DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

To the Democratic Voters of Kent County.

Pursuant to the action of the County Executive Committee, the democratic voters will meet in their respective election districts and precints, on Saturday, June 3, 1899, between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of appointing six delegates from each district to meet in Chestertown on Tuesday, the 6th day of June, 1899, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M., to nominate one candidate for Senator, two candidates for House of Delegates, one candidate for sheriff, one candidate for county treasurer, three candidates for judges of the orphans' court, three candidates for county commissioners, one candidate for State's Attorney and one candidate for county surveyor. The judges hereby named for each district shall appoint two clerks and shall open and close the polls at the hours herein prescribed, and when the polls are opened, shall receive the votes of all democrats offering to vote whose names shall appear upon the registration books and who shall vote in the district when they are registered, and shall also receive the votes of all young democrats who on account of their age are not now registered but who will be entitled to registration and to vote at the ensuing November election, provided such persons shall give satisfactory proof equal to that required by the officers of registration, to said judges, and shall further pledge themselves to support the nominees, and of none others. And upon the closing of the polls at the hour herein directed, the said judges shall proceed to count the votes cast, and shall certify to the six persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates, the number of votes cast for each person for the respective offices to be filled. Whereupon it shall be the duty of said delegates to proceed to Chestertown on said Tuesday in June, and cast the vote of the district for those candidates receiving the greatest number of votes until it shall be made to appear that all or part of such persons cannot be nominated. In this event the convention shall proceed to nominate a ticket by a majority vote of the same.

The voters at the primary election on said Saturday, June 3d, shall vote for one person for Senator, two persons for the House of Delegates, one person for sheriff, one person for county treasurer, three persons for judges of the orphans' court, three persons for county commissioners, one person for State's attorney, one person for county treasurer and six persons as delegates to the county convention.

The mode of procedure herein prescribed shall be strictly followed, any other method will not be legal, as this committee has full power so to decree.

The clerk of the circuit court is hereby requested to furnish each election district with the registered voters thereof.

All democrats wishing to be considered candidates in these primaries will give their names to the secretary, for the respective offices to be filed, otherwise their names will not appear on the ballots.

The following were appointed to serve as judges at the democratic primaries to be held Saturday, June 3rd, 1899, from 2 to 6 o'clock P. M.:

Ernest, first district; William Crow, for Alwyn N. Stavely, second district; Wm. A. Smith, for Enoch N. Roland, fourth district; John Wood, for James M. Wood, fifth district; M. M. Rasin, for S. H. Todd, sixth district, and A. C. Loud, for J. J. Goodman, seventh district.

GET TOGETHER Cecil democrats. No time for wrangling now.

SO FAR, the Hon. George Russum has not emerged from his temporary obscurity to become a luminous leader on the republican ticket this fall.

IT WAS REPORTED LAST WEEK that ex-President Cleveland was dead. Mr. Cleveland says it is not so, and has been kicking like a Quaker Neck steer ever since.

THE PECULIARITIES of some Kent county names continue to agitate the risibilities of the distinguished Mr. Grasty of the Baltimore News. Goosehill is the latest name to lay seige to his laughing machinery.

THE TOWN FATHERS of Chestertown should have joined voices with Mayor Malster in his invitation to Admiral Dewey to visit the home of the peach, the diamond-back, the canvass-back, the oyster and of Senator Wellington.

QUEEN ANNE COUNTY DEMOCRATS fail to take kindly to the effort made by a staff writer of the Baltimore American to name tickets on this side of the bay. Editor Roberts sees a "nigger in the woodpile" and promptly serves notice on the Baltimore journal to stand hands off.

THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS in Charleston last week very properly decided that President McKinley's talk of Government Supervision of Confederate graves, was campaign buncombe and rejected the suggestion. The pity is that such claptrap was dignified by being even noticed by the old heroes of the Lost Cause.

