THE TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations to its venerable neighbor, the News, upon its sixty-second anniversary. The News has gathered strength and vigor with age.

IT NOW SEEMS ASSURED that Governor Lowndes is to be the nominee of his party in Maryland. The Governor may poll the full party strength in Kent but certainly but little enthusiasm will be created.

MR. PERRY BELMONT, of New York, is favorble to the nomination of ex-Senator Gorman for the presidency. Mr. Hallucination A. Parr, of Baltimore, will of course have to be heard from before any nomination can be made. Will Mr. Gorman meet his royal sanction?

THE DEMOCRATIC GUBERNATORIAL SITUATION is assuming an interesting phase. Mr. Edwin Warfield is making a dining and supping campaign on the Western Shore, while the Eastern Shore editors have shown themselves not averse to breaking bread and sampling dainty viands at the hospitable board of Congressman John Walter Smith. Were the Eastern Shoremen less loyal to their geographical position, Mr. Smith has claims upon his party which should not be ignored. His splendid fight in redeeming his district from the republicans and his eminent public services have made of him one of the conspicuously strong men of his party in Maryland.

THE AMOUNT of money used in Queen Anne county primaries is variously estimated at from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars. The boys who take a "little present" for their vote, worked the situation for all it was worth. One fellow sold to both sides, failed to vote and had all of his money taken away and divided among the two parties to the transaction, while another sold to one side, voted for the other candidate and was deprived of his spoils. Both Saturday and Tuesday were animated days in Queen Anne, but his name is "George."

EDITOR ASH of the Cecil Democrat, read an interesting paper at the Snow Hill editorial convention upon the "Party Organ." This subject naturally gives rise to many interesting questions in the public mind. In the first place, what is the technical definition of a "party organ?" and in the next place, who has the authority to designate and upon what basis is the "party organ" determined? The question of the journalistic party-mouth-piece presents some rather remarkable phases of both political and journalistic life. It is often difficult to distinguish which is the dog and which the tail or which is doing the wagging, the tail or the dog. It is to the clean, conscientious, independent press to whom the people must look for deliverance from political dictatorships and official corruption and not to the "party organ," a term synonymous with the self-appointed creature of a political machine. The People's Organ is the interesting and picturesque factor in dealing with the great public questions which present themselves in our local and national life. The "party organ" can only become such at the sanction or behest of the little coterie of political office-mongers or office-seekers who desire to educate the public mind to their peculiar methods through its columns. The "party organ" is out of date, a back number which the people should never allow to become resurrected.

CHESTERVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Chas. W. England has been very sick but has almost entirely recovered his usual state of health.

Mrs. Oldfield, of Dover, Del., is visiting her nephew, Mr. W. S. Dill.

Mrs. E. A. Crittenden is on a business trip to Philadelphia.

Mr. C. F. Burris, after three weeks service on the Jury in Wilmington, Del., paid a flying business visit to our town yesterday. He now resides near Blackbird.

The Rev. J. E. Wilson will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. J. W. Mitchell, at Church Hill. The respective congregations will hear Bible doctrines clearly expounded and eloquently proclaimed and beyond this the daily life of each shows the man behind the sermon.

"Capt." Curlett runs weekly trips to Baltimore with a lot of junk stuff. He is quite venturesome, but there is no danger that he will go like McGinty, to the bottom of the sea on any Saturday, as he is a Seventh-day Adventist of the strictest sect.

The political storm that culminated on June 3d, is gradually dying away, although now and then there is a muttering heard. However, we suppose that when election day comes around the b'hoys will "rally round the flag."

Children's Day services at the Old Side Church on Sunday last are reported as having been very entertaining.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Washington College Celebrates its One Hundred and Seventeenth Commencement With a Delightful Programme.

DETAILS OF A WEEK OF PLEASURE.

Chestertown has been thronged with visitors, and enjoyable exercises have marked the annual commencement of that venerable and greatly honored institution of learning, Washington College. Students, some of them with heads silvered by years, and others in the full flush of vigorous manhood, have returned to do honor to their alma mater and to rekindle pleasant memories of the past.

The exercises have been of a most entertaining character, and if the excellence of the work given her students during the week of festivity and merry-making may be taken as a criterion of bodily vigor and usefulness, the old college is now at the zenith of its usefulness and glory.

A CHARMING OPENING.

