has been arranged, and all are invited to attend. Each one present is usually expected to contribute five cents, which is used in some way for the advancement of temperence.

Messrs. John Dowling and Charles Davis are quite sick at their respective homes.

Mary, the little daughter of Mr. Wm. Boyer, who has been suffering for several weeks with extreme nervousness, has been taken to Baltimoae for medical attention.

We regret to learn that Mamie V., the interesting daughter of Mr. Jos. Lewis, of Edesville, died last Saturday. The funeral was conducted by Rev. C. K. McCaslin, and the body was committed to the earth in the beautiful cemetery at Wesley Chapel. Mr. Lewis and family recently removed from Chestertown, but their present neighbors sympathize with them in their loss.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds, that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by M. A. Toulson, druggis'.

Edgar McJohnson

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county of which Mary Ellen Johnson, late of Kent county, deceased, deceased, seized and possessed.

The bill further states that Mary Ellen Johnson, late of Kent county, deceased, was in her lifetime seized and possessed of a certain house and lot of land known as "The Gum Tree Lot," situated in the village of Millington, in Kent county; that having departed this life on or about the 5th day of December, 1885, intestate, her husband, James Johnson, surviving her, was entitled to a life estate therein, but recently the said James Johnson hath departed this life, whereupon his life estate closed, and upon the death in January, 1898, of the said James Johnson, the children and heirs-at-law of the said Mary Ellen Johnson became entitled to their interests as tenants in common, in and to the said house and lot of land.

And the bill further states that the following children and heirs-at-law were left by the said Mary Ellen Johnson, namely: Edgar McJohnson, Willard J. Johnson, Susan E. Johnson, all of them adults above the age of 21 years, and George S. Johnson, Mary J. Johnson and Martha E. Johnson, infants under the age of 21 years, and these are the only children and heirs-at-law of said Mary Ellen Johnson.

That a partition of said property among the parties entitled thereto according to their several interests as aforesaid cannot be made without material loss and injury to them.

To the end, therefore, that the real estate of Mary Ellen Johnson be sold for an equitable division among the aforesaid heirs.

It is thereupon, this 3d day of March, 1899, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a court of equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks before the 10th day of April, 1899, next, give notice to the said non-resident defendants, Willard J. Johnson, Susan E. Johnson and Mary J. Johnson, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in person or by solicitor on or before the 27th day of April next, to show cause, if any they may have, why a decree ought not be passed as prayed.
