A PROMINENT Kent county republican leader places Mr. Hayes' majority at two thousand five hundred. His figures for the democratic ticket in Kent are not ready for publication.

CECIL COUNTY DEMOCRATS are the first in the field with their primaries. May the sixth has been designated for the primary fight and May the ninth for the nominating convention.

IN VIEW OF THE PREVALENCE of reputed cases of hydrophobia in Kent during the past several years, the account on the first page of this issue, of the Micou Madstone, will be found of peculiar interest.

THOMAS IRELAND ELLIOTT, city solicitor during the administration of Mayor Hooper, is one of the prominent Baltimore republicans who has taken the stump for Mr. Hayes, the democratic nominee for Mayor. Mr. Elliott is a frequent visitor to H. W. Vickers, and has many friends in the county. Mr. Elliott declares that good government this time is not to be found in republican success.

THE TRIAL OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA LYNCHERS of the negro postmaster has resulted in a hung jury. President McKinley is morally responsible for the brutal murder of the colored postmaster and his family as well as for other outrages of a similar character. Though patient and long-suffering, the chivalrous Southron long ago demonstrated the fact that there is a point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and resentment steps in to right the wrong.

THE PRESENCE of several paid detectives has awakened no small degree of interest and some excitement during the present session of the circuit court. It would appear from the record of convictions that the paid detective has not proved to be a solution to the problem of an enforcement of the local option law. One thing is evident, and that one thing is that something is radically wrong. The persistent and flagrant violations of the local option law have become a stench in the public nostrils, and a halt should, and doubtless will, sooner or later, be called. If the law is wrong, repeal it, but since it is law it should be upheld and enforced, it matters not who may suffer. The law and order and good name of the community should never be sacrificed that the violator of law may carry on his nefarious practices. Either down with the law or down with the violator.

THE BLOCKADE has been raised and republican office seekers are now allowed to make their wants known. The first official announcement made is that of Justice of the Peace John E. Beck, for the Legislature. Now, Mr. Joseph Downey is known to have had his weather eye on this place and it remains to be seen whether or not Judge Beck is to be allowed an unchallenged call to Annapolis. Supervisor John J. Blackiston, one of the recognized champions of Mr. Westcott in the fifth district, it is claimed, got in some fine political work during the blizzard and has a stock of bottled up mid-winter frost with which to nip the political buds of hope of certain gentlemen in his section. On the other hand it is stated that the distinguished member of the board of election supervisors will have his frost supply knocked into smithereens by an abundant application of liquid air. Ex-Sheriff James A. Casey and his friends are ready for action. The ex-Sheriff's ambitions for the treasurership nomination, it is said, will be confronted by certain ghostly forms which may render his polical pathway extremely thorny. The clarion voice of that old republican warhorse of the fifth district, Joseph Kendall, will be heard in the land at the proper time and Virgil will pronounce Mark Anthony's funeral oration over the dead body of someone when all funeral arrangements are completed.

"A SETTLER"

Col. W. Scott Roberts was in Kent last week and made a careful survey of the political field. The Record's editor takes to politics as readily as does a duck to water, and he sums up the local conditions here as follows:

"It is a well known fact that this county has many candidates for the dozen county officers to be filled the coming season. While Kent county has not as many candidates in the field as Queen Anne's, yet those who are up are hustlers. The three offices in Kent which seem to bring to the front in the ranks of the democrats the greatest number of contestants are county treasurer, State Senator and State's attorney. The chief contestants for State Senator are Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and ex-State Senator Wm. T. Hepbron, and for State's attorney, Wm. M. Slay and W. W. Beck, Esqs., both prominent and able members of the Chestertown bar. For Senator Mr. Vickers will make the county an industrious, creditable and able representative should he be chosen at the primaries and elected in November next. The democrats of Kent, like the democrats of this county have not always chosen their best and ablest men to represent them in the State Legislature, and now is the time their best and ablest and strongest men of the party should be brought to the front as candidates, because the people demand that class of men, and, in order to redeem the State from republican rule, the ablest men are required to accomplish it. Mr. Vickers will make a strong candidate for the reason that he "fills the bill." Mr. Slay and Mr. Beck have a strong following throughout the county and the people will not go astray by choosing either. Mr. Slay has his splendid record as State's attorney for four years previous to the incumbent, Mr. John D. Urie, in his favor. His four years' service to the county is lauded alike by his supporters and opponents. A ticket with such democrats as Vickers, Slay and Beck will prove a settler for republican rule in Kent."

