

TO CLEAN CARPETS.

If you have a carpet that looks dingy and you wish to restore it to its original freshness, make a stiff lather of Ivory Soap and warm water and scrub it, width by width, with the lather. Wipe with a clean damp sponge. Do not apply more water than necessary.

The vegetable oils of which Ivory Soap is made, and its purity, fit it for many special uses for which other soaps are unsafe and unsatisfactory.

"APRILETTES"

Tree-pruners are at work everywhere.

Now for strawberries and cream as a charming breakfast disb.

Camphor balls are the thing for drug-store display about this time.

It seems a year, almost, since we had that awful blizzard, doesn't it?

The man with sods for sale goes from house to house and lawn to lawn.

Flower gardens begin to take on shape and form, in myriad hues and colors.

Already does the pioneer housefly make his appearance, with great show of buzzing.

This is the seedman's busy time, and likewise the season of experimentation among amateur gardeners.

Perhaps the reason we are escaping those April showers is that we got them all in March—so the May flowers can't be very far away.

The summer soft-drink "boomers" will shortly begin their season's campaign of extending their trade in Sassaparillas, root beer and the like.

The man who laughs at the suburbanite all through the hard, cold winter now begins to envy him his cool porch, his lawn, and shade trees.

LATEST IDEAS IN EVENING AND WALKING GOWNS.

Lace Coats and Bodices—The Sheath Fitting Skirt Has Reached Its Limit—Serviceable, Plain Tailor Costumes—Buttons on Sleeves.

As to the materials which will be employed for evening dresses, lace and spangled net seem to have taken complete possession of the field and to have bewitched the modistes and designers until all other fabrics are cast somewhat into the shade, and, after all, nothing is lovelier than lace, whether for day or evening wear, nothing more easily adaptable, nothing more universally becoming.

Overbodices of lace and lace coats promise to figure among the most chic styles, and every woman who can do so is likely to provide one of these dainty garments, which can be used over high or low bodices or over fitted glace silks, to vary the color and accord with the skirt selected. It is surprising the amount of variety obtained by a lace coat or overbodice or a fanciful waistcoat and stock of lace.

Although Parisian models show the separate tunic, overskirts or polonaise, fashion still clings to the plain skirt also, ignoring the elaborate separate arrangements.

It is tolerably certain that we have arrived at the extreme limit to the sheath fitting skirts. Tight they certainly will be; but, although closely shaped and without a scrap of perceptible fullness, the top will cover the figure plainly without straining round it, and this will undoubtedly prove more generally becoming.

At the left in the first cut is shown a plain cloth, worn with a checked coat opening over a white cloth vest. This would work out effectively in brown. The pretty princess tunic is of deep violet cloth over gray. While many of the cloth costumes are very fanciful, as these indicate, the neat, plain tailor made skirt and coat remain as good style as ever and a boon to the woman of limited wardrobe. A soft taffeta lining throughout will be the correct thing this season, it is said, for cloth gowns rather than the separate silk foundation skirt which is used for the thinner materials. The elegant little directoire coat of the second cut is of black satin lined with sulphur and pink brocade and completed by handsome wheel paste buttons and jabots of fine old lace. A silk beaver composes the hat, which is simply decked with a huge rosette of creamy lace and a black paradise plume.

A whisper has gone forth that the irrepressible line of small buttons is to be eliminated from the back of the fashionable skirt and quietly relegated to the back of the tight fitting sleeves. Up to the depth of the elbow we have already called in the aid of these invaluable adjuncts, but the continuance beyond that point is a modistic conceit, the fate of which rests with the future.

Parsnip Balls.

Mash fine one pint of boiled parsnips, add two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, a high seasoning of salt and pepper and two tablespoonfuls of cream. Stir over the fire until very hot, take off and add one well beaten egg. When cold, make up into small balls, dip into beaten egg, roll in bread crumbs and fry brown.

The Sure La Grippe Cure.

There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your liver, Stomach and Kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at M. A. Toulson's Drug Store only 50 cents per bottle.

A Disagreeable Neighbor.

"I notice a coolness between you and Mrs. Nexdore. What is the trouble?"

"She sent her little boy over yesterday for a stepladder we borrowed of her two years ago. The artful woman let it stay here all that time so she could send for it some day and make me feel cheap."—Chicago Tribune.

In London no fewer than 188,000 people live four and more to the room, and of these 3,000 are packed to the extent of eight or more to the room.

CORN AND TOMATOES.

We are also prepared to fill orders for special mixtures for all crops, POTATOES, OATS, ASPARAGUS, GENERAL TRUCK, PEAR and PEACH TREES, etc.

In consequence of the prevalence of late years of insects and worms destructive to the spring crops, we use in all of our Spring goods an insecticide which will tend to check the ravages of these pests.

All of these goods will be in first-class condition, and can be used in any machine without becoming pasty and sticky. Only the best materials obtainable will be used in their composition. They have been used by a number of our prominent farmers for the past seven years, and in all cases have given satisfactory results. We would be glad to refer intending purchasers of Fertilizers to the parties who have used them. All our brands of goods are prepared under the personal supervision of Mr. P. B. Hollis, who is well-known in this community as an experienced agricultural chemist.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Give to recreation what is fit, but by all means keep sacred God's time.—Rev. S. A. Northrop, Kansas City

Knows God.

