Miss Anna M. Amelia
Quison Anne Co.

Dear Anna

Chester Town Septr. 23 1802

Anna I have nothing to doo - therefore thinking that you would take some pleasure in reading nonsence at a leasure hour, as coming from your Brother, I attempt to write about something or other, well what shall it be? I dont know what, but however have just that now I spent last evening, it was with the Bride and Bride Groom at Mr. Smiths where I used to live, William Smith the gentleman, and Miss H. Nicholson the lady that daughter of Mr. J. Nicholson of this County - But to return to my nonsence, after sitting sometime, up stairs two or three in the room, Miss W. Smith, Miss M. Comegys the bride maid, Mr. W. Bassett and as how Mr. A. Hemsley, were those in the room, talking on different subjects, Miss S. observed that