Though not one of the officially announced events of "Commencement Week," the garden party by the ladies of the Pieria Literary Society on Friday evening, was really the first introduction to the round of pleasure which gave such charm to the formal close of study by the students. The terraces were lighted by myriads of Japanese lanterns, while in their mellow glow beneath the deep shade of the lindens, were scattered tete-a-tete tables for the later feast. Each picturesque nook and corner was provided with a seat, and every possible provision made for the pleasure of the young ladies and their guests.

The reception committee, consisting of Miss Adelle France, president of the Pieria, and Misses Katharine Hobbs, Edith Riley, Cora Emory, Ida Deane, Hallie Toulson, Minnie Stevens and Ellora Whitworth, extended a welcome to their guests in the spacious halls of the "middle building," the entrance to which was profusely decorated with flags and patriotic bunting, and brilliantly lighted.

At 9.30 o'clock refreshments of ices, cream and cake were served by the young ladies. Mrs. Paul Turner most graciously presided at the cake table, and dispensed an abundant hospitality. Miss France, Miss Emory, Miss Toulson and the other members of the society, were ever watchful of the pleasure of others, and made of the occasion a most charming success.

The officers of the Pieria are: President, Miss Adelle France; vice-president, Miss Ida G. Deane; secretary, Miss Minnie Stevens; treasurer, Miss Cora C. Emory.

A LITERARY FEAST.

The ladies of the Pieria Society are to be congratulated upon their rare good fortune in having Miss Beulah Gilbert, of Baltimore, give a recital on the occasion of their entertainment on Saturday evening. This is the first year the ladies' society has ever been recognized on the official calendar of commencement exercises, and their exit was one of the most brilliant of a series of pleasing events. Miss Gilbert's elocutionary work was finished and strong. Possessing a fine presence and rich, sweet voice, she has in large degree that happy adaptability which enables her to become for the time being the soul and living essence of the character she impersonates. Isrul's Bargain, The Set of Turquoise and the Seamstress, were peculiarly happy selections, if comparisons may be pardoned, in a recital so markedly meritorious. One young lady declared that in the seamstress she actually saw the pins and needles and heard the musical click of the scissors.

Mrs. Paul Turner, whose full, rich voice has delighted so many and has won for her so wide a circle of admiring friends, sang several selections, adding to an otherwise enjoyable programme. Miss Estelle Crew and Miss Maude Newnam as piano soloists, were charming. The same ladies in their piano duet, delighted the audience.

AN ELOQUENT SERMON.

The baccalaureate sermon, preached in Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church on Sunday morning last by Bishop Coleman, of Delaware; was a masterful effort. The text was, "Teach Me Good Judgment and Knowledge," Psalm 119:66. In view of the fact that the manuscript is in hand, making it possible to give the entire sermon to the TRANSCRIPT's readers next week, the questionable process of giving extracts will not be indulged in. The sermon was, in our judgment, such a gem of vigorous thought and diction as to render needless mutilation unpardonable. Of venerable and commanding presence, and possessing a full rich voice, the speaker gave to his magnificent arrangement of religious truths, additional force and beauty by his eloquent delivery. It is sincerely regretted that lack of space renders it impossible to include this splendid appeal from the pulpit with the detailed proceedings of the commencement week exercises of Washington College.

ANOTHER SERMON.

"Be thou strong therefore, and show thyself a man," I Kings, II chapter, II verse, was the text, and "Manly Strength," the crystalized theme of the fine sermon preached by Rev. Thomas O. Crouse, of Baltimore, before the Student's Christian Association in Christ Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday evening. This fine production we are also unwilling to spoil by either scissoring or giving disconnected quotations. Mr. Crouse as a young man came to Kent and opened his brilliant career of usefulness and power, and later won his bride from the sacred precincts of a Chestertown home. Under these circumstances he but came to his own, and the environment gave strength and beauty to the effort which was declared, by those in a position to judge, to have been one of the most brilliant of his life. In response to the earnest request of the editors of the TRANSCRIPT, the manuscript was placed in their hands and will be given next week in full. Mr. Crouse is one of the "young men eloquent" of the Methodist Protestant Church; possesses an extremely pleasant voice and an attractive personality. As was done in the morning at the close of the baccalaureate sermon, when all of the students and members of the faculty remained after the service to meet the speaker of the occasion, all remained and were personally presented to Mr. Crouse.

