all the bedding, Carpets and such other things, as I wish to be kept for my Children, until they are old enough to want them, If either of my Children die without legal issue, or heirs of his, or her body. I give the entire property of such deceased Child, to the Survivor.

If both my Children die without legal issue. I will that the unmarried living Children of my brothers George M. Blakistone and Z. D. Blakistone shall share equally, the income from my property, as follows, the Males until they arrive at the age of sixteen years; and the females of said Children who remain single until the youngest arrive at the age of eighteen years.- the males losing their interest at sixteen years of age, and the females on marriage. When the youngest female Child of my brother Z. D. Blakistone shall arrive at the age of eighteen years; then I will That all of my property shall be equally divided between the surviving Children of my said brothers, share and share alike,

I desire and request that my Children George and Lucy never advise with, or have any business transactions with any of their half brothers, or sisters - that they treat them with courtesy, where by Chance they meet them: but never to visit them, if they have any regard for me, unless it be Agnes, to whom I wish them to
