that makes such. I got your letter just time enough to save a piece of the hair off I have had it all cut off. ~~[illegible]~~ I cannot know what to say about the hair that you sent me, but you may give my compliments to your acquaintance, though I have not the pleasure knowing her you must really excuse this scrawl as I have more to tell you when I come down that I can insert here, I am very ~~[illegible]~~ well and hope it will not be long before I see you, therefore I must bid you an affectionate farewell wishing you all Earthly happiness —

I still remain your affectionate Brother