ADDRESS TO MT. VERNONS.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society was most fortunate in its selection of a speaker at its anniversary exercises on Monday evening. Rev. S. J. Morgan, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Crisfield, and dean of the Southern Convocation, was the orator of the occasion, and seldom, indeed, has it been the privilege of the people of Chestertown to listen to such an able effort. The speaker chose as his theme, "American Citizenship." He took the ground that our country, together with England, seemed to be divinely ordained to work out the civilization of the globe; the states of Europe and Asia, he argued, had seen their day, and it remained for the young "giant of the west" to go forward and accomplish the great scheme of Him who rules us all. To do this, of course, every American citizen should be alive to the importance of good statesmanship; that the hopes of the country depended upon its youth, and in most eloquent terms did he counsel vigilance against the evils that beset them. Trusts, practical depravity, strong drink, mammon, were, he said, the many-headed hydra, which is raising its head and threatening the welfare of our land; and it behooves the youth of America to wage eternal warfare against the demon. The speaker at times soared to flights of oratory that brought him most liberal applause. His command of words, his rounded, most melodious periods, his finished oratory have seldom, if ever, been equaled in Stam's Hall, and if his physique had been such as to produce a stronger voice, it is safe to say the verdict of the audience would have been that the like had never been heard here before. Rev. Mr. Morgan will long be remembered, and will be heartily welcomed should he ever decide to favor Chestertown with another visit.

DECLAMATION CONTEST.

The declamation contest in Stam's Hall on Tuesday morning, for the A. H. Reid prize, was a most interesting occasion. Without any disparagement whatever to former contests, it may be truly said that that of Tuesday was one of the most pleasant. Rev. Julius Dodd, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, opened the exercises with prayer, after which the following contestants delighted the large audience: Miss Anna B Munnikhuysen, Belair, Md.; subject, Fra Fonti. J. Waters Russell, Chestertown, Emmett's Defense. Ethel May Smith, Ingleside, Rizpah. Joseph Wilson Sutton, Blacks, Scene at the Unveiling of Lee's Monument at Richmond, May, 1890. Miss Ethel Maslin, of Rock Hall, because of some affection of the throat, to the great disappointment of many friends, was unable to enter the list, and Mr. Daniel Anderson kindly gave a most enjoyable negro poem.

The Little Pilgrim, by Miss Mattie M. Davis, of Still Pond, was greatly enjoyed. Mr. McDorman, Dames Quarter, declaimed The Ruin of Spain. The piece itself gave wide scope for the fine elocutionary powers of the eloquent young contestant. All did splendidly and received the applause and merited congratulations of many friends, but in justice to the fine work of Mr. McDorman, it may be said that his declamation was one of the finest ever given in Stam's Hall on a similar occasion. After a short consultation the committee awarded the first gentleman's prize to Mr. McDorman, and the first lady's prize to Miss Smith. The committee was composed of Messrs. H. V. Holloway, A. F. Carey, Harry Rickey, J. I. Coulbourne, and Howard Fowler.

THE PHILOMATHEAN ADDRESS.

On Tuesday evening W. T. Warburton, of the Cecil county bar, delivered the annual address before the Philomathean Literary Society. The speaker opened his all too short but delightful talk, by stating that he would talk of the practical experiences of life, and proceeded to treat everyday experiences in an extremely poetical, but at the same time, practical way. He insisted that those nobler traits of character which make men, be cultivated; that men be natural and the home be kept pure. There is a place for everyone and everyone should be in that place to secure the best results in life, was insisted upon. There are many professional men who should be driving the plow, and many others assuming places of grave responsibilities who should be wood-choppers.

Mr. Worburton is a gentleman of pleasant address, and is a fluent talker. He loves the sweet poetry of life, and drew lavishly upon the sweet songs of many sweet singers to illustrate his charming talk of the practical and good. The address was the practical questions of life set to music, and just as he had gotten his audience ready to listen and listen truly well, the sweet chord of his song was broken. It closed leaving those who heard hungering for more. The Philomatheans are to be congratulated upon their happy selection of a speaker.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

The commencement exercises proper took place in Stam's Hall yesterday morning. Mr. Thomas Alan Goldsborough and Mr. Howard U. Clogg divided first honors. Mr. Goldsborough delivered the first honor address, taking as his subject, "Happiness." Mr. Clogg prepared an address, his subject being "Independent Voting," but was excused from delivering it. Mr. J. Hall Anderson delivered the second honor address, having as his subject "The Curse of Rum." Miss Ida G. Fine music was discoursed at all of the exercises by Weber's band.