WHISKEY CASES TRIED.

The TRANSCRIPT of last week gave detailed court proceedings up to Wednesday afternoon and in this issue takes up the report where last meek's account stopped.

THURSDAY.

The jury in the case of W. H. Cacy vs Crippen brought in a verdict for Cacy for $351.68. Mr. Cacy's claim was $750. Hynson and Vickers for Cacy; Barroll for Crippen.

James T. Dodson vs. John D. Urie, was somewhat a complicated case involving joint tenancy on Mr. Uries farm. The case occupied the greator portion of the day. Verdict for Dodson $15.68.

The grand jury brought in presentments against Henry Johns, colored, for violating the local option law; two cases against John Shelton, for selling cider and whiskey; two cases against Annie Kennard for violating local option law.

FRIDAY.

Sam'l J. Roseberry vs. John Duyer laid an attachment in the hands of Vickers, Hill and Owens, garnishees, on judgment for money which Duyer obtained from the verdict against the garnishees. Duyer claimed to have assigned this verdict to Mrs. Duyer, Barroll and Hynson for value received. The amount of Mrs. Duyers claim $450. The question at issue was whether or not the assignment of the verdict before entry of judgment is assignable. Jury trial; Barroll and Hynson for Duyer; Wickes and Beck for Roseberry; on trial at close of session.

The grand jury brought in following presentments: Annie Kennard for violating local option law; Lee Tie for larceny of bracelet; Geo. Jones for violating local option law (two cases). True bills were found against John Shelton (two cases); Henry Johns, Annie Kennard (two cases) for violating local option law; Capt. Anthony Pendegrast (two cases) violating oyster law.

SATURDAY.

In the Roseberry case verdict was given in favor of Duyer.

The grand jury brought in true bills against John W. Kelley, two cases, and John McCauley, one case, for violations of local option law.

The grand jury made the following report and was discharged:

The grand jury after being in session one week and six days, and having examined 69 witnesses, have found 26 presentments and 26 true bills; visited the jail and found it in good condition. We recommend that some action be taken with regard to what is known as the Lockup in Galena, Kent county, Md.; from evidence received it is unsafe. In visiting the jail we found a man giving his name as C. E. Desmont, in a demented condition and we recommend the attention of the court to his case.

W. E. KEYSER, Foreman.

The next case was State vs. John Wesley Johnson, charged with stealing a gun from Mr. Stevens, of near Cecilton. Mr. Stevens' gun was stolen at a shooting match near Galena five years ago, and was recovered in the possession of Johnson last year. Verdict not guilty. Court trial. W. W. Beck for Johnson; Urie for State.

The next case was State vs. Lee Tie, charged with stealing a man's bracelet from Jum Kam, the Chestertown laundryman. This was the first arraignment of a Chinaman in a Kent county court. It was shown that the Kent county Chinaman owed the other a bill, and that the property had been taken as part payment. Charlie Lee, who came over in connection with this case as interpreter, claimed to be the original Charlie Lee, and spoke first-rate English. Verdict was, not guilty. Clarence W. Perkins and W. W. Beck for Lee Tie, Urie for State.

State vs. Jacob Jones charged with stealing chickens from Mrs. Bryan, in Morgnec. Verdict guilty, sentence 18 months in penitentiary. M. deK. Smith for Jones, Urie for State. Jones had for years been a noted character in that section of the county and had been suspected of connection with many robberies.

MONDAY.

State vs. J. W. Johnson, colored, charged with having forged the name of Henry Brown, of Quaker Neck, to an order for coffin, shroud, etc., on the late E. C. Reiche. Mr. Reiche filled the order and afterward discovered the forgery. Jury trial, verdict guilty. Sentence three years in penitentiary. W. W. Beck for Johnson, Urie for State.