GOVERNOR LLOYD LOWNDES on Monday made formal announcement of his candidacy for renomination as his own successor. Kent will be one of the counties in which the Governor's announcement will not be received with a startling burst of approval. His excellency however, will be able to find here a few of the loyal original Lowndes men. Col. W. J. Vannort is conspicuous among this large minority.

THE ACTION of the County Democratic Committee on Tuesday, in determining upon Saturday, June third, for the democratic primaries, was marked by conservatism and wisdom. As has been urged by the TRANSCRIPT in voicing the sentiment of many of the most representative democrats of the county, this date is a happy mean between the very early and very late dates upon which the primary election might have been held. Ample time has been given for a full discussion of candidates and methods, and June the third will come in ahead of the very busy season and all will be enabled to take part in the proceedings without unnecessary interference with pressing interests at home. The committee have met the demands of the occasion with admirable judgment, and in a spirit of fairness to the interests of all candidates and their friends. The date for holding the convention will give ample opportunity for the adjustment of all entanglements which may have injected themselves into a heated primary campaign.

IT IS STATED that Senator Charles T. Westcott has been waited upon by several committees of prominent Baltimore republicans, urging him to be a candidate for Governor. Mr. Westcott is reported as having refused to allow the use of his name "at this time." Just what the reservation of "at this time" means, remains to be seen. It is scarcely to be expected that the Governor's ambition to succeed himself will go through unchallenged.

SENATOR JOHN S. WIRT, has notified the democracy of Cecil that he is "entitled to some decent consideration in the selection of delegates" to the State convention. Or in other words, Mr. Wirt emphasizes the distinction between a delegation sent simply to cast votes and a delegation of earnest supporters, whose voting powers will be supplemented by zealous work. After all, it rather looks to the outsider as though the Cecil county Senator's indignant protest against the irregularities of last week's convention is justified.

TUESDAY WAS one of the most interesting days of the present preliminary contest for place on the democratic ticket. Representative party men were in Chestertown from every section of the county, and a general interchange of opinion took place. Other than the re-entry of Mr. Kelley, in the sheriffality fight in the fifth district, there have been no additions to or withdrawals from the field of candidates. While a decided majority of those in town were entirely satisfied with the date selected for the primaries, there were many who really desired that it be even sooner. The greatest amount of discussion among the executive committeemen during their session was relative to the question of whether or not it would be better to vote in the primaries strictly from the registration books or whether some other plan should be adopted. Some contended for a strict adherence to the registration list without any concessions whatever. A reference to the official call printed elsewhere in this issue will show the exact result of the deliberations of the gentlemen composing the committee.

WITH THE near approach of the date for naming a ticket by the democrats, republican leaders are getting in position for active work. A proposition made by a prominent republican leader to a representative among the colored voters several days ago, is certainly significant. It is a fact that certain leaders of the party in Kent have claimed to recognize in the colored following of the party a load too heavy to be successfully borne. These gentlemen have used the colored contingent as the scapegoat upon which to load the responsibility for all defeats and any miscarriages of their chosen plans. The colored element of their party has, from time to time, been denounced in terms which no democrat ever thought of using in regard to a colored voter. The gist of the present story is, that several days ago, one of those leaders whose denunication of the colored voters of his party has been conspicuous by its bitterness, approached a colored leader and with smiles and blandishments which would have honored a Chesterfield, said in substance: "Now, Fred, you know the campaign is coming on, and we want to win. It strikes me that it would be better, and would add strength to our ticket for the colored element of the party not to be represented in the convention by delegates, or in any way. What do you think of it?" Fred was silent and respectful, but when he spoke there was what Daniel Webster termed "sledge-hammer logic" in his words. "Well, sir, I don't know but that you are right, but don't you think, that if the colored people are a source of weakness to the party, that it would be a good idea to divide up, and about half of them go over and carry their weakness to the democrats. It seems to me that that is not a bad idea, and I don't suppose the democrats will object to a sprinkling of colored votes for their candidates." The suggestion was not more significant than was this cool and philosophical reply of the colored republican. The masses of the colored people in Maryland, are becoming extremely tired of being villified and denounced by the pets of political fortune whom they have been voting into lucrative political jobs from the time they were first given the right of franchise.