RECEPTION BY FACULTY.

The reception by the faculty of the college, in Normal Hall last night, was one of the most pleasant features of the commencement week exercises. The evening was ideal and the closing hours of the collegiate year gave a delightful rounding in this purely social function by the ladies and gentlemen constituting the official head of the time-honored institution. The professors and their wives composed the reception committee. All old students, visitors and friends of the college were invited.

COMMENCEMENT BALL.

The commencement ball in Stam's Hall last night was a brilliant affair. Many of the guests to the exercises during the week remained and participated in the festivities. The music was furnished by Weber's orchestra. The floor was in fine condition, the night ideal and everything transpired to add to the delight of the occasion.

THE QUEEN ANNE TICKET.

The democratic primaries were held in Queen Anne on Saturday and proved to be the most exciting and interesting since the palmy days of the Brown—Keating fights of some ten years ago. Though John B. Brown and Thomas J. Keating, the leaders of the greatest primary fights ever known in Maryland politics, are both dead, the old lines have not yet been obliterated, and figured on Saturday in no small degree. Mr. John E. George has become, beyond all question, the dominant factor in Queen Anne politics and swept the lines, carrying by means of combination, four of the seven districts.

The vote on Saturday was as follows:

First District—John E. George, 271; S. C. Dudley, 78.

Second—W. H. Newnam, 184; S. C. Dudley, 133; W. P. Finley, 55.

Third—W. T. P. Turpin, 336; E. B. Emory, 109.

Fourth—Kerwin-Bright, 178; Phillips-Hopkins, 138.

Fifth, —Dudley-Rhodes, 140; Bishop-Friel, 104.

Fifth, second precinct—Rhodes-Dudley, 103; Bishop-Friel, 89.

Sixth—W. H. Cecil, 106.

Seventh—George and Snitcher, 142; S. C. Dudley, 127.

The following is the ticket named by Tuesday's convention:

Senate—James E. Kirwin, of Kent Island district.

House of Delegates—Wm. D. Smith, John T. Norman and E. L. Dudley.

Clerk of the Court—John E. George.

County Treasurer—Albert Story.

County Commissioner (for six years)—J. Louis Rhodes.

Sheriff—James E. Meredith.

Judges of the Orphans' Court—Alfred Tucker, Charles R. Walls and J. B. Bright.

State's Attorney—J. Frank Harper.

Surveyor—Harry R. Graham.

Delegates to the State Convention—T. Frank Seward, John C. Hackett, Jas. F. Boyles and Geo. M. Vansant.

The above ticket was selected by practically a unanimous vote.

The Hog-Pen Question.

EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:—Your editorial last week on the hog nuisance was timely and to the point. It is hard to imagine a greater menace to comfort and health than the hog pen in a closely built up neighborhood. There is a law against this disease-breeder, but it seems to be utterly disregarded. Why do our health officers and town commissioners allow this open breach of a law so important to the wellbeing of the community? It does not seem as if it ought to be difficult to rid the town of this intolerable nuisance. After an epidemic of typhoid or other fever it will be too late. The best way, it would seem, would be to prevent the evil in time.

THE SPRINKLER.

No quality in public officials is more worthy of admiration than careful conservatism, yet, like many other good qualities, it may be carried to such excess as to make it a defect. The town commissioners have no doubt many questions to consider before granting the demand for a street sprinkler. I suppose the greatest of these questions is the expense. This has been found to be comparatively little. The benefit to be derived from the sprinkler far outweighs the small item of expense. The burden of taxation certainly ought to be kept down, but it would be so little increased if any at all, that no one could justly find fault. In fact, I have learned from good authority that three-quarters of the taxes paid are represented by the friends of this movement. When one considers the benefit to the health of the community, the addition to the comfort and attractiveness of the town, the saving of furniture at present worn out by clouds of dust from the streets through windows necessarily open in warm weather, the saving of worry and anxiety to the tidy housewife, a cent or two on the tax rate seems small in comparison. One would think, in view of all these considerations, that without sacrificing commendable conservatism the town authorities could see their way to accept and run the sprinkler.