State vs. Alex. Burton, colored, charged with stealing money from Capt. Townsend. Burton was captured as he boarded the train at Chestertown in an effort to escape and nearly all of the money was recovered. He plead guilty; sentence two years in penitentiary. W. M. Slay for Burton, Urie for State.

State vs. J. H. Potts, col'd, charged with assault with intent to kill J. H. Sewell with razor. Court trial, verdict guilty, sentence ten years in penitentiary. Judge Stump, in passing sentence, stated that this habit of carrying pistols and razors must be stopped and with emphasis ordered an entry of the ten year sentence.

State vs. Jacob Jones, col., charged with assault upon Deputy Sheriff Charles L. Gill. It was shown that Jones in resisting arrest shot at Deputy Gill at short range, the ball just grazing Mr. Gill's head. Jury trial, verdict guilty; sentence ten years in penitentiary, sentence to commence at expiration of the 18 months for larceny.

State vs. Wesley Hynson, col., charged with assault with intent to kill Mary Elliott. Jury trial, verdict guilty; sentence six years in penitentiary.

State vs. John P. Shelton, charged with violating local option law at Golt's Station. In this case the old issue of the intoxicating qualities of the article sold was introduced. The two witnesses for the prosecution, George Ivory and Jacob Poor, swore that they had purchased cider of Shelton time and again and that they had been made drunk by it. A number of reputable citizens of the first district, including such men as Thos. Dunn, Harry F. Price, Walter Clayton, Thomas L. Stevens and others, testified that they would not believe Poor or Ivory on their oaths, and some 20 other citizens testified that they had drank the cider, and that it was nothing but pure apple cider with no alcoholic properties and was not intoxicating. The jury, after having been out about ten minutes, returned with a verdict of not guilty in each case. Hope H. Barroll appeared for Shelton and John D. Urie for State.

TUESDAY.

Judge Pearce left for Annapolis on Monday and was not on the bench on either Monday or Tuesday.

Henry Kay and Benjamin Kramer applied for naturalization.

Edward Comegys vs. State, case of common assault. Court trial, verdict not guilty.

State vs. Benjamin Jones, colored, charged with stealing chickens from Mr. O. M. Fogwell. Verdict guilty, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. W. W. Beck for Jones; Urie for State.

State vs. Alexander Boyer, colored, charged with using horse and carriage. Jury trial, verdict guilty, sentenced to four months in county jail. W. W. Beck for Boyer; Urie for State.

The next case was that of the State vs. Annie Kennard, charged with a violation of the local option law, in that she had sold whiskey to Detective Hoffman. Jury trial, verdict not guilty. M. deK. Smith and R. D. Hynson for Kennard, Urie for State.

State vs. Annie Kennard was a charge of violating the local option law in having sold whiskey to Detective Kinsley. Jury trial, verdict guilty.

In this case the court imposed a fine of $500 to be paid forthwith, and in default of payment, nine months in the House of Correction. The fine had not been paid at the time of going to press.

The third case against the Kennard woman for a violation of the local option law was taken up at the evening session. A feature of the occasion was the presence of a number of the most prominent ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Kent. The ladies were given comfortable positions and were attentive listeners to the entire case. The case was given to the jury shortly after nine o'clock. After being out all night the jury reported that it was impossible to agree on a verdict and was discharged. The vote is stated as having stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal.

