"KEY HOLE CHARLEY WILSON" says that Baltimore will give Malster for mayor, a majority of six thousand. The democrats claim a majority ranging from ten thousand up to twenty thousand.

REPUBLICAN POLITICIANS in Baltimore seem to be dealing largely in campaign reacting boomerangs. The Wellington speech and the Hayes arrest have already cost the G. O. P. many valuable votes and victory.

SO FAR AS COULD BE LEARNED after consulting many prominent democrats, a date between June fifteenth and twentieth is most popular for the primaries. That should certainly be sufficiently protracted for the present primary campaign.

THE APPOINTMENT of a successor to Postmaster Lucas remains "held up." Maybe the campaign bonus of two hundred dollars made a condition precedent to appointment is not considered adequate, and the outrage is to be heightened by an increased demand.

MALSTER MONEY in Baltimore is shy. Up to this time no bet has been taken except on odds. Considerable republican cash has come out but has been scared back by shadows of approaching defeat. One Malster champion has put up $1400 against $2000, and another has staked $500 even money that Mr. Hayes will not win by 3000 majority.

EDWIN H. BROWN AND J. H. C. LEGG, of the Centreville bar, were in Chestertown on Monday, and on Tuesday Col. W. Scott Roberts, of the Record, and Editor William J. Price, of the Observer, were in town. All of these gentlemen report an animated campaign as being on in Queen Anne, but were extremely non-committal as regards the outlook. It it stated, not by the gentlemen from Centreville, but by others, that Queen Anne will place Dr. R. M. Price in the field for the Comptrollership.

GENERAL LAWTON, the Indian fighter who is conducting the campaign against the Filipinos in the Philippines, states that it will require one hundred thousand men to hold the Islands and suppress the insurrection. The estimate that it costs one thousand dollars per man each year to keep our army in the Philippines, gives the snug sum of one hundred million a year as the size of the "white man's burden" in the Philippines alone. The sentimental idea of humanity will not stand this severe test through more than three rainy seasons.

THE GREATEST POLITICAL ACTIVITY has marked the present week. The bright days of Monday and Tuesday brought representative citizens to town from every section of the county, and a general discussion of the situation has taken place. No important change has taken place other than the withdrawal of Mr. William Steele from the commissioner's contest in the first district. Mr. Steele stated on Tuesday that it had never been his intention to complicate matters or jeopardize party success, and rather than contribute to the embarrassments of the work of making a winning ticket he had decided to withdraw and lend his every energy to the matter of selecting the strongest ticket possible for the great battle of November. It is hoped that the political horizon will continue to clear as the time for the primaries approaches.

FROM WORTON.

The remains of Mrs. Mattie Barber, of Philadelphia, were brought to this place Friday on the train and interred in the Union M. E. burying ground. A large crowd of mourning friends and relatives met the body at the Union M. E. Church, where the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Merritt. Mrs. Barber was formerly a Miss Wood, a sister to Mrs. James Lecates and Mr. William Wood, of this county, and was about thirty years old. She died of pneumonia and leaves a husband, and one daughter about 12 years old, to mourn her loss.

Mr. George Rash, a popular young farmer of near here, gave us all quite a surprise on Wednesday night of last week by taking to himself a bride, Miss Lilly Crew, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Crew, near Chestertown. The ceremony was quietly performed at the home of the bride's parents in the midst of only a few intimate friends of the family.

The Sunday school at both churches were organized on last Sunday and it is to be hoped a good attendance will be present every Sunday.

Catts' Corner school celebrated Arbor Day in its usual pleasant manner. The singing was very good, while the speaking was elegant. Cake and lemonade were served in abundance to the large assembly. Three trees were planted, Maryland, Dewey and Katherine.

Mrs. Geo. Bolton, of Centreville, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Hudson, of this place.

Mrs. Fiddis, of Kennedyville, is the guest of Mrs. James Sheats, of Worton.

Mrs. Edward Newsome, of Chestertown, has been the guest of her mother in this place.

Farmers are availing themselves of the good weather by getting their ground in order to plant corn.

Mr. Ellwood Harris has the prettiest field of wheat in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Ashley and sister, Mrs. Nan Smith, have returned from a visit to friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Matthews and daughter, Miss Susie, have also returned from a trip to the Monumental city.

Mr. Frank Rouse, Misses Mary Cooper, and Blanche Duyer have been appointed delegates to attend the Y. W. C. T. rally to be held at Pomona on Friday, to-morrow.

Miss Helen LeCompt spent last week with friends in Millington.

Mrs. George Ashley has returned to her home in Rock Hall after a pleasant visit to her parents in this village.

TUESDAY.