CHESTERTOWN.

Would Not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. WILSON, Liveryman, Burgetistown, Washing Co., Pa. Honesty is the Best Policy.

HONEST GOODS, honest prices and honest dealings will surely bring success. Every hour proves it. The last days of the nineteenth century show nothing more clearly. We believe this fact and our works demonstrate our belief. Our goods are warranted to be exactly as represented, that is honest; our goods are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, that is honest. If any article of jewelry of our manufacture does not give perfect satisfaction we will refund the money paid for such articles; that, too, is honest.

T. S. BORDLEY has a complete assortment of our goods in his store for sale at prices that defy competition. These goods are made from rolled gold, gold filled or solid gold stock and are warranted to give perfect satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

If this notice should reach any one living too far away from Mr. Bordley's store, or any other customer of ours, to permit their purchasing the goods of our customers, we will sell the goods at retail to such persons, under the warranty, and deliver by mail. We will also send printed instructions as to the care of the jewelry, how to clean it, etc., on application.

Kent County Savings Bank

IS THE ONLY

"Savings Bank"

IN THIS COUNTY.

It opened its doors for business July 1st, 1893, and since then

Has Paid To Its Depositors $11,145.24

In Interest on Their Deposits.

In addition to the above magnificent amount this Bank will pay its Loyal Depositors on July 1st, about $2,000 more, as semi-annual interest from January 1st, 1899.

We are the Pioneer Interest-Paying Bank in this community, and our well-established 3 per cent. Savings Accounts are constantly increasing and are popular with all classes.

The Kent County Savings Bank is subject to the same examinations as the National Banks of this county, and is also annually examined by a committee of its Stockholders entirely distinct and separate from its Board of Directors.

Look at These New Features!

On Tuesday, May 9th, 1899, a full meeting of the Directors of this bank decided to pay

Two Per Cent. Interest Per Annum On Accounts Subject to Check.

These accounts are to be subject to check at any time, for any amount without notice, and 2 per cent. will be paid on balances of $50 and like amounts.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS may be made with the bank for 12 months or longer, on which we

Will Pay 4 Per Cent Interest Per Annum.

It is our determination to do an absolutely safe business and to pay our depositors the best rates of interest consistent therewith.

We desire you to become a depositor in the only Savings Bank in Kent county, and shall be glad to communicate or talk with you concerning our methods of transacting business.

Very respectfully,
J. K. ALDRIDGE, President.

SOMETHING NEW

AND FULL WORTHY OF TRIAL

CREAM SEPARATED FROM MILK BY GRAVITY PROCESS.

No cranks to turn, no ice needed, no machinery to get out of order, no oiling, no repairing, no speed regulations needed, no need of an extra supply of brains. It is simply a tank with a faucet and two glass windows, and is made of the very best brand of heavy tin (4x Marlboro brand) well-made, therefore durable, easily cleaned, a great labor saver. The refuse milk is a better calf feed as it is sweeter than the refuse milk from steam creamery. You can carry the cream to the creamery in one or two cans and but one trip per day in place of two trips, and 6 or more cans each trip. Ponder well over this matter. I will put out for trial one dozen tanks. Now as to prices.

No. 0, holds 7 gallons, for 1 to 3 cows, $4.00.
No. 1, " 11 " " 2 to 5 " $6.00.
No. 1½, holds 18 gallons for 4 to 6 cows, $7.00.
No. 2, " 25 gallons, for 5 to 9 cows, $9.00.
No. 3, " 43 " " 8 to 15 " $11.00.

TO DELINQUENT

TAX-PAYERS!

THIS is to give notice to ALL DELINQUENT TAX-PAYERS that the Tax Books of the county are now in my hands for the collection of Taxes, which are now due and MUST BE PAID AT ONCE.

I shall advertise Delinquents at once. Save the cost by paying promptly.

The Law Allows No Delay!

It says: "All tax bills unpaid on the first day of April in each year shall be placed in the hands of the sheriff of the county, who shall forthwith proceed to seize, levy upon, advertise and sell the property of such delinquents, or so much thereof as is necessary to pay said taxes, interest, charges, and cost of sale."

You will not be called upon for these taxes. My only visit will be to levy on the property, which will be advertised and sold according to law.