The ladies in court were: Mrs. J. W. Corey, Mrs. T. Shafer, Mrs. R. T. Turner, Mrs. S. E. Stewart, Mrs. W. D. Pennington, Mrs. Hamilton Crew, Mrs. T. W. Skirven, Mrs. J. P. Nicholson, Mrs. A. A. Reinhart, Mrs. Elias Othoson, Mrs. Harry Redmile, Miss Blanche McKnett, Mrs. E. E. Hudson, Mrs. Celeno Newman, Mrs. W. W. McKnett, Mrs. Thomas Redmile, Miss Lula VanDyke, Mrs. Joseph Weer, Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mrs. G. R. Rasin, Miss Anne R. Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Godwin, Mrs. Neal Haddaway, Mrs. Horace Reed, Mrs. W. E. Sanders, Miss Julia Davis, Mrs. Samuel Brown, Mrs. Wm. Smith, Miss Janie Anderson, Miss Sue Mathews, Mrs. J. R. Jarrell, Mrs. Jas. Brice, Mrs. W. J. Vannort, Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, Mrs. Walter Gale, Pres. Co. C. E.; Revs. Kent M. Bull, Makoskey, Gill and others.

WEDNESDAY.

State vs. Henry Johns, colored, charged with violation of local option law. The jury failed to agree and were discharged. Messrs. Hynson and Smith for Johns, and Urie for State, agreed to submit the case to the court on same evidence, which was done and the court decided not guilty.

State vs. George Jones, for violating local option law. Not guilty admitted by State in both cases.

State vs. McCauley, charged with violating local option law. Upon certificate of physician that McCauley was unable to attend court, case was continued.

State vs. J. W. Kelley, charged with violating local option law in two cases, continued upon statement that one witness could not be gotten.

State vs. J. T. Lamb (2 cases) and one case against G. L. Chrisfield, sentence was suspended. Lamb had taken out license in the name of his sister and Chrisfield had taken out a license in the name of his wife. In both cases the licenses to carry on business were regularly issued, but in reference to this point the court decided that in the future no female trader's license shall be issued except to those doing a strictly millinery business.

Court finally adjourned about 1 o'clock.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

Sheep Shearing Notice.

Having bought a Stewart's patent sheep shearer, I wish to offer my services to the public. By this devise it is possible to shear a sheep in ten minutes. The principle upon which the shearer works is that of the clipper for horses. By it there is no loss of wool, no clipping of sheep, a saving all round. It is estimated that a half pound of wool is saved to the farmer with each fleece, and taking into consideration my charge, FIVE CENTS PER SHEEP, the farmer really has his sheep sheared without cost. This method is really a money saver to the farmer. For further particulars address me at Rock Hall, Kent County, Md.

We repectfully solicit your account with The Second National of Chestertown.

The Security we offer our Depositors is Capital Stock,	$50,000
Liability of Stockholders under National Bank Act,	50,000
Surplus,	12,000
Net Undivided Profits,	4,000
Total Security to Depositors...	$116,000

Our depositors are further assured of the security offered by semi-annual examinations of the condition of our Bank made by the National Bank Examiner, who reports the result of his examination to the Comptroller of the National Treasury; and thus compels all National Banks to observe the laws of conservative banking in accordance with the Acts of Congress governing all such banks.

The affairs of the Bank have never been in a more flourishing condition than now; 1898 was the most prosperous year in the history of the Bank.

The terms upon which we will open interest-bearing accounts with our depositors are as follows:

In this Savings Department, deposits will be received upon the following terms, conditions and agreement:

Interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum will be allowed on deposits for every calendar month they may be continued, computing from the first day of the month succeeding the deposit, but to avoid tedious calculations on small sums, none will be estimated for any fractional part of a month, nor will interest be allowed on a sum less than five dollars and multiples thereof. No interest will be paid when an account has not been continued with the department four calendar months. The year will be divided into two interest periods, ending on the last days of May and November; at the end of each period the interest due will be added to the depositor's account and so become a part of the principal.

Parents may deposit for their children and guardians for their wards, and if desired at the time of the deposit, may subject the same to the control of such parent or guardian.

Depositors shall have the right to withdraw their deposit at any time by giving one month's notice in writing, of their intention; but this notice may be dispensed with in the direction of the President or Cashier, and the same be paid on demand.

The Board of Directors may, at their discretion, return any deposit, giving one month's notice, the interest to be calculated to the time of the expiration of such notice, and no longer.

Every person on opening an account in this department shall be furnished with a book containing a deplicate of the account, in which the deposits and the payments shall be entered as soon as made, and it will be necessary for the book to be brought to the bank every time a deposit is made, or money withdrawn, so that the transaction may be regularly entered. In all cases where the whole amount is drawn out, the book must be given up to the Bank.

