DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

To the Democratic Voters of Kent County.

Pursuant to the action of the County Executive Committee, the democratic voters will meet in their respective election districts and precints, on Saturday, June 3, 1899, between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of appointing six delegates from each district to meet in Chestertown on Tuesday, the 6th day of June, 1899, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M., to nominate one candidate for Senator, two candidates for House of Delegates, one candidate for sheriff, one candidate for county treasurer, three candidates for judges of the orphans' court, three candidates for county commissioners, one candidate for State's Attorney and one candidate for county surveyor. The judges hereby named for each district shall appoint two clerks and shall open and close the polls at the hours herein prescribed, and when the polls are opened, shall receive the votes of all democrats offering to vote whose names shall appear upon the registration books and who shall vote in the district when they are registered, and shall also receive the votes of all young democrats who on account of their age are not now registered but who will be entitled to registration and to vote at the ensuing November election, provided such persons shall give satisfactory proof equal to that required by the officers of registration, to said judges, and shall further pledge themselves to support the nominees, and of none others. And upon the closing of the polls at the hour herein directed, the said judges shall proceed to count the votes cast, and shall certify to the six persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates, the number of votes cast for each person for the respective offices to be filled. Whereupon it shall be the duty of said delegates to proceed to Chestertown on said Tuesday in June, and cast the vote of the district for those candidates receiving the greatest number of votes until it shall be made to appear that all or part of such persons cannot be nominated. In this event the convention shall proceed to nominate a ticket by a majority vote of the same.

The voters at the primary election on said Saturday, June 3d, shall vote for one person for Senator, two persons for the House of Delegates, one person for sheriff, one person for county treasurer, three persons for judges of the orphans' court, three persons for county commissioners, one person for State's attorney, one person for county treasurer and six persons as delegates to the county convention.

The mode of procedure herein prescribed shall be strictly followed, any other method will not be legal, as this committee has full power so to decree.

The clerk of the circuit court is hereby requested to furnish each election district with the registered voters thereof.

All democrats wishing to be considered candidates in these primaries will give their names to the secretary, for the respective offices to be filed, otherwise their names will not appear on the ballots.

☞NOTICE.—The Secretary of the County Executive Committee, Mr. Wm. F. Russell, Chestertown, was directed to have tickets printed for the primary with the names of all the candidates thereon and committees.

Names of all candidates must be handed to him together with the proportionate cost for primary expenses, which is estimated at three dollars each. These costs include tickets and about $25 for copies of registration lists.

It is understood that the candidates for county commissioners will be voted for only in the first, second and fourth districts—in their respective districts.

In the first district the custom in the past has been to accord three delegates to each precinct.

☞PLACE OF VOTING.—I have been written to to know if the voting places at the primaries can be changed. While I have no authority to decide such a question, my judgment is that it should not be done as it might produce a great deal of unnecessary excitement. I hope therefore the usual voting places will be adhered to.

☞TIME EXTENDED—As the committees of the different districts will not be agreed upon until Wednesday, 31st, the tickets to be used at the primaries cannot be printed until after that time, therefore the period is hereby extended until the morning of that day for candidates to hand in their names to MR. WM. F. RUSSELL, Secretary, so that they may be printed on the tickets.

THE TICKETS AND BOOKS will be furnished on Saturday morning, June 3rd, at and after 8 o'clock by Mr. Wm F. Russell, Sec'y, to the chief judge to each precinct and district or to his written order.

WM. S. WALKER,
Chairman Kent Co. Ex. Committee.

THE WAY of the politician is hard.

POLITICS were 106° in the shade in town yesterday.

SENATOR CHARLES TILDEN WESTCOTT, of Kent, is still being considered as a gubernatorial possibility—a political Moses, as it were.

AN EFFORT IS BEING MADE to secure the nomination of a Sheriff for Talbot county by popular vote rather than by the county convention system.

THE PROSPECTS ARE that Dreyfus, the prisoner of Devil's Island, will soon have his inning and Devil's Island may be treated to a change of boarders.

SIX INCHES OF LAND in Chicago rents for forty-five dollars per annum. There is evidently nothing cheap about Chicago real estate.

TICKET-MAKING has been a pleasant passtime in Kent with both democrats and republicans, during the past week In fact, the republican politicians are as profoundly interested in the make-up of the democratic ticket as in their own. They want it diluted and weak, while the democrats will endeavor to give it to them straight and strong.

MR. EDWARD B. EMORY, a candidate for the Queen Anne county clerkship, was in Chestertown last week, and freely discussed the situation at home. Mr. Emory is putting up a strong fight in Centreville district. The political situation in Queen Anne is considerably muddled. It would not be safe for our democratic friends across the Chester to bank too much faith on their handsome majorities of the past.

IT IS SOMEWHAT REMARKABLE that "Farmer Brown," with his very satisfactory gubernatorial record back of him and his recent brilliant services rendered to the Baltimore democracy, is not even mentioned in connection with the approaching campaign for a new chief executive. May be he considers that United States Senator Brown would have a more euphonious sound to the ex-gubernatorial ear.