A case of peculiar interest to farmers and sheep raisers was decided by the circuit court for Kent county on Tuesday. The case was appealed from B. N. S. Wilkins, J. P. This case at least established the important point as to whether the wool always goes with the sheep in the absence of a specific contract to the contrary. The points involved in the case were about as follows: Mr. John A. Bottomley, a stock buyer of Millington, contracted on May 11th, 1898, with Mr. John W. Corey for the purchase of a flock of sheep. Nothing was said either in the written agreement or verbally relative to the wool and no money was paid on the contract. The contract contained the provision that the sheep should be taken away within thirty days after the sale of the lambs from the sheep. Between the date of the original contract and the shearing of the sheep Mr. Bottomley waited upon Mr. Corey and informed him that he considered that the wool was his (Bottomley's) and that if Mr. Corey would shear it for him he would bear the expense. Mr. Corey said he would "see about it." Subsequently, on August 4th, when Bottomley demanded the delivery of the sheep Corey informed him that he would not deliver the sheep if he, Bottomley, demanded the wool, although Bottomley had on that day paid for the sheep.

The written agreement in the case was "This may certify that I have sold to J. A Bottomley a flock of 26 short wool sheep: at $3.00 per head, to be delivered at any time after lambs have been taken away, and am obligated to keep them not more than thirty days after removal of lambs."

The case was tried before the court and was submitted without the examination of witnesses. R. D. Hynson for Bottomley, M. deK. Smith for Corey.

Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad vs. Dr. J. H. Kelley. At the time of the fatal accident last year, when a repair train on the B. & D. B. R. R., plunged into a bridge near Kennedyville resulting in the death of one man and the injury of several others, Dr. Kelley was summoned to the scene of the accident, and also treated the injured men at Kennedyville. The physician later handed in a bill for professional services to the railroad authorities, which they refused to pay. The case was tried before the court and hung on the point that Dr. Kelley had not been summoned by an official of the railroad, and in consequence could not hold the company responsible though the services were rendered to their employees. The case was tried before the court, which decided in favor of the railroad. M. deK. Smith, for Dr. Kelley; W. M. Slay, for railroad.

Grand jury brought in the following presentments: Capt. T. D. Gibbons and schooner Lawrence F. Corbett, Capt. Fred Walters and schooner Martha A. Jones, Capt. Anthony Pendergist and boat Eliza E. Ballard; two against Isaac J. Jones, one each against Joseph W. Johnson, J. Henry Potts, alias Grant Potts, and Alexander Britton.

Grand jury returned true bill against John Wesley Johnson.

WEDNESDAY.

George B. Westcott vs. R. F. Parks, garnishe of Rachel C. Clayton and Edward E. Clayton. Court trial; verdict for plaintiff.

The case of Wm. E. Cacy vs. Edward G. Crippen for damages, was on trial before a jury when court adjourned.

The case of State vs. J. H. Ruth charged with assault and battery upon N. S. Bogle was dismissed.

In the cases of Thomas Lamb and several others, referred to last week, the parties waived a hearing and took their cases to the circuit court.

Grand jury brought in presentments against Benjamin Jones and Wesley Hynson, and returned true bills against J. H. Potts, Isaac J. Jarves (in two cases), and Alexander Birton.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

Sheep Shearing Notice.

Having bought a Stewart's patent sheep shearer, I wish to offer my services to the public. By this devise it is possible to shear a sheep in ten minutes. The principle upon which the shearer works is that of the clipper for horses. By it there is no loss of wool, no clipping of sheep, a saving all round. It is estimated that a half pound of wool is saved to the farmer with each fleece, and taking into consideration my charge, FIVE CENTS PER SHEEP, the farmer really has his sheep sheared without cost. This method is really a money saver to the farmer. For further particulars address me at Rock Hall, Kent County, Md.

The Second National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

We repectfully solicit your account with The Second National of Chestertown.

The Security we offer our Depositors is Capital Stock,	$50,000
Liability of Stockholders under National Bank Act,	50,000
Surplus,	12,000
Net Undivided Profits,	4,000
Total Security to Depositors	$116,000

Our depositors are further assured of the security offered by semi-annual examinations of the condition of our Bank made by the National Bank Examiner, who reports the result of his examination to the Comptroller of the National Treasury; and thus compels all National Banks to observe the laws of conservative banking in accordance with the Acts of Congress governing all such banks.

The affairs of the Bank have never been in a more flourishing condition than now; 1898 was the most prosperous year in the history of the Bank.

The terms upon which we will open interest-bearing accounts with our depositors are as follows:

In this Savings Department, deposits will be received upon the following terms, conditions and agreement:

Interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum will be allowed on deposits for every calendar month they may be continued, computing from the first day of the month succeeding the deposit, but to avoid tedious calculations on small sums, none will be estimated for any fractional part of a month, nor will interest be allowed on a sum less than five dollars and multiples thereof. No interest will be paid when an account has not been continued with the department four calendar months. The year will be divided into two interest periods, ending on the last days of May and November; at the end of each period the interest due will be added to the depositor's account and so become a part of the principal.