No money shall be paid except to the person having the legal right to the deposit, or to his or her order, which order must be witnessed by some respectable person, other than the one in whose favor the order is drawn, and must always be accompanied by the book.

In any case where the book is lost the depositor must notify the Bank of such loss; and where the depositor's signature is made by a cross-mark, the Bank will not be responsible for payment to a wrong person producing the book, in cases where the book has been lost and no notice given thereof.

If a deposit book be lost, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from any depositor, immediate notice thereof must be given to the officers of the Bank, and, after a sufficient publication of said loss and satisfactory surety be given to the Bank a duplicate book will be issued.

Possession of the book of deposit shall be evidence of ownership thereof to authorize the payment of money due thereon, and although the Bank will endeavor to prevent fraud on its depositors, yet all payments which shall be made by the Bank to any person producing the book of a depositor shall be valid as against the depositor, and a full and effectual release therefor to the Bank.

The above is a statement of the condition of the Bank at the close of business on April 5th, 1899.

We solicit your account, whether large or small. If you have never opened an account with us we shall be pleased to receive your patronage. If you at any time desire loans in large or small amounts, we will make every possible endeavor to accommodate you with a large or small sum.

Yours very respt.,

W. B. COPPER, Cashier.

VACCINATION ORDINANCE.

In Effect on and After April 1st, 1899.

BY VIRTUE of authority conveyed in Section 8 of Article 43, Code of Public General Laws 1898, title "Health," it is ordered by the STATE BOARD OF HEALTH that on and after April 1st, 1899, no SMALL-FRUIT GROWER, CANNER, TRUCK-FARMER, or FISH PACKER shall take into his employ any person or persons who do not show proof of vaccination of more recent date than July, 1898. Any person or persons violating this law shall be fined not less than 50 nor exceeding 500 dollars.

JOHN S. FULTON, SEC'Y.

Passed March 9th, 1899. Section 8 of Article 43, Code of Public General Laws is as follows:

Whenever the State Board of Health shall have cause to believe that there is any danger of cholera, small-pox or other dangerous infectious disease invading this State or country, it shall be the duty of the said Board to take such action and adopt and enforce such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary to prevent the introduction or spread of such infectious or dangerous disease within this State, and any person or persons or corporation refusing or neglecting to obey such rules and regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor exceeding five hundred dollars for every such offense.

OFFICE LOCAL BOARD OF HEALTH FOR KENT COUNTY.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., April 11th, 1899.

The recent order passed by the State Board of Health concerning Vaccination was made necessary by the increasing number of cases of small-pox, largely due, it is believed, by importation, several places in Pennsylvania, Washington, D. C., Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., being especially dangerous points. The season is drawing near when "foreign labor" comes into Kent for various purposes and it is feared these persons will bring the contagion with them as they are and have been exposed daily. The Virginia colored labor comes into Anne Arundel County; the Bohemians from Baltimore go to the same county and mix with them, so with the Baltimore county labor, from the berry farms, truck farms, etc., they come to the packing houses and farms of Kent. So it is really this class that must be watched closely. Any farmer, factory owner, canner, or anyone employing labor that comes from a distance is required to have said laborer show a certificate of Vaccination since July, 1898, and failing to so inquire subjects any such employer to a penalty. If he finds such labor unable to comply he must at once communicate with the nearest doctor and have him vaccinated, if he is too poor to pay them it may be charged to the county, as required by law; and he must be sure that he has been either successfully vaccinated or proved immune by repeated trials. No certificate should be given such labor until absolute proof of protection is furnished the doctor. It is not thought necessary to have all our home labor vaccinated at this time, though if small pox appears such should be done. I shall endeavor to inspect the factories and canneries when possible. The family physician has authority to vaccinate; whenever possible the fee should be paid by the party being vaccinated, or by the employer, who may reimburse himself from the wages; when not able to pay it may be charged to the county as mentioned above.