The county convention of the prohibition party on Wednesday of last week, in convention assembled, named the following ticket for the fall campaign:

PROHIBITION COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Full Ticket Named With the Exception of a Candidate for State's Attorney.

The county convention of the Prohibition party met in Still Pond on Wednesday of last week. The attendance was larger than for many years and the interest correspondingly greater. After the incidental business the following ticket was named: Senate, R. T. Turner; House of Representatives, Benjamin F. Rash, John H. Weist; Treasurer, W. E. Sanders; Sheriff, Geo. C. VanDyke, Orphans Court, Henry S. Cook, Chas. E. Lane, A. M. Culp; County Commissioners, 1st district, Frank S. Bottomly; 2nd district, Harry C. Jarrell; 4th district, Samuel W. Brown. Rev. Q. L. Morrow was present and addressed the meeting. The following were elected delegates to the State convention which meets in Baltimore, June 15th: Rev. Louis Randall, Geo. C. VanDyke, Rev. C. N. Jones, Rev. D. F. Waddell; alternates, Rev. J. R. Cannon, T. S. Bottomly, G. W. Covington, W. H. Krusen.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Cure be sure and get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

The affairs of the Bank have never been in a more flourishing condition than now; 1898 was the most prosperous year in the history of the Bank.

The terms upon which we will open interest-bearing accounts with our depositors are as follows:

In this Savings Department, deposits will be received upon the following terms, conditions and agreement:

Interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum will be allowed on deposits for every calendar month they may be continued, computing from the first day of the month succeeding the deposit, but to avoid tedious calculations on small sums, none will be estimated for any fractional part of a month, nor will interest be allowed on a sum less than five dollars and multiples thereof. No interest will be paid when an account has not been continued with the department four calendar months. The year will be divided into two interest periods, ending on the last days of May and November; at the end of each period the interest due will be added to the depositor's account and so become a part of the principal.

Parents may deposit for their children and guardians for their wards, and if desired at the time of the deposit, may subject the same to the control of such parent or guardian.

Depositors shall have the right to withdraw their deposit at any time by giving one month's notice in writing, of their intention; but this notice may be dispensed with in the discretion of the President or Cashier, and the same be paid on demand.

The Board of Directors may, at their discretion, return any deposit, giving one month's notice, the interest to be calculated to the time of the expiration of such notice, and no longer.

Every person on opening an account in this department shall be furnished with a book containing a deplicate of the account, in which the deposits and the payments shall be entered as soon as made, and it will be necessary for the book to be brought to the bank every time a deposit is made, or money withdrawn, so that the transaction may be regularly entered. In all cases where the whole amount is drawn out, the book must be given up to the Bank.

No money shall be paid except to the person having the legal right to the deposit, or to his or her order, which order must be witnessed by some respectable person, other than the one in whose favor the order is drawn, and must always be accompanied by the book.

In any case where the book is lost the depositor must notify the Bank of such loss; and where the depositor's signature is made by a cross-mark, the Bank will not be responsible for payment to a wrong person producing the book, in cases where the book has been lost and no notice given thereof.

If a deposit book be lost, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from any depositor, immediate notice thereof must be given to the officers of the Bank, and, after a sufficient publication of said loss and satisfactory surety be given to the Bank a duplicate book will be issued.

Possession of the book of deposit shall be evidence of ownership thereof to authorize the payment of money due thereon, and although the Bank will endeavor to prevent fraud on its depositors, yet all payments which shall be made by the Bank to any person producing the book of a depositor shall be valid as against the depositor, and a full and effectual release therefor to the Bank.

The above is a statement of the condition of the Bank at the close of business on April 5th, 1899.

We solicit your account, whether large or small. If you have never opened an account with us we shall be pleased to receive your patronage. If you at any time desire loans in large or small amounts, we will make every possible endeavor to accommodate you with a large or small sum.