Parents may deposit for their children and guardians for their wards, and if desired at the time of the deposit, may subject the same to the control of such parent or guardian.

Depositors shall have the right to withdraw their deposit at any time by giving one month's notice in writing, of their intention; but this notice may be dispensed with in the direction of the President or Cashier, and the same be paid on demand.

The Board of Directors may, at their discretion, return any deposit, giving one month's notice, the interest to be calculated to the time of the expiration of such notice, and no longer.

Every person on opening an account in this department shall be furnished with a book containing a deplicate of the account, in which the deposits and the payments shall be entered as soon as made, and it will be necessary for the book to be brought to the bank every time a deposit is made, or money withdrawn, so that the transaction may be regularly entered. In all cases where the whole amount is drawn out, the book must be given up to the Bank.

No money shall be paid except to the person having the legal right to the deposit, or to his or her order, which order must be witnessed by some respectable person, other than the one in whose favor the order is drawn, and must always be accompanied by the book.

In any case where the book is lost the depositor must notify the Bank of such loss; and where the depositor's signature is made by a cross-mark, the Bank will not be responsible for payment to a wrong person producing the book, in cases where the book has been lost and no notice given thereof.

If a deposit book be lost, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from any depositor, immediate notice thereof must be given to the officers of the Bank, and, after a sufficient publication of said loss and satisfactory surety be given to the Bank a duplicate book will be issued.

Possession of the book of deposit shall be evidence of ownership thereof to authorize the payment of money due thereon, and although the Bank will endeavor to prevent fraud on its depositors, yet all payments which shall be made by the Bank to any person producing the book of a depositor shall be valid as against the depositor, and a full and effectual release therefor to the Bank.

The above is a statement of the condition of the Bank at the close of business on April 5th, 1899.

We solicit your account, whether large or small. If you have never opened an account with us we shall be pleased to receive your patronage. If you at any time desire loans in large or small amounts, we will make every possible endeavor to accommodate you with a large or small sum.

Yours very respt.,

State Board of Health.

VACCINATION ORDINANCE.

In Effect on and After April 1st, 1899.

BY VIRTUE of authority conveyed in Section 8 of Article 43, Code of Public General Laws 1898, title "Health," it is ordered by the STATE BOARD OF HEALTH that on and after April 1st, 1899, no SMALL-FRUIT GROWER, CANNER, TRUCK-FARMER, or FISH PACKER shall take into his employ any person or persons who do not show proof of vaccination of more recent date than July, 1898. Any person or persons violating this law shall be fined not less than 50 nor exceeding 500 dollars.

JOHN S. FULTON, SEC'Y.

Passed March 9th, 1899. Section 8 of Article 43, Code of Public General Laws is as follows;

Whenever the State Board of Health shall have cause to believe that there is any danger of cholera, small-pox or other dangerous infectious disease invading this State or country, it shall be the duty of the said Board to take such action and adopt and enforce such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary to prevent the introduction or spread of such infectious or dangerous disease within this State, and any person or persons or corporation refusing or neglecting to obey such rules and regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor exceeding five hundred dollars for every such offense.

OFFICE LOCAL BOARD OF HEALTH FOR KENT COUNTY.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., April 11th, 1899.

The recent order passed by the State Board of Health concerning Vaccination was made necessary by the increasing number of cases of small-pox, largely due, it is believed, by importation, several places in Pennsylvania, Washington, D. C., Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., being especially dangerous points. The season is drawing near when "foreign labor" comes into Kent for various purposes and it is feared these persons will bring the contagion with them as they are and have been exposed daily. The Virginia colored labor comes into Anne Arundel County; the Bohemians from Baltimore go to the same county and mix with them, so with the Baltimore county labor, from the berry farms, truck farms, etc., they come to the packing houses and farms of Kent. So it is really this class that must be watched closely. Any farmer, factory owner, canner, or anyone employing labor that comes from a distance is required to have said laborer show a certificate of Vaccination since July, 1898, and failing to so inquire subjects any such employer to a penalty. If he finds such labor unable to comply he must at once communicate with the nearest doctor and have him vaccinated, if he is too poor to pay them it may be charged to the county, as required by law; and he must be sure that he has been either successfully vaccinated or proved immune by repeated trials. No certificate should be given such labor until absolute proof of protection is furnished the doctor. It is not thought necessary to have all our home labor vaccinated at this time, though if small pox appears such should be done. I shall endeavor to inspect the factories and canneries when possible. The family physician has authority to vaccinate; whenever possible the fee should be paid by the party being vaccinated, or by the employer, who may reimburse himself from the wages; when not able to pay it may be charged to the county as mentioned above.