He who knows Jesus Christ knows God, and he only does.—Rev. Dr. Behrends, Congregationalist, Brooklyn.

A Strong City.

God with man makes him a strong city; man without God is a ruined city.—Rev. W. H. Carwardine, Methodist, Chicago.

Church of Christ.

Pure hearts and clean hands upbuild the cause and church of Christ, Scientist.—Dr. Alfred Farlow, Christian Scientist, Kansas City.

Christ in Social Life.

The true test of the proper character of social pleasures is whether we would like to have Christ with us.—Rev. T S. Brown, Lutheran, Alleghany City

The National Idea.

The American national idea is personal liberty, the liberty of the individual man because he is man.—Dr Conaty, Roman Catholic, Catholic University, Washington

Life's True Satisfaction.

Life's true satisfaction is in God only, and the reason so many find so little comfort and real happiness in life is because they fail to realize their dependence upon God.—Rev. David M. Skilling, Presbyterian, Pittsburg

Joy of Salvation.

Salvation enriches the individual with a peace and joy and hope that nothing else in this world can give. Salvation satisfies the soul, cleanses from sin, gives hope of heaven and brings heaven down to earth.—Rev Paul C. Curnick, Methodist, Cincinnati Theosophists.

Theosophists are as much fatalists as are Mohammedans. There is an iron law of remorseless necessity, of unchanging and unchangeable force. There is no possibility of setting fate aside. The only thing you can do is to submit.—Dr Dillie, Methodist, Oakland, Cal

A Character.

Three things will build up a character—the refusing to do wrong, the acceptance of the Divine Providence and the practicing of his will. These will make a character conforming to the will of God, and such a conformance is heaven, and abideth forever.—Rev Wayland Hoyt, Baptist, Minneapolis

Detraction.

Some sins may be peculiar to certain professions, to certain times, to certain places. Detraction presents itself to all professions, in all ages and in all places. It is evil in itself and in its motives. Envy, jealousy, hatred, pure malice, these are the motives of detraction.—Father Duboise, Roman Catholic, San Francisco

The Power of the Church.

There is in the church a power which tells men what to believe in a very dogmatic way. This power is infallible, being the voice of the Holy Ghost. Freedom of conscience is a gigantic error. God has a right to regulate what men should think and man is amenable in his thought only to God.—Rev. Dr Breen, Roman Catholic, Rochester Jesus.

Almost from the beginning his disciples discovered that there was something in this man Jesus entirely different from what they had been accustomed to, and their whole effort seemed to be to find that, to understand it. He was a mystery to them. He was a mystery to his own mother.—Rev. J. P Egbert, Congregationalist, Minneapolis.

A Child of God.

If man is a child of God and heir to the eternities, if the world, with all its brilliancies, passeth away with the desire thereof, then, as a practical business proposition brought down to the level of the ordinary calculations of everyday transactions, the question carries with it its own answer.—Rev. B E Howard, Congregationalist, Los Angeles

The Old, Old Past.

As we read the story of the sorrows of other days, we feel how like they are to our sorrows, we feel drawn nearer to the old, old past. 'Tis almost present; we almost touch their hands. Let us carry the past with us as we go forward, as Israel carried the bones of Joseph when they went from the land of Egypt.—Rabbi M H Harris, Hebrew, New York

Backbone of All Character.

Veracity is the backbone and foundation of character; other good traits are the ribs. If I were permitted to do one thing for a man, and but one, I would make him absolutely sincere and unquestionably veracious. This maintained in its integrity makes everything else possible in character building; without it a man's life is like a ship without a keel, a building without a foundation.—Rev Dr John A B Wilson, Methodist, San Francisco

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhœa. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A STROUD, Pocomoke City, Md. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

The Face of Christ.

It would be impossible, for example, to picture the Christ as other than attractive in feature. To depict him with a countenance which indicated selfishness or cunning would be an insult to the law that never allows an ignoble expression to symbolize a noble heart and life. The face of Christ is the despair of artists because it is difficult to paint a portrait in which a child's gentleness is conjoined with a giant's strength.—George H. Hepworth, Congregationalist, New York.

"As if a brick were lying in my stomach" is a description by a dyspeptic of his feeling after eating.

This is one of the commonest symptoms of indigestion. If you have it, take Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Not only this syptom, but all the symptoms of indigestion are cured by Shaker Digestive Cordial.

So many medicines to cure this one disorder. Only one that can be called successful, because only one that acts in a simple, natural, and yet scientific way. Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Purely vegetable, and containing no dangerous ingredients, Shaker Digestive Cordial tones up, strengthens, and restores to health all the degestive organs.

Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle.

Valuable Skimmilk.

An experiment at the Kansas station with three lots of pigs of six each shows excellent returns from feeding skimmilk as compared with alfalfa and cottonseed meal. They were fed all the ground Kaffir corn they would eat in addition to the other feeds. The skimmilk lot ate 40 per cent more grain and gained 2.43 pounds per day each against .88 pounds for the alfalfa lot and .95 pounds for the cottonseed meal lot.

SORE LUNGS

Sore lungs, pain in the chest and painful breathing are quickly relieved and cured by the old reliable specific, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