THE REPUBLICAN IDEA of shifting responsibility for the present epidemic of trusts, is not a bad one, if they can work it off on the people. But can they do it? That is the question.

THE BALTIMORE SUN has reached the ripe old age of sixty-two years and continues to increase in vigor and usefulness with increase of age. Clean, reliable and conservative, the Baltimore Sun has reached the point of being the journalistic ideal, not only throughout Maryland, but through the entire south and wherever known. It is one of the strongest papers, editorially, in the United States. Longer life and brighter honors to the Sun.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE GHOST of Mr. Gorman has raised its ugly form to render miserable and sleepless the nights of republican purists. Should the people ever see proper to induct Mr. Gorman into position of political trust, the ex-Senator's most bitter political enemies of the past will have little trouble in endorsing him as against Mr. Wellington and his friends. The day of Gormanphobia, in the light of republican supremacy in Maryland, has forever passed away.

IT IS RATHER REMARKABLE that Mr. Urie's organ should be so deeply solicitous of the fair name of the democratic party in the present campaign. His editorial philosopher is terribly disturbed about the "whiskey and money" element in democratic ranks. This wild frenzy as to political methods may justly appear in an exaggerated form to the gentlemen who indulged in both "whiskey and money" so generously and successfully in their own campaigns. The people have right to demand a fairness and decency in political campaigns as in other matters, but when the demand for purity is raised by one or more of the men convicted as being notoriously guilty of the outrages from which they demand relief in behalf of the people, the situation is materially changed. It is a case of the righteous Pharisee: too glaring in its hypocracy to be effective in deceiving the people.

THE QUESTION of a street sprinkler is still before the citizens of Chestertown. The ownership of a pair of good horses, a wagon and the hiring of a first-rate man would be an excellent investment for Chestertown. When not being used in the operation of the street sprinkler the man and team could be given constant employment in hauling off the mass of refuse which collects in the driveways to be ground into powder and carried by the first breeze into the lungs of those unfortunate enough to be in the particular vicinity. Let us hear from the people in reference to this matter. This is not a question of sentiment, but one of practical importance to the people. Should it be decided that this great improvement is not practical or desirable at this time, the TRANSCRIPT bows in submission to the general will, but until such a decision is reached it invites and solicits a clear and full discussion of this matter.

ON SATURDAY, will close one of the most aggressive and interesting primary campaigns known in Kent for many years. The great number of candidates for the respective places on the democratic ticket, has introduced, to some extent, an element of bitterness and uncertainty, and it is difficult, even at this late date, for the ticket forecasters to satisfactorily work out with any degree of certainty the personnel of the ballot which will be officially given out by the convention next Tuesday. All parties however, fully reconize the fact that democratic success in the fall election is of paramount importance, and that the most potent factor in securing this result is harmony. All of the aspirants to a place on the ticket should remember, that to secure a ticket which will enlist the sympathy, confidence and support of the voting masses, absolute fairness in the conduct of the primaries will be required. Fairness of treatment, not only to the candidates but to their friends, will keep down bitterness and will disarm the adverse criticism of the common enemy in the fall election, the republican politican. There is no reason for carrying on a campaign of personal abuse, or of committing one's self in a moment of enthusiastic support of any individual candidate, to expressions which will rise up as a Banquo's Ghost in the later campaign to embarrass. A clean, fair fight all along the line; a contest on individual fitness and personal merit is what the occasion demands, and with such a campaign, the result in November may be awaited with perfect equanimity of spirit.

WRESTLING WITH A BULL.

A Sicilian Matador Fails to Down the Animal and Pays a Fine For Cruelty.

The following interesting account of the remarkable contest between a man and a bull comes from New York.

Romulus, a Sicilian matador, was matched to wrestle with two bulls, one at a time, in an arena in West New York, N. Y., May 26, and throw them on their backs. At the end of an hour and thirty minutes the first bull was still on its feet, and Romulus was arrested by an agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

One thousand persons surrounded the arena, which was about fifty feet square and formed by a high fence eight feet high. On two sides of the enclosure, shelters were constructed for the men if hard pressed by the bulls.

The matador infuriated the bull by waving a colored robe until the animal charged. When the bull was a few yards away, Romulus threw the robe on the ground, jumped nimbly aside and caught the animal with both arms around the neck.

Then he caught the animal by the horns, stopped him, and slowly bent the beast's head downward and sidewise, at the same time putting his shoulders against the bull. The bull struggled and tossed his head, and then began rushing around in a circle, Romulus trying in vain to stop him.

At times the man was tossed on the bull's back, at others he was under his neck, but all the time clinging to his horns. Once he was dragged against a post, tearing his arm badly. The bull, however, did not lose his footing, and after a quarter of an hour of effort Romulus slipped away from the animal.

Four times was the bout repeated before the officer interfered. Romulus was taken before Recorder Einbeck and fined $50 on a charge of baiting a wild animal. It was paid, and the contest was declared off.

Would Not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. WILSON, Liveryman, Burgetistown, Washing Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.
